Earth Emergency
Wednesday, December 29 at 8 pm
With revealing imagery, this film examines how human activity is setting off dangerous warming loops that are pushing the climate to a point of no return and what we need to do to stop them. With captivating illustrations, stunning footage and interviews with leading climate scientists, as well as support from Greta Thunberg and The Dalai Lama among others, Earth Emergency explores four key feedback loops: the forests, the atmosphere, the permafrost and the albedo effect.

Voicecorps - WBGU-PBS In Partnership
Reading Service For the Visually Impaired

Blind or visually impaired people residing in WBGU-PBS broadcast area in Northwest Ohio now have access to Voicecorps, the Columbus-based professional news reading audio service. As part of the free service, volunteer readers share local newspapers, grocery and other shopping flyers and a bevy of periodicals that help make independent living easier for the visually impaired. The service is available on WBGU-PBS' sub channel at 27.7 and can be received over the air with an antenna like our other broadcast channels. There is no video on the channel, strictly audio. The service is available 24 hours a day.

“We’re glad to fill a need. It’s a great community service,” said Tina Simon, WBGU-PBS general manager. Mark Jividen, Voicecorps executive director, agreed about the value the service brings to nearly 34,000 residents in the area. “We can effectively restore reading services in the entire WBGU-PBS 19-county coverage area.”

Seed money for the expanded service is being provided by the State of Ohio.

To learn more about Voicecorps, visit voicecorps.org or call 614-274-7650.

A Visit to Findlay & Lima

All was hoppin’ for our station mascot Ruby The Red-Eyed Tree Frog and her WBGU-PBS coworkers. Ruby & her Frog Squad had tons of fun passing out treats to the thousands of children who attended the Findlay Halloween Parade. The next week, Ruby’s pal, Director of Education and Outreach Kelly Pheneger made a stop at the Superhero 5K Walk/Run sponsored by CASA of Allen & Putnam Counties. If you have an event coming up and would like Ruby or Kelly to attend, please email pheneger@bgsu.edu or call 419.372.9318.
