7:30PM California's Gold Olives and BerriesRepeat of 05/22/2022
03:30PM

Huell gets a taste of history as he visits two families who have turned their crops into empires. He visits both the olive orchards in the San Joaquin Valley and processing plant of the Graber family in Ontario, where for a century workers have prepared Graber Olives in almost the same way. Huell then travels to Orange Country to learn how the world- famous Knott's Berry Farm amusement park grew out of one woman's home cooking.

8:00PM Nature - Equus: Story of the Horse: Chasing The Wind

The relationship between man and his noble steed is almost as old as civilization itself. Ever since the mysterious beginning of our extraordinary partnership, horses helped shape the human world. At the speed of a horse, our ancestors conquered distances and built empires. Together, humans and horses flourished side by side. What makes us so perfect for each other? 7:30PM Growing Bolder - The Power of Creative Engagement

As any creative person knows, it's not always the finished product that's what is most valuable -- many times, it's what you learn in the process. At 98, Harold Garde's art is bolder than ever, and his perspective is provocative as well. As the lighting director for AC-DC, Aerosmith, Rolling Stones and others, Cosmo Wilson shines the light on some of the greatest bands in rock. He has some bright ideas on living life to the fullest. Plus, one of the gifts of aging is the opportunity to reinvent yourself, again and again. Hosted by singer-songwriter Eric Gnezda (Pronunciations: Ian=EE-an; Gnezda=NEZZ-duh), from The Peggy R. McConnell Arts Center of Worthington, OH. Now in her fifth decade of writing songs and performing, Janis Ian has won three Grammy awards, totaling 10 nominations in eight different categories, a record for a solo artist, whose first nomination came at the age of 16 for her debut album, Janis Ian, featuring the classic protest song, Society's Child." She also scored big with the songs "At Seventeen," "Jesse," and "Stars." Janis earned her most recent Grammy in 2014 for her reading of Society's Child: My Autobiography, winning Best Spoken Word over stiff competition (President Bill Clinton, First Lady Michelle Obama, Rachel Maddow, and Ellen DeGeneres). Janis claims, "We artists are the last alchemists, pulling your dreams, your hopes, your deepest desires out of thin air. We turn them into something you can hear, and play, and sing. So let us never forget this - we don't sell music. We sell dreams. Breaking Loneliness is a documentary about people finding ways to escape loneliness and social isolation. The documentary was filmed in Edmonton, Calgary and on the Blood Reserve in Southern Alberta, Canada. Loneliness is a social epidemic that is impacting all age groups around the world. Although most of us are connected on social media, we have never felt more alone. Many of us find ourselves isolated from our communities and feeling lonely. In this new documentary, Breaking Loneliness, we follow three people; Indigenous Peer Support Worker John Chief Moon, volunteer Tom Greyson and ESL teacher Julie Kraychy - who have worked to overcome their own loneliness and social isolation and are now helping others to battle theirs.

7:30PM Uncertainty: Why We're So Anxious About Anxiety

Anxiety disorders are the most common mental illness in the U.S., affecting 40 million adults in the United States age 18 and older every year. This translates to about one person in every five. For adolescents, the numbers are even higher, about one in every three youths between the ages of 13-18. These statistics tell us that anxiety touches all our lives...if not personally, then through our family or friends. What is anxiety? And what can be done about it? Symptoms range from mild to severe, rendering some people unable to function in their daily lives. How can those most affected overcome this challenge and regain their lives? Uncertainty: Why We're So Anxious About Anxiety presents an open discussion that addresses these questions and more, in an effort to heighten awareness, increase understanding, provide resources, and offer hope to those whose lives have been impacted by this mental health condition.
