A Message from the General Manager

TRAILBLAZERS AND OUR JUNE MEMBERSHIP CAMPAIGN

A fter many weeks at home, local viewing patterns have changed according to the reports we receive from Nielsen. Timely news programs like the PBS NewsHour, FRONTLINE and Nevada Week retain viewers, but viewers are also seeking entertainment, education and diversion from the abnormal patterns of social distancing. Our Top 25 “most watched” shows for the past 60 days include Antiques Roadshow and NOVA for those seeking educational entertainment, Lydia’s Kitchen, Hubert Keller’s Secrets of a Chef and America’s Test Kitchen attracted those considering new ideas for at home meals, and Call the Midwife, Death in Paradise and Midsomer Murders offered dramatic diversion.

Vegas PBS will offer more of the same great programming this month, plus concerts to entertain you and documentaries about unconventional trailblazers who questioned the status quo and changed our world. From suffragettes to ground-breaking artists, the Vegas PBS Trailblazers Spotlight Series will reintroduce us to people who pushed against the odds and left an indelible impression on the world. Unconventional thinking is needed now as we face changing social interactions, altered work, sports, dining, entertainment patterns, and new forms of distance education. Join us in celebrating those who have helped create new paths for others to follow.

If you want to remember hearing the roar of a cheering crowd, peruse the schedule of performing artists on pages 8 and 9 of this magazine. Additionally, this month’s schedule on our Create channel offers many cooking and home improvement programs that deserve your attention and may satisfy your palate and provide guidance on overdue home projects.

During the Covid-19 crisis, Vegas PBS has adjusted program services to support schools; produced an amazing amount of local content; expanded access to instructional resources for teachers and parents; secured approval to expand state funded job training programs for the unemployed and donated promotion of personal health and social relief services of key nonprofits, government and emergency managers.

To fund the noncommercial programming you enjoy, we will hold a membership campaign in June. While we are excited about the unique programming airing throughout the month, we are profoundly aware of the severe economic challenges facing many families and businesses. We have had heart wrenching calls from members cancelling pledges due to the loss of income from two wage earners, or sponsorship cancellations from shuttered businesses.

What is amazing about these calls is the apologetic tone of the distressed donor. They deeply value our television and online services and want to support Vegas PBS, but can no longer afford to do so. Many in our community are no longer in a position to support Vegas PBS. This month, as we raise money to support your educational and thought-provoking program services, I ask those who are more secure, to consider additional gifts to insure that Vegas PBS will remain a robust, free-to-all, universally accessible, truly local service focused on the common good for all in our community.

Thank you for supporting Vegas PBS. Stay safe and healthy.

History Revealed

Throughout June

Secrets of the Dead: King Arthur’s Lost Kingdom
Tuesday, June 9 at 8 p.m.

History teaches that in the 5th century, the country descended into a tumultuous and violent period known as the Dark Ages, leaving the nation vulnerable to invading Angle and Saxon hordes from northern Europe. With a nation divided, a great leader known as King Arthur emerged, unifying the lawless lands to fight off invaders — or at least that’s what the fragmentary historical texts suggest. The truth is, no one really knows what happened — until now. In this special, Professor Alice Roberts and a team of experts use new archaeological discoveries to decode Dark Ages myths and piece together a very different story of this turning point in Britain’s history that might also explain the legend of King Arthur.

Stonewall Uprising: American Experience
Tuesday, June 9 at 9 p.m.

Learn the dramatic event that launched a worldwide rights movement. The film revisits a time when homosexual acts were illegal throughout America, and homosexuality itself was seen as a form of mental illness. Hunted and often entrapped by undercover police in their hometowns, gays from around the U.S. began fleeing to New York in search of a sanctuary. Hounded there still by an aggressive police force, they found refuge in a Mafia-run gay bar in Greenwich Village, the Stonewall Inn. When police raided Stonewall on June 28, 1969, gay men and women did something they had not done before: they fought back. As the streets of New York erupted into violent protests and street demonstrations, the collective anger announced that the gay rights movement had arrived.

Prince Albert: A Victorian Hero Revealed
Sunday, June 14 at 8 p.m.

History largely remembers Prince Albert as Queen Victoria’s German husband whose untimely death inspired decades of mourning. However, a wealth of new material suggests he played a profound role in shaping Victorian Britain. Professor Saul David examines Albert’s significant influence on British culture, governmental policy and even international relations. Initially viewed with suspicion and hostility, Albert faced an uphill struggle to carve out a role and be taken seriously. Such was his tenacity that by the time of his premature death, aged only 42, Albert was widely regarded as a forward-thinking reformer whose innovative ideas transformed the fortunes of the nation and created a legacy that lives on today. Victoria may have worn the crown, but Albert was king in all but name.

Lucy Worsley’s Royal Myths & Secrets
Sundays at 8 p.m. beginning June 21

Welcome to a past that’s blood-soaked and fiendish, where treachery plays out in beautiful palaces and on nightmarish battlefields. In this new six-part series, historian Lucy Worsley takes you across Europe to visit incredible locations where royal history was made. This isn’t the polished version of royal history we’re used to. Lucy discovers the real — and far from regal — stories. This is history reinvigorated, where myths are gleefully smashed and lies are laid to rest. See page 29 for details.

Finding Your Roots: Secrets & Lies
Tuesday, June 30 at 8 p.m.

The acclaimed series returns with Professor Henry Louis Gates, Jr. exploring the mysteries, surprises and revelations hidden in the family trees of popular figures. In this episode, Gates helps actors Sigourney Weaver, Justina Machado and Amy Ryan unearth surprising revelations about their family histories, forever altering how they see themselves.
Celebrating 40 spectacular years on air, A CAPITOL FOURTH kicks off the country’s 244th birthday with an all-star musical extravaganza for our entire nation.

Two-time Emmy Award-nominated actor and producer John Stamos is back to host America’s Independence Day Celebration along with the National Symphony Orchestra under the direction of top pops conductor Jack Everly.

The 40th anniversary program will feature a special tribute to those on the front lines in the fight against the coronavirus (COVID-19), plus a salute to our military heroes of every generation.

Dishing with Julia Child

Saturdays at 12:30 p.m. beginning June 20

When Julia Child’s seminal show “The French Chef” debuted in 1963, little did anyone know that she would change the way Americans thought about cooking forever. She demystified classic dishes, empowering and inspiring millions of home cooks and professional chefs. In this wonderful series, nine of today’s most respected chefs — José Andrés, Rick Bayless, Carla Hall, Vivian Howard, Sara Moulton, Jacques Pépin, Éric Ripert, Marcus Samuelsson and Martha Stewart — gather together to screen — and delight in — favorite episodes of Child’s iconic show. As they watch, they share personal reminiscences, anecdotes and a few laughs as they discuss the immeasurable impact she had on their lives, careers and the American food scene.

EPISODES THIS MONTH:

The Whole Fish Story June 20

Good friends and renowned chefs José Andrés and Éric Ripert of Le Bernardin are amazed and amused by Julia’s hands-on treatment of a staggering array of whole fish, encouraging viewers to attempt techniques they might have considered the purview of professionals only. Each tells great stories about personal encounters with Julia in their own restaurants and her ability to stop even the most gifted chefs in their tracks.

The Good Loaf June 27

Two pairs of celebrity chefs — Vivian Howard and Marcus Samuelsson, and Carla Hall and Sara Moulton — follow Julia as she makes the classic pain de mie and raisin bread. Sara reminds us that in an era of frozen food and TV dinners, Julia showed Americans that cooking was fun and rewarding. Carla points out that Julia makes ingredients and techniques accessible. Marcus and Vivian note that dirty dishes in the background and flour flying around make viewers feel that the complicated process of making bread is something that even they can do.

“...in an era of frozen food and TV dinners, Julia showed Americans that cooking was fun...”

This sumptuous new six-part drama is set in Dehli in 1795, amidst the clashing forces of British and French militaries and the decline of the centuries-old Mughal Empire. Enigmatic Englishman and former East India Company soldier John Beecham (Tom Bateman, “Vanity Fair,” “Murder on the Orient Express”) has purchased the magnificent mansion, determined to reunite his family, but he carries a secret.

When Beecham arrives at his grand new Delhi estate to great fanfare, the presence of a (mixed-race and apparently motherless!) baby is more than just a surprise to the staff — it’s a mystery that only deepens as he falls for English governess Margaret Osbourne. As his overbearing mother (“Downton Abbey’s” Lesley Nicol, in a very un-Miss Patmore turn!) his rebellious brother (Leo Suter, “Sanditon” and “Victoria”), and even more complicated guests arrive, politics, passion, ambition and revenge collide, all under the roof of Beecham House.

Opulent homes, lush gardens, peacocks, monkeys, elephants and even the Taj Mahal are just a few of the authentic elements that bring this series, largely shot on location in India, to magnificent life.

When Beecham arrives, he brings with him his infant son. The baby is more than just a surprise to the staff — it’s a mystery...”

Linda Ronstadt: Live in Hollywood

Thursday, June 4 at 7:30 p.m.

On April 24, 1980, at Television Center Studios in Hollywood, Linda Ronstadt recorded a concert for an acclaimed HBO special that was considered by many fans to be a high point in her career. The concert, which featured electrifying performances of many of her greatest songs, captured America’s most popular female rock singer at the peak of her reign. On stage, Ronstadt held the packed audience spellbound with powerful renditions of her biggest hits — “Blue Bayou” and “Poor Poor Pitiful Me” — plus an incredible, previously unreleased six-minute jam of her #1 smash “You’re No Good.” The concert also showcased a trio of Top Ten hits from Ronstadt’s then-current and seventh consecutive platinum-selling album — “Mad Love” — with performances of “I Can’t Let Go” and “Hurt So Bad.”
One Woman, One Vote

Monday, June 8 at 10 p.m.

Women’s suffrage was a 72-year struggle that finally attained nation-wide victory in 1920 with the ratification of the 19th constitutional amendment prohibiting sex discrimination at the polls. Up to this point, women met, organized, marched, fought amongst themselves, lobbied and protested. They were threatened, attacked, beaten, tried, arrested and placed in solitary confinement for their actions. In retaliation, they fought harder. Oscar-winning actress Susan Sarandon narrates this documentary that examines the struggle for a woman’s right to vote. Segments focus on influential figures in the women’s suffrage movement, including Elizabeth Cady Stanton and Alice Paul; opposition from both men and women who feared the women’s vote would ignite a social revolution; and the U.S. Senate’s passage of the 19th Amendment by a single vote.

Great Performances at the Met: Agrippina

Friday, June 12 at 9 p.m.

Handel’s tale of intrigue and impropriety in ancient Rome receives its first Met performance, starring mezzo-soprano Joyce DiDonato as the controlling, power-hungry Agrippina and Harry Bicket conducting. Although based on serious events, Handel crafted a black comedy offering a lighthearted and satirical spin. Sir David McVicar’s production ingeniously reframes the action of the abuse of power to “the present,” where it should loudly resonate. The all-star cast features mezzo-soprano Kate Lindsey as Agrippina’s son and future emperor Nerone, soprano Brenda Rae as the seductive Poppea, counterenor Iestyn Davies as the ambitious officer Ottone and bass Matthew Rose as the weary emperor Claudius. It is interesting to note that the son of Agrippina is portrayed by a woman. In fact, the role was originally performed by a male castrato singer.

Toni Morrison: American Masters
Tuesday, June 23 at 8 p.m.

Toni Morrison is author of 11 novels and recipient of the 1988 Pulitzer Prize and the American Book Award for her novel, “Beloved,” as well as the 1993 Nobel Prize for Literature, among many other honors. This artful and intimate meditation on the legendary storyteller examines her life, her works and the powerful themes she has confronted throughout her literary career. From her Ohio childhood to her time teaching at Princeton to her many acclaimed novels, Morrison leads an assembly of peers, critics and colleagues on an exploration of race, America, history and the human condition. Repeats Wednesday, June 24 at 3:30 p.m.

Lucy Worsley’s Royal Myths & Secrets
Sundays at 8 p.m. beginning June 21

In this new six-part series, historian Lucy Worsley takes you across Britain and Europe to visit incredible locations where royal history was made. During Worsley’s tour through European history, she uncovers the real — and far from regal — truth. From Henry VIII’s Reformations, to Marie Antoinette’s execution at the guillotine, to the Russian Revolution, to how the crowned heads of Europe gained and lost their political power, wealth and status, you will learn the true stories. She investigates how monarchs have used fibs both to seize power and to keep hold of it. And, controversially, she reveals how historians today are keeping the tradition alive. This is history reinvigorated, where myths are gleefully smashed and lies are laid to rest.

The episodes center individuals at the heart of the movement behind the New American Majority, including Stacey Abrams (Georgia), Bushra Amiwala (Skokie, IL), Maria Elena Durazo (Los Angeles, CA), Veronica Escobar (El Paso, TX), Lucy McBath (Atlanta, GA) and Rashida Tlaib (Detroit, MI). Rick Steves’ Fascism in Europe
Saturday, June 6 at noon

Rick Steves travels back a century to learn how fascism rose and then fell in Europe — taking millions of people with it. He traces fascism’s history from its roots in the turbulent aftermath of World War I, when masses of angry people rose up, to the rise of charismatic leaders who manipulated that anger, and the totalitarian societies they built. In addition, Rick chronicles the brutal measures the leaders used to enforce their ideologies and discusses the horrific consequences of genocide and total war. And yet despite all this, inspiration can be found by those who resisted. Along the way, Rick visits poignant sights throughout Europe relating to fascism and talks with Europeans whose families lived through those times. The goal is to learn from the hard lessons of 20th-century Europe and to recognize that ideology in the 21st century. Repeats Sunday, June 7 at 12:30 p.m.

A smart and state-focused public affairs program, the series provides insight into the most current and critical issues facing Nevada. Hosted by Kipp Ortenburger, the weekly half-hour show covers a wide range of important issues such as health, water, transportation, arts and culture, education, economic development, family income, social services, economics and politics. Each week, the program takes an in-depth and informative look at the who, what, where and why of today’s compelling and critical issues, empowering each viewer to make informed decisions and take personal action to impact the future of our state.
As many of us are spending more time at home during this difficult time, we hope you will enjoy these last three seasons during our marathon viewing. This month, we pick up midway through Season 3. The Great War is over and the long-awaited engagement of Lady Mary and Matthew is on, but all is not tranquil at Downton Abbey as wrenching social change, romantic intrigues and personal crises grip the majestic English country estate. We then move through Seasons 4-6, ending with the two-hour Christmas special. Sadly, this series will no longer be available to PBS stations for broadcast or streaming as of July 1, so don’t miss this last chance to enjoy the beloved drama on Vegas PBS.

WORLD SPOTLIGHT

Independent Lens: Recorder: The Marion Stokes Project
Wednesday, June 24 at 10 p.m.

Marion Stokes secretly recorded American television 24 hours a day for 30 years, from 1975 until her death in 2012. Long before the era of “fake news,” the Philadelphia-based Communist was fighting to protect the truth by archiving everything that was said and shown on television. The public didn’t know it, but the networks were disposing their archives for decades into the trashcan of history. Remarkably Marion saved it. Her visionary and maddening project nearly tore her family apart and her son reflects back on his fractured, fascinating relationship with his complicated and fabulously wealthy mother.

Now her 70,000 VHS tapes are being digitized for future generations, giving us all an eye-opening glimpse into how television shaped and continues to shape our world. Also airs on Vegas PBS Channel 10 on Sunday, June 21 at 11 p.m.

Sweden: Lessons for America?
A Personal Exploration by Johan Norberg
Wednesday, June 10 at 9 p.m.

It’s been suggested that Americans would be better off if the United States was more like Sweden. Do Swedes know something we don’t? Join Swedish native and scholar Johan Norberg as he journeys through the history of Sweden’s economic rise. The lessons to be learned from Sweden may not be the ones you expect. Norberg illuminates key ideas and enterprises that sparked reform and continue to help Sweden maintain its lofty economic position, including freedom of the press, free trade, innovation, technology, relief from tax burdens and labor strife. “We learned a hard lesson from our brief socialist experiment of the 1970s,” said Norberg. “Join me as we travel around my home country and through time to understand the mistakes we made and how we recovered.”

Divided We Fall: Unity without Tragedy
Friday, June 5 at 8 p.m.

Many Americans feel America is becoming more and more politically divided and that America’s “culture of contempt” is ruining political discourse and making us miserable. This documentary brings ordinary citizens together to wrestle with the complex issues that divide our nation. 12 Gen Xers — equally divided red and blue — spent one weekend together to dive into divisive topics. Breaking out of partisan echo chambers to listen to one another, the participants — equal numbers of whom strongly approve and disapprove of President Donald Trump — explore what it means to be an American, what constitutes a “more perfect union” and what can be done to bridge the gaps between them. They prove that it IS possible to find common ground and camaraderie despite having opposing political views.
