

The Stuck Dress

By Sierra

A long time ago, a dressmaker made a golden dress.

A princess wanted to buy it, but the dress was stuck in the sewing machine! The dressmaker said, "Oh no! I don't want to cut the dress with scissors! The dress will fall apart!"

A fairy appeared. She said she could loosen the dress from the sewing machine. The princess and the dressmaker did not believe her.

So the fairy used a little stardust and threw it on the dress. POOF! The dress appeared on the princess!

The princess paid the dressmaker with pearls.
Then the princess wore the golden dress to a parade.
