Kansas City PBS Wins Four Regional EMMY® Awards

Kansas City, MO, November 23, 2020 - Kansas City PBS is thrilled to announce it is the recipient of four 2020 National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences Mid-America Regional Chapter EMMY® Awards. The annual ceremony was held virtually on Saturday, Nov. 21.

“Receiving four Emmys is an honor for the station and speaks to the valuable storytelling that’s happening across all of our brands - KCPBS, 90.9 The Bridge and Flatland, our digital news source,” said Kliff Kuehl, President & CEO of Kansas City PBS. “We are fortunate to have the continued support of our community and a talented team of collaborators who, even with current working restrictions imposed by a global pandemic, have been able to tell important KC stories.”

Kansas City PBS won the following awards:
