The Horrible and Marvelous Year!
By Amelia

So the year 2020 was a weird year. I mean all that covid 19 and stuff. It wasn't fun at all or was it. My sister got a husband and my brother got a wife. It was amazing for the family. And for my sister's wedding she had me and my other sisters Lyla and Emma be her flower girls.

For my grandma's sixty-fifth birthday our whole family got together and threw her a surprise birthday party. We danced to Broadway songs and to songs from movies that my grandma loves and ate yummy food, (Chick-Fil-A).

We did 4h this year and showed pigs for 4h and let me tell you it is fun and hard at the same time but it's mostly fun. My pig's name was Cinnamon. He was so cute and he was the biggest pig out of a hundred pigs at the fairgrounds it was so epic I also got a pig bowl and a pig food scoper.

My whole Buck family had a reunion and we went to this place called the redneck water slide and it is not joking about the redneck part let me tell you that much I mean we went down with like 15 people once it was so crazy and we also went down on our bellies. We also went tubing and it was super fun because we would fall off of the tubs a bunch.

Our school also got cancelled and since our school was cancelled we had to do it online. It was the worst. I liked going to school better. Our church got cancelled too so we had to do home church.

Even though there was a lot of stuff cancelled, our family was never cancelled at hard times. So I mean the year 2020 was a horrible and mariveles year but the year 2021 will be a wonderful year.
