ARTICLE I NAME AND OFFICE

Section 1. Name.

The name of this corporation shall be the REDWOOD EMPIRE PUBLIC TELEVISION, INC., herein referred to at KEET-TV.

Section 2. Form.

KEET-TV is a nonprofit public benefit membership corporation incorporated under the laws of the state of California and under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 as amended.

Section 3. Principal Office.

The principal office for the transaction of the business of KEET-TV is located in Humboldt County, California. The board of KEET-TV ("Board") may specify and change the exact address of the principal office from one location to another within Humboldt County.

Section 4. Other Offices.

The Board may at any time establish branch or subordinate offices at any place or places where KEET-TV is qualified to do business.

ARTICLE II MISSION

Section 1. Mission

KEET-TV Public Television educates and enriches communities by providing informative, entertaining programs and innovative outreach, creating public dialogue on local and global issues, and building vital community partnerships under the branding of INSPIRE-EMPOWER-CONNECT.

ARTICLE III MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Eligibility.

Any person, family, firm, corporation or association who subscribes to the mission of KEET-TV and who pays dues as provided for in Article VIII, Section 2 shall be eligible for membership in KEET-TV.

Section 2. Voting.

These Bylaws confer to Members the right to vote in any election for Director(s) of the Board and for any amendments to the Bylaws that affect member rights.

Section 3. Membership Year.

Membership shall begin on the first of the month following payment of membership dues and shall continue for twelve months thereafter. Members must renew within Thirty (30) days to maintain membership and voting rights.

Section 4. Termination of Membership. (Reference Sections 5430 a to c of the California Corporations Code.)

The status of a Member may be terminated in the manner set forth in this Section.

a) Resignation. A Member may at any time voluntarily resign without a refund by delivering a written notice to the Secretary.

b) Unpaid Dues. Membership issued for Twelve (12) months shall expire when this period of time has elapsed unless the membership is renewed.

ARTICLE IV BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. Number of Directors.

The Articles of Incorporation authorize that the number of Directors shall be no more than Twenty-One (21), the precise number being fixed by resolution of the Board from time to time. (Reference Sections 5151 a and b of the California Corporations Code.)

Section 2. Term of Office.

Directors are elected at the Annual Meeting and shall hold office for a term of Three (3) years or until their successors have been elected or appointed and qualified. Directors may serve Three (3) consecutive terms. Each Director, including a Director elected to fill a vacancy by the Board, shall hold office until the expiration of the term for which elected and until a successor has been elected and qualified unless the Director has been removed from office. (Reference Sections 5220 a and b of the California Corporations Code.)

Section 3. Qualifications.

a) Directors. All Directors must be a member of KEET-TV. A Director shall perform the duties of Director in good faith and shall participate in Board meetings, including duties as a member of any Committee of the Board upon which the Director may serve in a manner that Director believes to be in the best interest of the Corporation and with such care, including reasonable inquiry, as an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would use under similar circumstances. (Reference Sections – 5231 a to c of the California Corporations Code.)

b) "Interested Persons". No persons serving on the Board may be "interested persons". This means either a person currently being compensated for services rendered or in the previous Twelve (12) months, whether as a full- or part-time employee or contractor, or otherwise, excluding any compensation paid to a Director as Director.

Section 4. Vacancies.

a) Resignation. Any Director may resign effective upon giving written notice to the President or the Secretary or the Board of Directors. Such resignation will be effective when received unless the notice specifies a later time for the effectiveness of such resignation. If the resignation is effective at a future time, a successor may be selected before such time, to take office when the resignation becomes effective. Note: (Section 5226 of the California Corporation Code) requires that except upon notice to the Attorney General, no Director may resign where the corporation would be left without a duly elected director or Directors in charge of its affairs. (Reference Section 5224 c of the California Corporations Code.)

b) Automatic Vacancies. A vacancy or vacancies in the Board shall be deemed to exist in case of the death of any Director, or if the authorized number of Directors be increased.

c) Removal with Cause. Unless granted a Board approved Leave of Absence, the Board may declare vacant the office of a Director who has not attended Five (5) consecutive meetings of the Board, if at the time a Director is elected, the Bylaws provide that a Director may be removed for missing a specific number of Board meetings, or who has been declared of unsound mind by a final order of court, or convicted of a felony, or been found by a final order or judgment of any court. (Reference Sections 5221 a and b of the California Corporations Code.)

d) Removal without Cause. No reduction of the authorized number of Directors shall have the effect of removing any director prior to the expiration of the director's term of office.

e) Removal From Office.

The Superior Court of Humboldt County may, at the suit of a director, remove from office any director in case of fraudulent or dishonest acts or gross abuse of authority or discretion with reference to the corporation or breach of any duty arising under Article 3, commencing with Section 5230, and may bar from reelection any director so removed for a period prescribed by the court. (Reference Section 5224 of the California Corporation Code.)

f) Filling Vacancies. Vacancies in the Board, including those caused by removal of a director, shall be elected by written ballot by a majority of the remaining directors, whether or not less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director. Each director so selected shall hold office for a three year term. (Reference Section 5220 d of the California Corporations Code.)

g) Failure to fill Vacancies. In the event an even number of directors are unable to agree to the management of the Board's affairs or unable to fill director vacancies, (Reference Sections 5225 a to e of the California Corporations Code.)

Section 5. Powers and Duties.

Subject to the limitations of law, the Articles and these Bylaws, the activities and affairs of KEET-TV shall be conducted and all corporate powers shall be exercised by or under the direction of the Board. The Board may delegate the management of the activities of KEET-TV to any person or persons, a management company, or committees however composed, provided that the activities and affairs of KEET-TV shall be managed and all corporate powers shall be exercised under the ultimate direction of the Board. (Reference Sections 5210 of the California Corporations Code.)

Section 6. Voting at Board Meetings.

Each director present and voting shall have One (1) vote on each matter presented to the Board of directors for action at that meeting. No director may vote at any meeting by proxy. (Reference Sections 5211 8-c of the California Corporations Code.)

Section 7. Meetings of the Board.

Meetings of the Board may be called by the President or the Vice-President or the Secretary or any two directors. (Reference Sections 5211 a 1 of the California Corporations Code.)

a) Regular Meetings. There shall be a Nine (9) regular meetings of the Board annually. The number, time and place for such minimum meetings shall be set by the Directors at their first meeting, Regular meetings may be held without notice after the number, time and place has been set by the Board. (Reference Section 5211 a 2 of the California Corporations Code.)

b) Meeting Notice. The Board of Directors and the membership of KEET-TV shall receive notice of the regular meetings in the monthly KEET-TV Spotlight and the KEET-TV website prior the start of each month. The Board meeting packet shall be mailed or emailed to directors Three (3) days before the scheduled meeting.

c) Special Meetings. Special meetings shall be held upon Four (4) days' notice by first-class mail or Forty-Eight (48) hours' notice given personally or by telephone, email or similar means of communication. Any such notice shall be addressed or delivered to each director at such director's address as it is shown upon the records of KEET-TV or as may have been given to KEET-TV by the director for purpose of notice or, if such address is not shown on such records or is not readily ascertainable, at the place in which the meetings of the directors are regularly held. (Reference Section 5211 a 2 of the California Corporations Code.)

d) Quorum. A majority of the authorized number of directors constitutes a quorum of the Board. Every act or decision done or made by a majority of the directors present at a meeting duly held at which a quorum is present shall be regarded as the act of the Board. A meeting at which a quorum is initially present may continue to transact business notwithstanding the withdrawal of directors, if any action taken is approved by at least a majority of the required quorum for such meeting. (Reference Section 5211 8 of the California Corporations Code.)

e.) Public Access to Board Meetings

The Board of Directors will provide the public with a reasonable opportunity to address the Board on matters related to the jurisdiction of the Board of Directors. At each regularly scheduled board meeting, under the agenda heading "Public Comment" the Chairman of the Board of Directors shall open the floor for public addresses to the Board. The Board may set and establish a time limit on any person in order to allow the Board to complete its business and adjourn the meeting at a reasonable time.

f.) Reasonable Accommodations at Board Meetings

Members of the public with limited English proficiency and/or requiring reasonable accommodations for a disability are welcome to attend board meetings

Request for language and/or disability accommodations shall be made as follows:

i. Non-English Speaking/Sign Language Accomodation

A person who does not speak English or communicates by American Sign Language must notify the station in writing at least seven days prior to the regularly scheduled meeting he or she wishes to attend to address the Board and is unable to provide his/her own interpreter, the station will make reasonable effort to secure the services of a translator or interpreter at the meeting.

ii. Accommodations for Persons with a Disability

Persons (or caregivers of persons) with a physical, mental or developmental disability who require additional assistance to attend the meeting must notify the station in writing at least seven business days before a regularly scheduled meeting. The notification should state the specific assistance required.

The guidelines for accessibility are prescribed under the Americans with Disabilities Act.

- Disabled parking spaces are available at the entrance to the meeting site.

- Entrance to the building is void of steps, and use of a paved ramp/incline is available for accessibility in accordance with ADA requirements.
- The meeting room is wheelchair accessible.
- Meetings can be attended by offsite telecommunications.

g.) The Board will make every attempt to provide reasonable accommodations as long as they are known seven days prior to the meeting.

Section 8. Meetings by Conference Telephone, Electronic Video Screen or Electronic Transmission.

Members of the Board may participate in a meeting through use of conference telephone, electronic transmission or similar communications equipment, so long as all members participating in such meeting can communicate with one another. (Reference Section 5211 a 6 of the California Corporations Code.)

Section 9. Action Without a Meeting.

An action by the Board may be taken without a meeting, if all members of the Board shall individually and collectively consent in writing to that action. Each Director is provided the means of participating in all matters before the Board, including, without limitation, the capacity to propose, or to interpose an objection to, a specific action to be taken by the corporation. The written consent or consents shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board. The action by written consent shall be regarded as an act of the Board. (Reference Section 5211 8 b of the California Corporations Code.)

Section 10. Adjournment.

A majority of the directors present, whether or not a quorum is present, may adjourn any directors meeting to another time and place. Notice of the time and place of holding an adjourned meeting need not be given to absent directors if the time and place be fixed at the meeting adjourned unless meeting is adjourned for more than Twenty-Four (24) hours. (Reference Section 5211 4 of the California Corporation Code.)

Section 11. Right of Inspection.

The accounting books and records and minutes of proceedings of the KEET-TV Members and the Board and Committees of the Board shall be open to inspect and copy upon demand of any director, member or general public, at any reasonable time for a purpose reasonably related to such person's interest as a member of the Board, KEET member, or general public. Every director shall have the absolute right at any reasonable time to inspect the physical properties of KEET-TV

Section 12. Fees and Compensation.

Directors and Members of the Committees may receive such compensation, if any, for their services, and such reimbursement for expenses, as may be fixed or determined by the Board. In the absence of fraud, any liability under this Section shall be limited to the amount by which the compensation exceeded what was just and reasonable, plus interest from the date of payment to help protect the Board members. (Reference Sections 5235 (a) and (b) of the California Corporations Code.)

Section 13. Liability. (Reference Sections 5237 to 5239 of the California Corporations code for information about Director liability.)

Indemnification and Insurance

(a) Right of Indemnity. To the fullest extent permitted by law, the Corporation may indemnify any present or former member, officer, employee or other “agent” of the Corporation, as that term is defined in Section 5238 of the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law, against all expenses, judgments, fines, settlements and other amounts actually and reasonably incurred by them in connection with any “proceeding,” as that term is used in that Section, and including an action by or in the right of the Corporation, by reason of the fact that the person is or was a person described in that section.

(b) Approval of Indemnity. On written request to the Board by any person seeking indemnification under Section 5238(b) or Section 5238(c) of the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law, the Board shall promptly determine under Section 5238(e) of such Law whether the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 5238(b) or Section 5238(c) has been met and, if so, the Board shall authorize indemnification. If the Board cannot authorize indemnification because the number of Directors who are parties to the proceeding with respect to which indemnification is sought prevents the formation of a quorum of members who are not parties to that proceeding, application shall be made by the Corporation or the agent or the attorney or other person rendering a defense to the agent to the court in which the proceeding is or was pending for a determination, whether or not the application by the agent, attorney, or other person is opposed by the Corporation.

(c) Advancement of Expenses. To the fullest extent permitted by law and except as otherwise determined by the Board in a specific instance, expenses incurred by a person seeking indemnification under Sections 1 and 2 above in defending any proceeding covered by those Sections shall be advanced by the Corporation before final disposition of the proceeding, on receipt by the Corporation of an undertaking by or on behalf of that person that the advance will be repaid unless it is ultimately determined that the person is entitled to be indemnified by the Foundation for those expenses.

(d) Insurance. The Foundation shall have the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any Director, Officer and/or agent of the Corporation against any liability asserted against or incurred by the Director, Officer and/or agent in such capacity or arising out of the Director’s, Officer’s and/or agent’s status as such whether or not the Foundation would have the power to indemnify the Director, Officer and/or agent against such liability, provided, however, that the Corporation shall have no power to purchase and maintain such insurance to indemnify any Trustee, Officer and/or agent of the Corporation for a violation of Section 5233 of the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law (or any successor provision thereto.)

ARTICLE V COMMITTEES

Section 1. Parliamentary Authority.

The rules contained in Roberts Rules of Order, Modern Edition, shall govern the KEET-TV meetings.

ARTICLE XIII AMENDMENTS

Section 1. Amendments by Changes in Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law.

Notice of any change to the laws governing California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporations that requires amendment to these Bylaws shall be adopted on the date effective and does not require a vote of the KEET-TV Board or the membership. The Members shall be notified by means of Spotlight and the KEET-TV website when such laws take effect.

Section 2. Amendments by the Board.

- a) These Bylaws may be adopted, amended or repealed by a majority vote of the Board, except for amendments that affect the rights of the Members.
- b) The Articles of Incorporation may be amended by a majority vote of the Board, except for amendments that affect the rights of the Members.
- c) In the absence of participation by the Members, the Board of Directors shall take necessary action to amend the Bylaws and the Articles to meet the current and long-term needs of KEET-TV.
