With a multiplatform approach, we envision a vibrant region and contribute to that reality by creating opportunities for community members to learn, connect, and grow.

2021 MEDIA KIT

ninepbs.org
American Masters
An award-winning biography series that celebrates our arts and culture. Recent profiles include Miles Davis, Maya Angelou, Charlie Parker, and Marian Anderson.

Frontline
PBS's flagship public affairs series takes you inside the controversial, complex stories shaping our times.

Nature
Experience the splendors and compelling stories of the natural world from all over the globe. The series delivers the best in original natural history films.

Finding Your Roots
Harvard scholar Henry Louis Gates Jr. explores how the interaction of different racial, religious, and ethnic groups has produced our diverse society and how family genealogies can both confirm and explode myths.

PBS NewsHour
For 46 years, Americans and citizens of the world have turned to the PBS NewsHour for the solid, reliable reporting that has made it one of the most trusted news programs on television. The Gateway Journalism Review/St. Louis Journalism Review honored anchor Judy Woodruff with a Lifetime Achievement Award in October 2020.

Great Performances
Television’s longest-running performing arts anthology is the place to enjoy the best in music, dance, and theater. Explore the iconic Fiddler on the Roof musical’s reach across time and cultures or watch James Corden’s hilarious turn in One Man, Two Guvnors.

Masterpiece Mystery
In Grantchester, Will Davenport, an Anglican vicar, teams up with detective Geordie Keating to forge an unlikely partnership in solving crimes. Endeavour charms audiences with the cerebral and solitary detective Endeavour Morse.
Local PROGRAMMING

Nine PBS's series and specials celebrate the St. Louis region’s strengths, accomplishments, and challenges. These programs are a great place to show your St. Louis pride. Upcoming specials are available on request.

Donnybrook/Donnybrook Next Up

On Donnybrook, five quick-witted, highly opinionated St. Louis journalists discuss tough topics. In April 2020, a second half hour was added to this weekly series. Donnybrook Next Up discusses current events with local experts. Full episodes of both programs are available on ninepbs.org, Nine PBS’s YouTube channel, the Donnybrook podcast, and livestreamed at the time of broadcast.

Living St. Louis

Since launching in 2004, the regional Emmy-winning Living St. Louis has captured the people, places, and organizations that make our region consequential and complex. In addition to the weekly series, numerous specials are produced each year.

Night at the Symphony

Night at the Symphony is broadcast monthly on Nine PBS and includes performances and interviews with St. Louis Symphony Orchestra (SLSO) conductors, soloists, and guest performers. Nine PBS’s media assets enable a broad reach of the program across the region, including bringing the symphony to those who otherwise might not be able to attend.

American Experience is a top-10-ranked PBS series. The episode Goin’ Back to T-Town tells the story of Greenwood, an extraordinary Black community in Tulsa, OK, that prospered during the 1920s and 30s despite rampant and hostile segregation.

Nine PBS offers a brand-safe environment for your messages.

Announcements only air at the opening and closing of our commercial-free programs. Unlike commercial radio, TV and cable, we air a fraction of the 16-plus minutes, on average (or 30+ commercials), of breaks they do, so your underwriting announcement is seen, heard and noticed.

Public television audiences see organizations that are affiliated with Nine PBS as concerned about and contributing to the community. Our account managers will be happy to guide you through the creative and production process.
Nine PBS offers the people of the St. Louis region multiple ways to explore the world and become engaged in civic life.

ADVERTISING

Members of Nine PBS—40,000 strong—receive Nine PBS Magazine as a benefit of membership. It is the only paid-circulation magazine in St. Louis that delivers information deemed absolutely vital to the interests of its readers—the monthly broadcast schedule of the programs they love! Bonus distribution is available at in-person events when safe to do so, including donor events, children’s story times, art fairs, food festivals, and cultural events. The St. Louis Public Library distributes copies of the magazine through its various branches.
