How to Train Your Parents

By Whitlee
Blackfoot, ID
First Grade
200 Words
Chapter 1: How to Get Anything You Want

Never ask Mom for something unless you say, "Mom you're pretty," first.
If working with Dad, you can get anything if you just rub his feet.
Chapter 2: How to Stay Up Late

If you want to stay up late. Ask Mom and Dad to read a story. Pick the longest story.
Then Mom and Dad fall asleep while reading the story, then it's party time!
Chapter 3: How to Get Out of Chores

Tell Dad, “Remember when I was born it seems like yesterday and now, I’m seven years old. My childhood is going fast!”
Dad will tell you to go play so you don’t miss out on more childhood fun.
Chapter 4: How to Get Dessert Anytime

Tell Mom she makes the best cake in the world and if you had one dying wish it would be for a piece of her cake.
Tell your parents they are the best parents in the world. When they say, “You are the best kid in the world!” Record it and play it for your siblings.
Then you will rule the house!