7:00PM Musical Evening with Harry Lennix

A Musical Evening With Harry Lennix is a uniquely crafted look back into the life and career of one of Chicago's most notable actors. Growing up poor, on the tough streets of Chicago's South Side, Lennix learned early the importance of hard work. Comprised of story-telling through musical performances and theatrical readings, Harry Lennix showcases his gift through the voices of powerful vocalists; featuring: Terisa Griffin, Dee Alexander, Lynne Jordan, and Felicia Fields; accompanied by a dynamic live band; as he highlights some of Chicago's up and coming talented teenagers from Kenwood Academy and High School. Born and raised on Chicago's South Side, Lennix takes us on a journey from his childhood and his Creole roots, to finding his love and passion... acting. Attending Northwestern University, his thespian talents blossomed and soon his one-time thought of being Pope, forever changed. His roles on the stage in productions like, Guys and Dolls, Raisin In the Sun, and Huckleberry Finn, led him to the small and big screens, like the film, The Man of Steel, NBC's The Blacklist and one of his most notable film roles, The Five Heartbeats. Lennix encourages the viewers to help the next generation achieve their dreams; in any way they can, because like his, Dreams can come true. This toe-tapping and hand-clapping night entertains and enlightens the audience. Lennix stays true to his Chicago roots, throughout the program and ends the show with a hometown favorite! Harry Lennix has made his mark on history and in A Musical Evening With Harry Lennix, he proves why he is a HistoryMaker.

7:00PM Hollywood's Architect: The Paul R. Williams Story

Nicknamed "Architect to the Stars," African American architect Paul R. Williams had a life story that could have been dreamed up by a Hollywood screenwriter. From the early 1920s until his retirement 50 years later, Williams was one of the most successful architects in the country. His list of residential clients included Frank Sinatra, Cary Grant, Barbara Stanwyck, William Holden, Lucille Ball and Desi Arnaz. And his name is associated with architectural icons like the Beverly Hills Hotel, the original MCA Headquarters Building and LAX Airport. But at the height of his career Paul Williams wasn't always welcome in the restaurants and hotels he designed or the neighborhoods where he built homes, because of his race. Hollywood's Architect: The Paul R. Williams Story will explain how he used talent, determination and even charm to defy the odds and create a body of work that can be found from coast to coast. Narrated by Emmy award winning actor Courtney B. Vance.
