

CRAFT IN AMERICA

PAINTING WITH FABRIC EDUCATION GUIDE

Resources and Materials for Teaching

Resources:

- Craft in America's QUILTS episode is viewable online at craftinamerica.org/episode/quilts and pbs.org/craft-in-america/tv-series/quilts
- The National Quilt Collection at The National Museum of American History has a large selection of American quilt examples (and information about each) on its website: si.edu/spotlight/national-quilt-collection
- The home page of The National Museum of African American History and Culture website, features a section entitled "Collections Sampler," that includes photographs of objects in the museum's collection, such as the personal hymnal of Harriet Tubman, slave shackles, and a dress sewn by Rosa Parks. Each image is linked to information about individuals and/or events in African American history that could be the focus of quilts designed by students. si.edu/museums/african-american-museum
