Kansas City PBS Earns 10 Regional EMMY® Nominations

Kansas City, MO, October 23, 2020 - Kansas City PBS received 10 nominations for the 2020 National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences Mid-America Regional Chapter EMMY® Awards. The nominations are based on outstanding cultural, educational, technological, entertainment, news and informational achievements in television. The winners will be announced during a virtual ceremony on November 21.

“We are thrilled to receive these nominations highlighting the diversity of content across all our services - Kansas City PBS, 90.9 The Bridge and Flatland, KCPBS’ digital news source,” said Kliff Kuehl, President & CEO of Kansas City PBS. “We are fortunate to have the continued support of our community and a talented team and collaborators who, even with current working restrictions imposed by a global pandemic, have been able to tell important KC stories.”
