Vegas PBS Brings the World to Your Home

As a member-supported public television station, Vegas PBS is able to use your investments to bring the world to your neighborhood through the powerful and exciting stories featured in PBS programs and local outreach events. We opened the fall season last month with Ken Burns’ Country Music documentary. In October, you will see a broad range of program content on full display, from hit dramas to the performing arts, nature, history, locally-produced programs and so much more.

Vegas PBS continues to provide the high-quality dramas so popular with our viewers. The Durrells in Corfu Season 4 on Masterpiece and Poldark Season 5 on Masterpiece — both entering their final seasons — begin airing Sunday, September 29 at 8 p.m. and 9 p.m., respectively, and will air throughout October.

Highlights among many performing arts specials include Great Performances: Now Hear This: Scarlatti: Man Out of Time on Friday, October 4 at 9 p.m. We will discover how this gifted composer generated new sounds inspired by the guitar. Then, watch Great Performances: Grammy Salute to Music Legends, airing Friday, October 18 at 9 p.m. Don’t miss Rothko: American Masters airing Friday, October 25 at 9 p.m. to explore the abstract expressionist movement, followed by Songwriting with Soldiers at 10 p.m., where professional artists work with war veterans to tell their stories through song.

For decades, Vegas PBS has been committed to providing insightful nature programming from locally produced Outdoor Nevada to national series. Wild Metropolis airs Wednesday, October 2 at 10 p.m. The program producers recorded a portion in Las Vegas focusing on local scorpions and the attraction they share with tourists for the neon lights of our city. Nature: Okavango: River of Dreams – Paradise airs Wednesday, October 23 at 8 p.m. telling the story of a lioness’ journey through this lush African paradise.

Vegas PBS is providing some of the best documentaries and history programming in October. The independent documentary series POV has earned top tier awards and nominations from the Academy Awards®. This month, watch The Feeling of Being Watched on Monday, October 14 at 10 p.m. and follow journalist Assia Boundaoui as she investigates the FBI’s pre-9/11 counter-terrorism probes of her Chicago suburb neighborhood. Retro Report debuts on Mondays and Tuesdays, beginning October 7 and 8, at 9 p.m. Vegas PBS is one of a handful of local PBS stations to receive a grant to produce two related specials; one explores water conservation and another looks at the history of legal and illegal sex work in Nevada. These productions will be featured on Nevada Week, combined with additional in-depth discussions with a panel of experts.

Through the support of members like you, Vegas PBS will continue to offer a broad range of content that sparks curiosity and provides diverse perspectives. Member contributions make it possible to provide these programs for all Southern Nevadans. Thank you to all who have made a contribution to support public television in our community.

This month, we air the final seasons of two beloved series. We have come to know and love the characters of Poldark and The Durrells in Corfu, and they will truly be missed. So settle in on Sunday evenings this month and enjoy every moment!

Endeavour Season 4 on Masterpiece
(Season 5 begins October 27)
Sundays at 6:30 p.m.

Endeavour turns back the clock to 1965 to tell the story of the making of the legendary detective. Evoking the conflict between tradition and the new youth culture of the ‘60s, Endeavour answers a lot of questions about the young Morse. Just how did this working-class, opera-loving, crossword-addicted, Oxford University dropout land on the Oxford police, fall into a problematic relationship with women and manage to slip behind the wheel of a classic car as part of his low-paying job?

Then Season 5 begins with Morse having finally passed his Sergeant’s exams just as Oxford City Police merges into Thames Valley Constabulary, creating uncertainty for everyone at Cowley CID.

The Durrells in Corfu Season 4 on Masterpiece
Sundays at 8 p.m. beginning September 29

Throughout October

A Bittersweet Farewell

Following the events of the last series, the future is looking bright for the Durrells, with all of the family channeling their heartbreak in different ways. Louisa has opened the doors of the family villa as a guest house, with Basil as their only paying guest. Meanwhile, Larry is struggling to get his risqué Black Book published, whilst heartbroken Leslie has thrown himself back into his job and shooting. True to form, Gerry ambitiously plans to open a zoo, and Margo starts her own beauty salon.

Poldark Season 5 on Masterpiece
Sundays at 9 p.m. beginning September 29

Aidan Turner returns for the final season as the heroic Ross Poldark. It is a new century and with it comes the promise of a hopeful future, but the past casts a long shadow over Cornwall. Following the death of Elizabeth, Poldark resolves to put Westminster behind him and spend more time with the people he loves. However, when an old friend emerges with a plea for help, Ross is compelled to challenge the establishment again. As the Enyses (Luke Norris and Gabriella Wilde) rally to join the cause, Demelza (Eleanor Tomlinson) must contend with dangers close to home, while George (Jack Farthing) courts corrupt powers whose influence spans the Empire.

Poldark Revealed
Sunday, September 29 at 10 p.m.

Journey with us to the rugged Cornish coast, following the cast and crew of this gripping drama where they bring Winston Graham’s much beloved saga to life. Featured are exclusive interviews from cast and crew and the creative team behind the series. Additionally, hear interviews from Poldark’s historical consultant, Dr. Hannah Greig, and an in-depth conversation with Andrew Graham (Winston Graham’s...”
This engrossing foreign-language series is a smart, procedural drama that features intriguing cases and a savvy young detective full of complications in both her professional and personal life, all set against a backdrop of Italian architecture, style and culture. Valeria Ferro is a focused investigator on the Turin, Italy, police force whose insight is on point, but her methods often rub her colleagues the wrong way.

Press on Masterpiece

Sundays at 10 p.m. beginning October 6

Set in the world of newspapers in London — its past riven by hacking scandals, its present at the mercy of the digital age and the 24-hour news cycle, its future uncertain — this razor sharp and observant drama explores the current, turbulent media landscape and the ethical dilemmas that journalists and editors face each day. Charlotte Riley ("Peaky Blinders") and Ben Chaplin ("Apple Tree Yard") star, alongside Priyanga Burford ("King Charles III") and David Suchet ("Poirot").

Northanger Abbey

Sunday, October 27 at 4 p.m.

In Jane Austen’s gentle parody of gothic fiction, Felicity Jones plays romance addict Catherine Morland. When she is asked to stay at Northanger Abbey, Catherine’s youthful and naive imagination takes hold and she begins to confuse real life with the Gothic romance of her favorite novels. She forms a friendship with Henry Tilney (JJ Feild), but their budding romance is mysteriously cut short.

Downton Abbey Season 1 Marathon

Sundays at 1 p.m. beginning October 13 (Season 2 begins October 20 at 2:30 p.m.)

Due to popular demand by our loyal viewers, we are airing this gripping drama in its entirety. Relive once again the lives of the Granthams and their family of servants, through sweeping change, scandals, love, ambition, heartbreak and hope.

And to kick off the encore play, we have additional related specials scheduled on Sunday, October 13 from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Great Estates Scotland: Inveraray at 9 a.m.

For more than 500 years, Inveraray Castle has housed the chieftain of one of the world’s best-known family clans, the Clan Campbell. It is now the home to the 13th Duke of Argyll, His Grace Torquhil Ian Campbell and his young family.

Secrets of Highclere Castle at 10 a.m.

Learn the true story of one of the world’s most famous homes. Famous as the location of Downton Abbey, the show explores Highclere’s illustrious history and reveals that truth can often be stranger than fiction. Many of the events played-out in the fictional drama are based-upon true tales from Highclere’s past.

Manners of Downton Abbey: A Masterpiece Special at 11 a.m.

Enter the world of English etiquette with host Alastair Bruce, historian, expert on royal ceremony and custom, and the historical advisor to the hit drama series. Discover the secrets of how the aristocratic set dined and dressed, how they married and made money, how they interacted with the servants, and above all why they behaved as they did.

More Manners of Downton Abbey: A Masterpiece Special at Noon

Return to the world of manners with historical advisor Alastair Bruce. With interviews with cast members including Hugh Bonneville and Michelle Dockery, the program navigates the social protocol of aristocrats and servants in the 1920s.

Felicity Jones plays romance addict Catherine Morland...
Acosta’s brash courtroom style and notorious revolutionary antics made him a revered figure within the Chicano movement.

POV: The Silence of Others
Sunday, October 6 at 11 p.m.
Learn about the struggle of victims and survivors of Spain’s 40-year dictatorship under General Franco as they organize the “Argentine Lawsuit” and fight a state-imposed amnesia of crimes against humanity.

Hispanic Heritage Awards 2019
Friday, October 11 at 10 p.m.
This program honors recipients of the annual Hispanic Heritage Awards. The evening includes live performances and appearances by some of the most celebrated Hispanic artists in the United States.

Emilio and Gloria Estefan: The Library of Congress Gershwin Prize for Popular Music
Friday, October 11 at 11 p.m.
With their Cuban-infused music, these longtime popular music and Latin influencers are honored in an all-star tribute. The program features performances by Gloria Estefan, as well as Jose Feliciano, Il Volo, Cyndi Lauper and Emily Estefan.

POV: América
Sunday, October 13 at 11 p.m.
Diego lives away from his family, where he scrubs wax in a surf shop by day and stilts-walks the malecón by night. He returns home after his grandmother, América, falls from her bed, leading to his father’s arrest for elder neglect.

Ruben Salazar: Man in the Middle — A Voces Special Presentation
Friday, October 4 at 10 p.m.
This pioneering journalist transformed from a mainstream, establishment reporter to primary chronicler and supporter of the radical Chicano movement of the late 1960s. Killed under mysterious circumstances by a law enforcement officer in 1970, Salazar became an instant martyr to Latinos.

The Rise and Fall of Brown Buffalo
Friday, October 4 at 11 p.m.
Discover the life of radical Chicano lawyer, author and countercultural icon, Oscar Zeta Acosta — the basis for the character Dr. Gonzo in “Fear and Loathing in Las Vegas.”

Sarah Chang and Gloria Estefan heard of: Domenico Scarlatti. He was the finest keyboard player in Europe, hired by the Queen of Spain as her personal instructor. Into Vivaldi’s melodies and Bach’s fugues, Scarlatti incorporated the sounds of Spain—Moorish, Jewish, Gypsy, folk, dance and guitar—to create a new musical language that inspired generations of musicians after him.

Handel: Italian Style
Friday, October 11 at 9 p.m.

Before becoming the most famous composer of his time, Handel gained a lifetime of experience in Italy. Welcomed by wealthy patrons, he traveled with the Scarlatti family and learned from Corelli and the masters of the Italian Style. Yoo returns to Italy to follow in Handel’s footsteps, taking in the art, architecture, fashion, food, wine, light and landscape that, even beyond Italian music, shaped this German composer for the rest of his life.

Great Performances: Grammy Salute to Music Legends
Friday, October 18 at 9 p.m.

Enjoy a star-studded awards concert for Recording Academy Lifetime Achievement Award honorees, filmed at Los Angeles’ Dolby Theatre. This singular event features rare performances by both the honorees and artists they’ve inspired with never-before-seen renditions of their classic songs. The celebration and tribute concert includes George Clinton and Parliament Funkadelic, Johnny Mathis, Dionne Warwick, Garth Brooks, Snoop Dogg, Patti Austin, Sheila E, Sam Moore, Julio Iglesias and more.

How the Beatles Rocked the Kremlin
Friday, October 18 at 11 p.m.

Learn the extraordinary and untold story of how the Beatles punctured the Iron Curtain. Even though the Beatles never played in the Soviet Union, their music and their rebellious style still infiltrated the country, soaking into the lives of a generation of kids. Meet members of the Russian Beatles generation, who relate how the Fab Four changed their lives, gave them hope and helped to undermine the foundations of the Soviet system. The film showcases archival Soviet-era footage laced with interviews with Soviet Beatles fans, who reveal just how they managed to listen to the outlawed music of the Fab Four.

Rothko: American Masters
Friday, October 25 at 9 p.m.

Explore the life of the celebrated artist whose luminous color field paintings helped define the abstract expressionist movement, which shifted the art world epicenter from Paris to New York. Featuring original scenes with Alfred Molina.

Great Performances: 42nd Street
Friday, November 1 at 9 p.m.

One of show business’s most classic and beloved tales tells the story of Peggy Sawyer, a talented young performer with stars in her eyes who gets her big break on Broadway. Peggy’s rise from showgirl to star is the stuff of show business dreams. Tap-dance along to this musical extravaganza, set to a lively score of iconic songs including “Lullaby of Broadway,” “We’re in the Money” and the show-stopping title song.

Outdoor Nevada Remixed
Wednesdays at 7:30 p.m.

Get your travel gear once again and join host John Burke as we look back at the last three seasons of Outdoor Nevada. Revisit some of your favorite spots from around the state of Nevada and relive the thrill of adventure in the great outdoors. Whether we’re skydiving, exploring ghost towns or studying fault lines, we’re having a blast. Tag along as we meet up with old friends and rediscover what makes Nevada so unique and fascinating.

Nature
Wednesdays at 8 p.m.

Octopus: Making Contact
October 2 (season premiere)

Follow an Alaskan professor as he raises and studies a pet octopus in his home, making remarkable discoveries about its extraordinary intelligence, personality and skills.

The Serengeti Rules
October 9

Explore remote and spectacular places on Earth alongside five scientists with surprise discoveries that flip our understanding of nature on its head.

Undercover in the Jungle
October 16

Go undercover with a film crew on a perilous journey to the untouched wilderness of biodiversity in the Amazon rainforest. Meet some of the most incredible creatures, from pygmy marmosets to pumas, as the wild secrets of the jungle are revealed.

Okavango: River of Dreams: Paradise
October 23

Explore the landscape and wildlife of the Upper Okavango River. A lioness severely injured by a buffalo is left for dead by her pride. Now handicapped, she has to survive in the swamp alone, hunting to feed her little cubs.

Okavango: River of Dreams: Limbo
October 30

See the landscape and wildlife of the “Middle River,” the delta of the Okavango River. A hyena and a warthog family share neighboring dens, helping each other by keeping an eye on threatening predators, such as lions and leopards.

NOVA
Wednesdays at 9 p.m.

Inside the Megafire
October 2

From the front line of the Camp Fire, the deadliest wildfire in California history, NOVA tells the stories of residents who had to flee for their lives during the 2018 fire season. Scientists race to understand what’s behind the rise of record-breaking megafires across the American West.

Day the Dinosaurs Died
October 9

Investigate how an asteroid vanquished the dinosaurs 66 million years ago. Join scientists as they drill into the impact crater, and, for the first time, reconstruct the hell on earth that unfolded in the minutes, hours and months after the impact.

Why Bridges Collapse
October 16

In 2018, Italy’s Morandi Bridge collapsed, killing 43 people. This special investigates what went wrong and explores other bridge collapses from across the United States. How can new engineering techniques make bridges safer and prevent such tragedies?

Look Who’s Driving
October 23

The real possibility of a world in which cars no longer require human drivers has been sparked by a surge of innovation that’s being heralded by some as the biggest advance in transportation since horses gave way to automobiles. But successfully achieving such a radical transition poses an unprecedented set of technological, engineering, legal, regulatory and other challenges.

"Cameras in space tell stories of life on our planet from a brand new perspective..."
More Science & Nature
Be sure to check our online schedules at VegasPBS.org for additional science and nature programming weekdays from 2:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.

Life from Above: Moving Planet
October 23
Follow nature’s greatest spectacles, weather events and dramatic seasonal changes. This is our home as we’ve never seen it before.

Life from Above: Colorful Planet
October 30
View Earth’s kaleidoscope of colors as seen from space. Swirls of turquoise phytoplankton trigger an oceanic feeding frenzy, China turns yellow as millions of flowers bloom, and at night the waters near Argentina are spotted with green lights.

Specials Wednesdays at 11 p.m.
Animals with Cameras:
A Nature Miniseries
October 2, 9 and 16
Get a front row seat for an extraordinary experience. Wildlife cameraman Gordon Buchanan and a team of pioneering animal behaviorists join forces to explore stories of animal lives “told” by the animals themselves. The miniseries showcases a side of the animal kingdom where human cameramen can’t go, when animals become the cinematographers. Using special cameras, you will sprint across the savanna with a cheetah, plunge into the ocean with a seal and swing through the trees with a chimpanzee. We will be privy to their secret lives and uncover some truly unprecedented behavior through their eyes.

Sinking Cities
As the earth warms, sea levels rise and super-storms become more frequent and intense. Coastal cities prepare for the real-time impact of rising seas, devising colossal new construction projects and ground-breaking solutions.

Sinking Cities: New York City
October 23
Discover how New York City might defend itself against rising seas and the next big storm. With 520 miles of shoreline and absolutely no coastal protection, engineers and urban planners are tackling the problem with creative engineering.

Sinking Cities: Tokyo
October 30
Discover how Tokyo is looking for new ways to fight back against rising waters. Typhoons, tsunamis, earthquakes and sinking neighborhoods are just a few of the problems threatening one of the world’s most populous cities.

Secrets of the Sky Tombs
October 30
A team of daring scientists reveals ancient secrets of the first people to settle the forbidding Himalayas. Join them as they climb into mountain tombs that preserve evidence of strange rituals designed to ward off the restless spirits of the dead.

Specials Wednesdays at 10 p.m.
Wild Metropolis
Discover the extraordinary animals adapting to life in the world’s most loved cities, and witness the remarkable ways they meet the challenges of surviving in the newest habitat on the planet.

Wild Metropolis: Residents
October 2
From pythons in Bangkok to otters in Singapore, cities may seem unlikely havens for wildlife, but for animals able to adapt, the urban world is filled with opportunity.

Wild Metropolis: Commuters
October 9
In a modern migration, animals travel in and out of cities to find food and shelter or to start a family. See if the secret to success in a fast-changing world is commuting.

Wild Metropolis: Survivors
October 16
As the urban world grows, animals are displaced from land that belonged to them. From herons to humpback whales, follow the captivating stories of wild survivors.

Life from Above
Cameras in space tell stories of life on our planet from a brand new perspective, revealing its incredible movements, colors, patterns and just how fast it is changing. This is our home as we’ve never seen it before.

Looking for inspiration for projects around the house or just love watching amazing transformations? This month, we bring new seasons of our two iconic, long-running series that bring home renovation to life.

This Old House
Saturdays at 10 a.m.

This Emmy Award®-winning series announces the start of production on its 39th season and welcomes fresh new faces as apprentices join the on-air series regulars to sharpen their skills in carpentry, masonry, HVAC systems and more. They are being welcomed as a part of the multimedia brand’s Generation NEXT initiative designed to encourage and empower people to join the skilled trades.

This season, host Kevin O’Connor, general contractor Tom Silva, master carpenter Norm Abram, plumbing and heating expert Richard Trethewey and landscape contractor Roger Cook will be joined by trade students and up-and-coming professionals as America’s most trusted home improvement show shines a spotlight on the value of jobs in the building industry.

The first project of the 39th season is a second-generation family home in Newton, Massachusetts. Homeowners Liz and Joe recently inherited a 1,700 square-foot Four Square house, originally built in 1879. Now the team and the apprentices are helping to renovate and expand to accommodate three generations. The second project of the show will take place in Charleston, South Carolina, a town rich in history, with many architectural gems in need of saving.

Ask This Old House
Saturdays at 10:30 a.m.

The team at This Old House takes on some pretty big projects, which means they can only work on one or two houses a year. But homeowners have a virtual truckload of questions for them on smaller projects, and they’re ready to answer them. In this informative series, the team solves the steady stream of home improvement problems faced by viewers — and they make house calls!

Fascinating Stories from the Past

Throughout October

Secrets of the Dead: Scanning the Pyramids

Tuesday, October 1 at 8 p.m.

The only one of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World still standing, the Great Pyramid of Giza, has fascinated people for centuries. In November 2017, a research team announced they had made a historic discovery — using cutting-edge, non-invasive technology, they discovered several new cavities within the Great Pyramid. This special shows how these modern-day explorers — particle physicists, experts in 3D technologies and engineers in thermal imaging — made this massive discovery, exploring large portions of the pyramid for two years. Witness their adventures and successes in this extraordinary journey through time and space.

Retro Report

Mondays and Tuesdays at 9 p.m. beginning October 7 and 8

This new series offers viewers a fresh perspective on current headlines, revealing their unknown — and often surprising — connections to the past. See page 25 for details.

Defying the Nazis: The Sharp’s War

Monday, October 7 at 10 p.m.

This film by Ken Burns tells the story about a little-known but important mission by an American minister and his wife to rescue refugees and dissidents in Europe before and after the start of World War II. They left their children behind in the care of their parish and boldly committed to multiple life-threatening missions in Europe. Over two dangerous years they helped to save hundreds of imperiled political dissidents and Jewish refugees fleeing the Nazi occupation across Europe. During this time, the Sharps would face harrowing encounters with Nazi police, narrowly escape arrest and watch as the Third Reich invaded Eastern Europe.

Finding Your Roots, New Season 6

Tuesdays at 8 p.m.

The acclaimed series returns with Professor Henry Louis Gates, Jr. exploring the mysteries, surprises and revelations hidden in the family trees of popular figures.

Hollywood Royalty October 8

Actors Isabella Rossellini, Anjelica Huston and Mia Farrow unearth surprising new revelations about their family histories, taking them generations beyond their famous cinematic forebears.

Off the Farm October 15

Explore the humble roots of comedic actors Melissa McCarthy and Eric Stonestreet, retracing the ancestral journeys that laid the groundwork for their success.

Family Reunions October 22

Uncover family mysteries about two legends of hip hop, Sean Combs and LL Cool J, through the use of DNA technology that reveals information that shakes their very foundations.

Unfamiliar Kin October 29

Actors Fred Armisen, Christopher Walken and musician Carly Simon each learn about a grandparent whose real identity and background had been a mystery to them — redefining how they see themselves.

Ted Williams: American Masters

Monday, October 21 at 10 p.m.

Discover the many sides of Baseball Hall of Famer and Boston Red Sox player Ted Williams. Regarded as one of the greatest hitters in baseball history, this documentary explores not only his remarkable on-field accomplishments but also his complicated relationships with his family, teammates, press, fans and himself. Featured are never-before-seen archival footage and in-depth interviews with those who knew and studied Williams.

In Their Own Words: Muhammad Ali

Monday, October 21 at 11 p.m.

Follow Muhammad Ali’s rise from Louisville, Kentucky, to international fame, as key events unfolded in Ali’s life, including his stunning conversion to Islam and his change of name, his dramatic stand against the Vietnam-era draft, his three-year exile from the ring, his legendary comeback fights, his courageous battle with Parkinson’s disease, and his inspirational reemergence on the world stage at the 1996 Atlanta Olympics.

I’m a recovering journalist. My career start in broadcast journalism gives me an extra appreciation for how communities work and how organizations bring people and their ideas together for the betterment of community and helping to forge the bonds of social and civic capital.

Such is the mission of public television and Vegas PBS, which I am proud to be associated with as a member of the Southern Nevada Public Television Board of Directors. My appreciation has been enhanced in my interim role leading Vegas PBS’ Development function, while also helping to steward the station’s long-term strategic plan.

Vegas PBS delivers quality, trusted television and streams content 24/7. The reality is, quality comes at a cost and Vegas PBS, like the 170 PBS affiliated licensees nationally, must generate the revenue locally to make the content a reality. Research shows that PBS’ brand generates unwavering loyalty among an array of audiences that is literally cradle to grave. Parents rely on Vegas PBS to provide trusted and quality children’s programs that educate, entertain and inform. Amidst a shrinking supply of over-the-air children’s programming, viewership data indicates Vegas PBS is the supplier of choice for children’s content during the morning and early afternoon hours on Channel 10 and VEGAS PBS KIDS.

Similarly, the award-winning news and information shows including Nevada Week, BBC World News, Nightly Business Report and the PBS NewsHour are trusted by public and business decision makers and influencers. The same goes for the other wide and diverse array of content ranging from Antiques Roadshow to Masterpiece, to Ken Burns’ iconic documentaries, to the foodie favorite America’s Test Kitchen and so much more for which PBS has become known. Not the least is our spotlight on the achievements of southern Nevada students through locally produced shows like Varsity and Junior Varsity Quiz, Nevada Regional Science Bowl and Clark County School District Spelling Bee.

We are honored to be the choice of many Southern Nevada businesses, foundations and individuals as the place where they demonstrate their commitment to education and community, by sponsoring programming (visit page 38 for a list of sponsors). They know that through their support they are inherently connected with the quality of the Vegas PBS brand, and helping to advance its essential mission of educating, informing and entertaining. We’d like to add you to the list! Vegas PBS has a variety of sponsorship opportunities to help businesses and organizations engage with the growing and loyal community of Vegas PBS supporters. To connect with our team please send us a note at CorporateSponsorship@VegasPBS.org.

Thank you for supporting Vegas PBS!
Kindness and Bullying Prevention Throughout October

In school, social interaction has a huge impact on children, so this month we are airing special episodes that focus on being kind. Students who are taught kindness are more empathic, more socially aware and connected, helping to reduce occurrences of bullying.

Molly of Denali
October 7 through 11 at 8:30 a.m.

Follow feisty and resourceful 10-year-old Alaska Native Molly Mabray, her dog Suki, and friends Tooey and Trini on their adventures in epically beautiful Alaska. Special new episodes this week explore kindness and demonstrate Alaska Native values like showing respect, sharing and taking care of others.

It’s time for Halloween Fun!

Kids always look forward to this exciting holiday and in celebration, we have specials scheduled throughout the last two weeks of October. Join us for airings of Arthur and the Haunted Tree House, Curious George: A Halloween Boo Fest, The Cat in the Hat Knows A Lot About Halloween and Wild Kratts: Creepy Creatures. Check the online schedule at VegasPBS.org for dates and times.

The Durrells in Corfu Season 4

Sunday, September 29 at 8 p.m.

In the premiere episode of this heartwarming series, Louisa opens a new boarding house, but the arrival of a mysterious guest places it under police scrutiny. True to form, Gerry continues to collect animals, ambitiously planning to open a zoo with a new owl and some lemurs joining the menagerie. Seeking a new challenge, Margo starts her own beauty salon, but she struggles to find clients for her treatments.

FRONLINE: The Crown Prince of Saudi Arabia

Tuesday, October 1 at 9 p.m.

On October 2, 2018, Saudi journalist Jamal Khashoggi entered his country’s consulate in Istanbul, while his fiancée waited outside. Khashoggi, who was often critical of the Saudi government and Crown Prince Mohammed bin Salman, never left the consulate. After numerous conflicting reports, it was revealed that he had been murdered and dismembered while inside. His murder drew the world’s attention to the young Crown Prince of Saudi Arabia. This new special investigates the rise of bin Salman, his vision for the future, and his handling of dissent and Khashoggi’s murder.

Press on Masterpiece
Sunday, October 6 at 10 p.m.

This sharp, fast-paced series rips aside the front pages of rival newspapers to reveal the lives, loves and lies of a dynamic group of journalists. Set in the world of newspapers in London — its past riven by hacking scandals, its present at the mercy of the digital age and the 24-hour news cycle, its future uncertain — this razor sharp and observant drama explores the current, turbulent media landscape and the ethical dilemmas that journalists and editors face each day. Charlotte Riley (“Peaky Blinders”) and Ben Chaplin (“Apple Tree Yard”) star, alongside Priyanga Burford (“King Charles III”) and David Suchet (“Poirot”).

POV: The Feeling of Being Watched
Monday, October 14 at 10 p.m.

In the Muslim American neighborhood outside of Chicago where journalist and filmmaker Assia Boundaoui grew up, most of her neighbors think they have been under surveillance for over a decade. While investigating their experiences, Assia uncovers tens of thousands of pages of FBI documents that prove her hometown was the subject of one of the largest counterterrorism investigations ever conducted in the U.S. before 9/11. This new special weaves together the personal and the political as it follows the filmmaker’s examination of why her community — including her own family — fell under blanket government surveillance. Assia struggles to disrupt the government secrecy shrouding what happened and takes the FBI to federal court to compel them to make the records public. In the process, she confronts long-hidden truths about the FBI’s relationship to her community.

Thou Shalt Not Kill
Saturday, October 19 at 11 p.m.

Vegas PBS continues to bring you the best of foreign language drama with this smart, engrossing procedural crime series featuring a savvy young detective full of complications in both her professional and personal life, all set against a backdrop of Italian architecture, style and culture. Miriam Leone plays Inspector Valeria Ferro, the head of the homicide squad in Turin, Italy, whose methods often rub her colleagues the wrong way. Her boss and boyfriend, Giorgio Lombardi (Thomas Trabacchi), bows to political pressure and influence. She does not. The dark and brooding series features intriguing cases with surprising results. In Italian with English subtitles.

Songwriting with Soldiers

Friday, October 25 at 10 p.m.

Facing reentry into civilian life, many service members struggle with the aftermath of war: ambush, rocket fire and friends lost. Songwriting with Soldiers uses strong songwriting as a catalyst for positive change in weekend retreats across the country, pairing service members with professional songwriters to craft songs about their experiences, often about combat and the return home.

The creative songwriting process is life-changing for participants as it offers a unique outlet to tell their stories, rebuild trust, release pain and forge new bonds. In this new special, award-winning singer/songwriters, veterans and active service members come together for a powerful night of music in a moving concert performed and taped at Nashville’s War Memorial Auditorium.

Nature: Okavango: River of Dreams: Paradise

Wednesday, October 23 at 8 p.m.

The Okavango in Southern Africa is a special river born in the highlands of Angola. Running through Botswana for more than 1,000 miles, the waters of the Okavango create a huge river delta before finally disappearing into the Kalahari Desert. The Okavango Delta is a true natural wonder — an unlikely oasis and lush paradise in the middle of a hostile desert that supports and feeds an incredible abundance of wildlife.

The three-part series presents a unique ecosystem at its finest and most beautiful. This first episode explores the landscape and wildlife of the Upper Okavango River. A lioness severely injured by a buffalo is left for dead by her pride. Now handicapped, she has to survive in the swamp alone, hunting to feed her little cubs.

(9:30) 16% of Wisconsin high school students surveyed said they seriously considered suicide. Eight percent said they had attempted it. Follow four young people from Wisconsin navigating mental health challenges. They’ve endured assault, bullying, incarceration and discrimination. Some thought about suicide, but through the pain they found support from family, friends and strangers. They found strength within themselves. Used as a tool in many high schools, the film focuses on individuals who thought about suicide but found coping mechanisms and did not die by suicide. Researchers emphasize the importance of hopeful peer-to-peer messages. The film, which does not have a narration track, features only the voices of the four youth. Many young people feel hopeless, and this documentary can be a motivational force for positive change.

POV: Blowin’ Up

Sunday, October 27 at 11 p.m.

Working within a broken criminal justice system, a team of rebel heroines work to change the way women arrested for prostitution are prosecuted. With intimate camerawork that lingers on details and brings the Queens criminal courtroom to life, the special celebrates acts of steadfast defiance, even as it reveals the hurdles these women must face. Official Selection, 2018 Tribeca Film Festival.

Airing just before Nevada Day, we have put together a full line-up of special local programming celebrating our great state and recounting the experiences of people who have lived here.

- Outdoor Nevada: Our Radioactive History at 9 a.m. (2019 Emmy Award, Magazine – Special; 2019 Bronze Telly Award, History).
- Outdoor Nevada Remixed: Roaring and Hissing at 12:30 p.m. (2018 Emmy Award, Magazine – Program/Special).
Emperor Akihito
Sunday, October 27 from 10:30 a.m. to 1 p.m.

The three-part documentary series airing back-to-back tells the story of the Japanese emperor’s life and his reign from 1989 to 2019. In a democratizing world, the changing role of the Imperial House of Japan led Emperor Akihito to break many traditions.

In part one, Crown Prince Akihito's childhood is spent in the shadow of a war fought in the name of his father. He learns to balance an imperial identity with a sense of social equality. In part two, it meets his future wife, who becomes the first commoner to join the Imperial Household. In another break with tradition, they raise their own children. Then in part three, Emperor Akihito explores his role as the symbol of the state and of the unity of the Japanese people. In April 2019, foreseeing a time when he can no longer perform his duties as he wishes, the Emperor decides to abdicate.

Create Marathon:
Autumn Comfort
Saturday, October 19 from 6 a.m. - Noon

The weather is beginning to get cooler, the leaves are changing colors and seasonal dishes are on the menu. Taste the goodness of P. Allen Smith’s pumpkin crème brûlée and pumpkin stew. Vivian Howard’s harvest is bountiful and you can sample all of the flavors at her feast. Take a New England fall foliage tour and see all of the vibrant colors of the season. Settle into this gorgeous season, because Autumn has never tasted or looked so good! Repeats same day from 6 p.m. – Midnight and on Sunday, October 20 from Noon – 6 p.m.

Dream of Italy:
Tuscan Sun Special
Wednesday, October 2 at 9:30 a.m.

Join Kathy McCabe as she travels to the hilltop town of Cortona to meet Frances Mayes, New York Times best-selling author of the 1996 memoir “Under the Tuscan Sun.” Frances invites Kathy into Bramasole, the villa she and her husband transformed from a little fixer upper into a worldwide phenomenon, including a hit movie. Kathy takes you inside to visit the gardens and the beautiful rooms for a conversation with Frances about just what it is about Italy that keeps us coming back again and again. Later, as Kathy and Frances explore Cortona, one-star Michelin chef Silvia gives a cooking lesson with local ingredients, and a jeweler explains Tuscany’s goldsmithing tradition. Repeats same day at 3:30 p.m. and on Wednesday, October 9 at 9:30 a.m. and 3:30 p.m.
WORLDVIEW SPOTLIGHT
The Library Thief
Sunday, October 6 from 6 p.m. – 9 p.m.
The names and some of the incidents have been changed, but the story at the heart of this three-part drama airing back-to-back is true. John Johannsson (Gustaf Skarsgård, “Vikings”) was a laid-off, downtrodden teacher, married with two kids and swamped with debt. John takes a part-time job as an assistant in Stockholm’s Royal Library — a position for which he is eminently over-qualified. He then began stealing library rarities and selling them at auction houses throughout Europe under the guise of “John Manneus.” The gambit works, and soon John is regularly commuting back and forth to auction houses throughout Europe, dramatically upgrading his lifestyle and climbing the ladder at work. He is eventually brought down by three of his co-workers. In Swedish with English subtitles. Repeats same day from 9 p.m. – Midnight.

JACKPOT! SPOTLIGHT
Hemingway in Cuba
Thursday, October 10 at 11 p.m.
Cuba captured Ernest Hemingway’s fertile imagination and inspired him to create now-legendary fictional characters: Harry Morgan of “To Have and Have Not,” Thomas Hudson of “Islands in the Stream” and Santiago of “The Old Man and the Sea.” This special travels to Cuba to capture Hemingway’s old haunts — many of which remain unchanged — and explores Hemingway’s real-life adventures in Cuba, from his passion for marlin fishing and safari hunting, as well as the influence of his wives and lovers on his life and work. Featured are archival footage and included interviews with Cuban scholars and Hemingway biographers who discuss how Cuba’s culture, religion and even its volatile politics influenced this legendary American author.

REWIND SPOTLIGHT
Independent Lens: Made in Boise
Wednesday, October 30 at 10 p.m.
A surprising — and booming — industry has emerged in Boise, Idaho. In this idyllic, all-American city, nurses, nail technicians and stay-at-home mothers are choosing to become paid reproductive surrogates for people from around the world. This special goes inside the lives of four women as they build relationships with intended parents, prepare for the rigors of pregnancy, and navigate the mixed feelings of their own families, who struggle to understand the surrogates’ choice to risk the physical and emotional complications of carrying babies for another family.

Why We Support Vegas PBS...

HeadzUP is entertainment for everyone with endless adventures in one location. We have a trick art museum, escape rooms, archery tag arena, axe throwing cages and the NV Boxing Hall of Fame Exhibit. All of these activities were created with the hopes of connecting people and letting them enjoy one another’s company.

Our goal is to influence our youth and community by providing them with safe and fun learning experiences. Thinking skills will be put to the test in our escape rooms, by building connections and solving puzzles in order to complete a room, we encourage team building and good sportsmanship in our archery tag arena and axe throwing cages. Imaginations are working full force when interacting with the art, and to utilize the sport of boxing to further the general welfare of the youth.

This is why we are proud to support Vegas PBS and its role in the community. When we work together to accomplish a common goal, we are unstoppable.

How Do You Become a Sponsor?

When you support quality Vegas PBS programming, you’re helping build a stronger and healthier community. Simply select from favorite evening programs or underwrite a daytime show that children enjoy. We’ll do the rest. While our programming value is high, its price is low. For information on how to sponsor Vegas PBS programming, contact Summer Collins at scollins@VegasPBS.org.
Is someone threatening to turn off your electricity unless you provide a gift card, MoneyPak® or other prepaid card? This is a common utility imposter scam - do not fall victim! If you have been threatened, please take the following action immediately.

It is helpful to provide as much information about the scam as possible, including the scammer’s phone number.

1. Do not purchase a gift card, and do not make any additional contact with the scammer(s).

2. Call NV Energy at (702) 402-SCAM to report the incident and review your account.

3. File a complaint with the Federal Trade Commission at ftc.gov/complaint or by calling (877) FTC-HELP.
