The Little Girl That Lost a Tooth
Written and Illustrated by Oakley

Page 1

Once upon a time there was a tooth fairy.

Page 2

And in town there was a little girl that had a loose tooth.

Page 3

It was very, very loose and she said, “I hope it doesn’t fall out!”

Page 4

Tick-tock, the clock says its dinner time. Oh no! What about your loose tooth?

Page 5

They ate dinner all gone and then...

Page 6

Pop! Oh my, your tooth came out!!!

Page 7

It was bedtime so the little girl got her pajamas on and brushed her teeth.
And she got into bed and put her tooth under her pillow.

She turned off the lights and laid down and fell to sleep.

Crack! The tooth fairy opened the door and she grabbed her tooth and gave her money.

It was morning she so she lifted up her pillow and found money!

She got out of bed and went to the store and buyed Reese’s.

And then walked home and ate her Reese’s.

She lived happily ever after. The end.
the girl little that lost a tooth
Once upon a time, there was a tooth fairy.
and in town
there was a little girl that had a loose tooth.
I was very very busy and she said I hope it wasn't fall out.
Tick tock the clock says it's dinner time. Oh no! What about your loose tooth?
They ate dinner all gone and then...
POP OH BOY
YOUR TOOTH CAME OUT!!!
It was bedtime
so the little girl
got her pajamas
on and brushed her teeth.
And she got into bed and put her tooth under her pillow.
She turned off the lights and laid down to sleep.
Crack the tooth fairy
Open the door
And she grab her tooth and gave her many money
It was morning so she lifted up her pillow and found money.
She got out of bed and went to the store and bought cookies.
And then walked home and ate her Keeses.
She lived happily ever after. The end.