THE VEGAS PBS SPOTLIGHT SERIES

A major component of Vegas PBS’ educational mission is to help build a sense of community by engaging viewers around our programming. To support this effort we are launching the Vegas PBS Spotlight Series — a series of quarterly events that will highlight the programming you fund, and will also connect viewers and supporters during thematic events throughout the year. We begin the Spotlight Series with our winter theme of “Exploring Our Culture through Food + Family.” PBS programs and local events will explore the increasingly diverse Las Vegas community through the lens of food and family traditions.

The Spotlight Series kicks off with a hometown favorite chef this month. The new series Hubert Keller: Secrets of A Chef: #LovinLasVegas will take viewers on a culinary journey of some of his favorite restaurants both on and off the Las Vegas Strip. Chef Keller shares insider secrets and features a wide range of cuisines from all parts of the world. The series premieres Saturday, January 11 at 12:30 p.m. We are delighted the series will also highlight many of the excellent restaurant experiences of our community when viewed across the nation on other PBS stations!

The next event will feature chef Marcus Samuelsson, host of No Passport Required. Immediately following Chinese New Year celebrations, the program will showcase Las Vegas’ Chinatown and explore the unique culinary delights of this community. Chef Samuelsson will revisit Las Vegas on February 12 and Vegas PBS members will have an opportunity to meet the chef at a Chinatown event. Details will be announced in the February magazine, our Engage e-newsletter and Vegas PBS’ social media accounts.

In the spring, we will shift from the culinary world to a focus on “Health and Wellness” that will include another Daniel Tiger Be My Neighbor Day in Summerlin, and the health and wellness funding benefits of an accurate Census count. Over the summer, the theme will celebrate national women’s suffrage through the 100th anniversary of the ratification of the 19th amendment in “Finding Our Voice and Trailblazers.” Then our Spotlight Series will naturally shift to the 2020 presidential election. FRONTLINE will present a series of films and interactive content exploring the campaigns from multiple perspectives. PBS NewsHour will cover the party conventions, and together with Washington Week and Nevada Week, you will find unique, nonpartisan coverage of the run up to the election. We are actively planning expanded campaign coverage and candidate events.

The size of our television audience is only one measure we apply to evaluating the impact of PBS programming in our community. We track event attendance, social media conversations, interactive web visits, program streams used in schools, online course enrollments, and other factors that help us understand how individuals and organizations use 21st century media. In one of America’s fastest growing communities, bringing people together to create a sense of local community is a unique capacity of public television. With your continuing support, we begin the new decade with new programs, increased outreach, a renewed energy and fierce excitement. We look forward to seeing our members face to face at these events.

Jane Austen was chronically ill with a mysterious disease in early 1817, when she turned her thoughts to a happier subject. She started work on a witty and delightful novel set in a seaside town. She never finished it. Now, noted screenwriter Andrew Davies (“Les Misérables”) picks up Austen’s plot and takes it in a glorious and satisfying direction.

This bold and lavish adaptation of Austen’s final work stars Rose Williams ("Curfew") as Austen’s lively but levelheaded heroine, Charlotte Heywood; Theo James ("Divergent") as the humorous and slightly wild Sidney Parker; Anne Reid ("Years and Years") as the forthright grande dame Lady Denham; Kris Marshall ("Love Actually") as Sanditon’s compulsively enterprising promoter, Tom Parker; and Crystal Clarke ("Ordeal by Innocence") as the mysterious West Indian heiress, Miss Lambe.

The storyline, as Austen left it in eleven beautifully crafted chapters, is as follows: Tom Parker is obsessed with turning the sleepy seaside village of Sanditon into a fashionable health resort, and he enlists the backing of local bigwig, Lady Denham. Through a mishap, Tom makes the acquaintance of the Heywoods and invites their eldest daughter, Charlotte, for an extended stay at Sanditon. There, the sensible Charlotte observes hypochondria, avarice and attempted seduc-
For your Sunday enjoyment, we also have two fantastic new series, along with the return of classic favorites.

Downton Abbey Mini-Marathon
Sundays at 1 p.m.
The marathon of this beloved series continues this month as we finish Season 5 and move into the final Season 6.

Northanger Abbey
January 5 at 4 p.m.
In Jane Austen’s gentle parody of gothic fiction, Felicity Jones plays romance addict Catherine Morland. At a medieval country house that fuels her lurid fantasies, she forms a friendship with Henry Tilney, but their budding romance is cut short.

Miss Marple
Sundays at 7 p.m.
Savor the probing mind of the soft-spoken senior sleuth, Miss Marple (Joan Hickson), who succeeds where young policemen fail. Gather your wits in solving these delightfully baffling mysteries.

Victoria Season 3 on Masterpiece
January 5 at 8 p.m. and 9 p.m.
Don’t miss the final two Season 3 episodes of this phenomenal series! The world’s eyes are on the Great Exhibition, and the Royal couple. Does triumph or failure beckon?

Howards End on Masterpiece
Sundays at 8 p.m. beginning January 12
Often considered E.M. Forster’s masterpiece, this new series is the story of two independent and unconventional sisters and the men in their lives seeking love and meaning as they navigate an ever-changing world. Margaret Schlegel (Hayley Atwell) is an intelligent, idealistic young woman who is courted by the older businessman Henry Wilcox (Matthew Macfadyen). Meanwhile Margaret’s passionate and capricious younger sister, Helen Schlegel (Philippa Coulthard), takes up the cause of Leonard Bast (Joseph Quinn), a young bank clerk who falls on hard times.

“...eyes are on the Great Exhibition, and the Royal couple. Does triumph or failure beckon?”

Vienna Blood
Sundays at 10 p.m. beginning January 19
Cultures and ideas collide in 1900s Vienna, Austria, in a fascinating new crime drama from acclaimed screenwriter, Steve Thompson (“Sherlock”). When Max Liebermann (Matthew Beard), one of Sigmund Freud’s young, brilliant students, encounters a detective inspector facing a strange case, he decides to help investigate a series of unusual and chilling murders. Max draws upon his perception and forensics skills, along with his deep understanding of human behavior and deviance, to solve some of Vienna’s most mysterious and deadly cases.

Throughout the Month

McCarthy: American Experience
Monday, January 6 at 9 p.m.

This special chronicles the rise and fall of Joseph McCarthy, the Wisconsin Senator who would test the limits of American decency and democracy. Free of restraint or oversight, he conducted a crusade against those he accused of being Communists, a chilling campaign marked by groundless accusations, bullying intimidation, grandiose showmanship and cruel victimization. He was brought down by his own excesses and overreach and died a broken man. Repeats Wednesday, January 8 at 3:30 p.m.

“...he conducted a crusade against those he accused of being Communists...”

The Lavender Scare
Monday, January 6 at 11 p.m.

Learn the untold story of how tens of thousands of homosexual federal workers were either fired or denied employment in the 1950s. Over the next four decades, tens of thousands of government workers were intimidated and investigated, threatened with exposure. This stirred outrage in the gay community, starting an LGBTQ rights movement with an unlikely hero at the forefront.

Country Music
Fridays at 9 p.m.

Explore the history of a uniquely American art form: country music. From its deep and tangled roots in ballads, blues and hymns performed in small settings, to its worldwide popularity, learn how country music evolved over the course of the twentieth century. Directed by Ken Burns, the series features never-before-seen footage and photos, plus interviews with more than 80 country music artists.

Black America Since MLK: And Still I Rise
Mondays, January 20 and 27 at 10 p.m.

This series looks at the last five decades of African-American history, exploring the tremendous gains and persistent challenges of these years. Drawing on eyewitness accounts, scholarly analysis and rare archival footage, the program illuminates our recent past, while raising urgent questions about the future of the African-American community — and our nation as a whole.

LOOKING AHEAD TO 2020: KEEPING THE MOMENTUM GOING INTO THE NEW YEAR

The beginning of the year is always a time of reflection, as well as goal-setting. This is no different for Vegas PBS’ Production Department, who takes pride in producing the local programming you see on our station. After being a part of this department for over 25 years, I can truly say that 2019 was filled with amazing accomplishments from our team.

Our local weekly public affairs show, Nevada Week, continues to grow and gain new loyal viewers. In 2019, our team covered important topics like Las Vegas’ new homeless ordinance, affordable housing and the future of water in the valley. The Nevada Week team also had the privilege to sit down with congressional representatives Dina Titus (NV-01), Mark Amodei (NV-02), Susie Lee (NV-03) and Steven Horsford (NV-04) to discuss how they are embracing bipartisanship to advance Nevadan priorities in the Capitol. Our production teams also took home multiple Emmys and Telly Awards for our locally-produced content.

We continue working with the Clark County School District to record shows like the CCSD Spelling Bee, school board meetings, Varsity Quiz and the Inside Education student holiday performances featuring some of the best choirs and bands in the Clark County School District.

So what’s ahead in 2020 for the Vegas PBS Production Department? Well, I am happy to announce that the new season of Outdoor Nevada is on its way! The team is gearing up to follow our host John Burke as he takes on new adventures across the state. Make sure to follow Vegas PBS’ social media accounts to get a behind the scenes look at the crew as they record new episodes for a release in late 2020.

Also in 2020, we are looking forward to airing the documentary, The Showgirl: A Las Vegas Icon. The story begins in the 1950s, when a fantastically feathered, jewel-covered performer first came to Las Vegas from Paris. The documentary includes the five successful decades she spent on Las Vegas stages, as well as her status today within the city’s ever-changing entertainment landscape.

Look for these shows as well as others in our lineup for our upcoming 2020 season. And as always, we wish you a wonderful year ahead and appreciate your continued support.
The Rhythm and Roots of Arthur
January 20 at 8 a.m.
This new one-hour special features everyone’s favorite aardvark! When Arthur’s family and Buster take a trip to the Read family farm, they learn about traditions and what it truly means to be a family. The special then repeats throughout the week of January 20.

Xavier Riddle and the Secret Museum
Weekdays at 9 a.m.
Four new episodes of this inspiring series will premiere the week of January 20, beginning with a story featuring Jackie Robinson on Martin Luther King Jr. Day. The series teaches kids that everyone can do remarkable things! Follow the adventures of three children as they enter a “secret museum” and travel back in time to meet real life heroes from the past, when the heroes were kids.
Thank you to our Charlotte Hill Society donors for supporting Vegas PBS throughout 2019. Your collective commitment to public service television allows Southern Nevadans to experience content that educates, engages and inspires. Thank you for uplifting our community.

Antiques Roadshow: Winterthur Museum, Garden & Library Hour 1

Monday, January 6 at 8 p.m.

Experience an all-new season of exceptional items appraised at distinctive, historic venues across the country, with the premiere kicking off from the stunning grounds of Winterthur Museum, Garden & Library with a heartwarming valuation of a $125,000 family treasure. Almost 60 years ago, collector and horticulturist Henry Francis du Pont (1880–1969) opened his childhood home, Winterthur, to the public. Set amidst a 1,000-acre preserve of rolling meadows and woodlands in Delaware, it is the premier museum of American decorative arts, with an unparalleled collection of nearly 90,000 objects made or used in America between about 1640 and 1860. Repeats Saturdays at 4 p.m.

Hold the Sunset (Series Premiere)

Sundays at 6:30 p.m. beginning January 5

Plans for a blissful retirement go awry in this warmhearted romantic comedy. Alison Steadman heads a stellar cast alongside John Cleese, in his first BBC role since “Fawlty Towers.” Edith and Phil are retired and in love. And when she finally agrees to marry him, they’re all set to move to a place in the sun. But then Edith’s son Roger crashes back into their lives. Fifty going on 12, Roger has had a mid-life breakdown and left his wife, children and job. As Roger and a host of other unwanted visitors cause havoc around their house, Edith and Phil’s lives explode into farce. All they wanted was a quiet retirement filled with sea and sand. It’s just a shame about the son. Repeats at 5 p.m.

FRONTLINE: America’s Great Divide: From Obama to Trump
Monday and Tuesday, January 13 and 14 at 9 p.m.

Republicans and Democrats in the United States are more and more divided along ideological lines, resulting in political acrimony. In a special two-part investigation FRONTLINE delves into America’s increasingly bitter, divided and toxic politics. Part one traces how Barack Obama’s promise of unity collapsed as increasing racial, cultural and political divisions laid the groundwork for the rise of Donald Trump. Then part two examines how Donald Trump’s campaign exploited the country’s divisions and how his presidency has unleashed anger on both sides of the divide. Repeats next day at 2 a.m.

Expedition with Steve Backshall
Wednesday at 10 p.m. beginning January 15

This exciting new series journeys to the last unexplored places on Earth. Explorer and naturalist Steve Backshall incredible journeys and extreme physical challenges, encounters extraordinary wildlife and teams up with remarkable people along the way. From free-diving in under-ground river systems and descending deep into the caves of the Maya underworld, to kayaking Himalayan whitewater and scaling unclimbed Arctic peaks, these expeditions push Backshall and his expert crew to the limit. The premiere episode follows Steve into an Arabian desert canyon in Oman that no human has ever explored. Repeats Thursdays at 3:30 p.m.

Secrets of the Dead: Bombing Auschwitz

Tuesday, January 21 from 8 p.m. - Midnight

This evening of themed programming is in remembrance of the 75th anniversary of the liberation of Auschwitz that occurs on Monday, January 27.

Finding Your Roots: Beyond the Pale at 8 p.m.

Henry Louis Gates Jr. explores the Jewish heritages of actor Jeff Goldblum, radio host Terry Gross and comedian Marc Maron, uncovering previously unknown stories that show that each of these shares much more with their ancestors than a religious tradition.

Secrets of the Dead: Bombing Auschwitz at 9 p.m.

Join historians, survivors and experts as they consider one of the great moral dilemmas of the 20th century. Should the Allies have risked killing Auschwitz prisoners and bombed the camp to stop future atrocities?

FRONTLINE: The Last Survivors at 10 p.m.

As young children, they lived through “humanity’s darkest hour.” Now, over 70 years after World War II, hear the stories of some of the last remaining survivors of the Holocaust. Drawing on intimate interviews with victims and family members, the special presents a haunting look at how disturbing childhood experiences and unimaginable loss have impacted the daily lives and relationships of survivors — from survivor’s guilt, to crisis of faith, to second-generation trauma.

Remembering the Holocaust: Las Vegas Survivors Tell Their Stories at 11 p.m.

Between 1945 and 1952 more than 80,000 Holocaust survivors immigrated to the United States. Nearly 350 survivors live in the Las Vegas area. Though they survived the Holocaust, most have not escaped the pain. These are the recollections of Las Vegas who wanted to share their stories.

Country Music: The Sons and Daughters of America (1964-1968)

Friday, January 31 at 9 p.m.

This epic eight-part series by Ken Burns steps back in time and journeys through the compelling history of a truly American art form. In this episode, see how country music reflects a changing America, with Loretta Lynn speaking to women everywhere, Merle Haggard becoming "The Poet of the Common Man" and audiences looking beyond race to embrace Charlie Pride.

Ruby Ridge: American Experience

Tuesday, January 28 at 9 p.m.

Shortly before dawn on August 21, 1992, six heavily armed U.S. Marshals made their way up to the isolated mountaintop home of Randy and Vicki Weaver and their three children on Ruby Ridge in Northern Idaho. Charged with selling two illegal sawed-off shotguns to an undercover agent, Weaver had failed to appear in court. For months, the Weavers had been held up on their property with a cache of firearms and when federal agents crossed paths with members of the family, a firefight broke out. The standoff that mesmerized the nation would leave Weaver injured, his wife and son dead, and some convince that the federal government was out of control. Drawing upon eyewitness accounts, this is a riveting account of the event that helped give rise to the modern American militia movement.
In this Emmy Award-winning series, host Ming Tsai cooks a dish and invites a celebrity guest chef to cook something, improvising from items in his East-West pantry. In an all-new Season 17, Ming’s guests include French chef Jacques Pépin, king of fusion cooking Susur Lee, home cooking proponent Sara Moulton, Top Chef contestant and soul food-lover Carla Hall, and Israeli chef Avi Shemtov. Tonight, the premiere episode features guest Andrew Zimmerm, the man known for tracking the world’s most bizarre foods. Andrew cooks up a Shrimp Étouffée, and Ming follows that up with one of his favorites he makes at home: a Classic Salt and Pepper Head on Shrimp over served rice.

Legacy List with Matt Paxton (Series Premiere)
Sundays at 7:30 a.m. beginning January 12

This compelling new series is about our homes, the hidden treasures, heirlooms and the precious memories attached to those items. As Baby Boomers downsize their own homes or settle the estates of family members, they will discover the most important museum in the world is in their family home. Host Matt Paxton helps people downsize and transition to their next best lives. As a first step, he asks families to create a list of must-have items that they know are somewhere in the home which must be found, valued and saved before the movers come. The series will also delve into the stories of the house, the family and the surrounding region to peek into one family’s big, surprising and sometimes bitterweet life transition.
Secrets of the Six Wives
Sunday, January 19 from 9 a.m. – noon

Historian Dr. Lucy Worsley travels back in time to the Tudor Court of England’s Henry VIII to witness some of the most dramatic moments in the lives of his six wives. Combining drama based on eyewitness accounts and historical sources with Lucy’s own contemporary historical commentary, it is these women’s stories that Lucy sets out to uncover, witness and explore. This is followed by Secrets of Henry VIII’s Palace at noon. The film focuses on Hampton Court Palace, from its origin through today. It was originally built in 1529 for Cardinal Thomas Wolsey, a favorite of King Henry VIII, but as Wolsey fell from favor; the palace was passed to the King, who enlarged it. Along with St. James’s Palace, it is one of only two surviving palaces of the many owned by Henry VIII.

This stunning series takes an in-depth look at the fascinating stories and inner workings of four of Scotland’s most magnificent country estates, through the eyes of not only the current owners and the hilllires, gardeners, and housekeepers that keep them running, but also from the viewpoint of the paying guests who frequent these sumptuous country estates. Episodes include visits to Inveraray Castle, that has housed the Clan Campbell for more than 500 years; Dumfries House, boasting one of the largest collections of Chippendale furniture in the world; Kincardine Castle that was once merely a trifling extravagance to its wealthy owners, but now presents a passionate but ongoing struggle to keep it afloat; and Rosslyn Chapel, a mysterious Chapel rife with myth and legend, where some believe to be home to the Holy Grail.
We’re adding more lifestyle genres and creating program threads that will make finding viewer favorites even easier! From Fitness to Food, Weekly Showcases to Hometown Create, we will have something for everyone! Responding to reviews of what viewers most watch, we’ve created special programming streams for personalities like Rick Steves and Bob Ross. While Food and Travel weave through every day, Arts & Crafts content will now air in at least three different time slots. Weekend Create Marathons will now be five-hour Create Weekly Showcase blocks each Friday, Saturday and Sunday, and will repeat during the week. And, because we know we have “weekend warriors” who look for special content, we have dedicated spots for subjects like fitness, gardening and home improvement. Let Create help you find your passion in 2020!

WORLDVIEW SPOTLIGHT

Banking District

Thursdays at 8 p.m. beginning January 16

This new foreign thriller is about power struggles, intrigue and secrets in a 300-year-old, family-run Swiss bank. Elisabeth (Laura Sepul) doesn’t want to be in the family banking business, but when her brother Paul collapses and slips into a coma — diabetes? drugs? foul play? — she feels she needs to follow the ominous contingency plans he put in place. This Swiss series teases out both seedy financial sagas and potent sibling squabbling à la “Succession.” In French, with English subtitles. Repeats same days at 11 p.m.

JACKPOT! SPOTLIGHT

Mark Twain’s Journey to Jerusalem: Dreamland

Thursday, January 9 at 9:30 p.m.

This special retraces Mark Twain’s footsteps as a cub reporter on a bold adventure sailing around the Mediterranean and throughout Europe in 1867, with Jerusalem and the Holy Land as his ultimate destination. Narrated by Martin Sheen, the documentary reveals Twain’s deep rooted and complex relationship with religion. Having regularly attended church services as a child with his devoutly Christian mother, his childhood imaginings of the Holy Land are confronted with a vastly different reality; the monuments, cities and landscapes aren’t as grand as the Scriptures led him to believe. He also finds himself disillusioned by the poverty and squalor he witnesses beneath the “splendor” of European culture. The film chronicles Mark Twain’s exploits and establishes Twain as the voice of America — funny, sarcastic and powerfully opinionated.

REWIND SPOTLIGHT

NATURE: Wild Way of the Vikings

Friday, January 24 at 8 p.m.

Experience the natural world through the eyes of the Vikings, when nature meets history in a journey showcasing the wildlife of the North Atlantic. Combining blue-chip natural history filmmaking and dramatic recreations, the film travels from Norway to Newfoundland, just as the seafaring warriors did in 1,000 A.D., to get a glimpse of the Vikings’ world in the Americas hundreds of years before Columbus. Witness the deep history and cultural respect the Vikings had for the land and sea, from the penguins and otters of the Scottish coast to the vast herds of reindeer in Norway to the eider duck farms of Iceland. Discover how the Vikings practiced the true spirit of the Wild Way of the Vikings: take everything that you need from nature, but value it for as long as you can.
