March is an exciting month at Vegas PBS. With Spring comes one of our strongest programming lineups, our spring membership campaign, and a celebration of the vital role women have played in American history during Women’s History Month. From highlighting politicians to entertainers, to activists, and professionals we are bringing you incredible programs that shine a spotlight on some of our country’s greatest women.

In March, our Women’s History Month programming highlights and celebrates inspirational women leaders who left indelible marks on the world. On March 19 at 10 p.m., Great Performances: Ann brings award-winning actor Holland Taylor to the stage as the legendary Texas governor, Ann Richards, a role that earned Taylor a Tony Award nomination. Then two beloved performers are celebrated on Vegas PBS with Betty White: First Lady of Television airing Monday, March 29 at 10 p.m. and Carol Burnett: A Celebration airing Monday, March 29 at 11 p.m. Don’t miss these Women’s History Month themed programs and others. You can find more programs throughout this magazine.

The beloved series Downton Abbey on Masterpiece is returning to Vegas PBS! In addition to the series returning to your television screens, that means all members will be able to stream the entire series using Vegas PBS Passport, giving you digital access on our website and on the PBS Video App. To watch in the more traditional manner, tune in to Vegas PBS Channel 10 with parts 1-4 of Season 1 airing March 7 and 14 from 6:30 p.m. to 10:30 p.m. I am a true Downton fan and hope you are as excited as I am by the Crawleys return to their original home on Vegas PBS!

Our membership campaigns are vital to keeping your favorites programs on the air. In addition to the return of Downton Abbey, we are excited to bring some of the best of television, from arts to health to insightful documentaries. Dolly Parton & Friends: 50 Years at the Opry, airing Monday, March 1 at 8 p.m., celebrates the country music legend’s half-century as a member of the famous Grand Ole Opry. And we don’t stop at country music! Tower of Power: 50 Years of Funk and Soul, airing Saturday, March 6 at 10:30 p.m., lets you groove to the signature sounds of the iconic soul-fun R&B group that has provided the soundtrack for generations. On Tuesday, March 9 at 8 p.m., Henry Louis Gates, Jr.: Uncovering America celebrates the life and work of the Emmy Award-winning filmmaker, scholar and good friend of PBS.

“Your generous donations during our membership campaigns allow us to broadcast a wide range of spectacular programs.”

Your generous donations during our membership campaigns allow us to broadcast a wide range of spectacular programs. With so many productions closed or slowed down because of COVID-19, we are still able to leverage your gifts to bring new and exciting series and shows to your homes this month. Thank you for making this possible, and I sincerely hope you enjoy the show!

All the best,
Mary Mazur

Little Women on Masterpiece

March 28 from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m.

Loved by generations of people worldwide, this is a truly universal coming of age story, as relevant and engaging today as it was on its original publication in 1868. Set against the backdrop of the Civil War, the story follows sisters Jo, Meg, Beth and Amy March on their journey from childhood to adulthood. With the help of their mother, Marmee, and while their father is away at war, the girls navigate what it means to be a young woman: from sibling rivalry and first love, to loss and marriage. (Also scheduled Tuesday, March 16 from 2:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.)

---

Endeavour Season 6 on Masterpiece: Confection

March 28 at 6:30 p.m.

Shaun Evans sports a new look as DS Endeavour Morse in Season 6 of the detective drama Endeavour, the popular prequel to the long-running Inspector Morse series. This episode, a triple murder exposes the secrets of a village in the grip of deadly rumors.

Saturdays

(Returning to the schedule March 20)

Midsomer Murders at 7 p.m.

NEW EPISODES!

(Two back-to-back episodes)

A wealthy landowner’s body goes missing in this season premiere of the loved drama starring Neil Dudgeon as DCI John Barnaby.

Death in Paradise at 9:00 p.m.

(Starts from the beginning)

When a British cop is found murdered in a locked room on the tiny paradise island of Saint-Marie, Detective Inspector Richard Poole is sent to investigate. He’s the perfect man to solve the case — if only he didn’t just hate sun, sea and sand.
Rick Steves'
Fascism in Europe
Friday, March 5 at 8:30 p.m.
Rick Steves travels back a century to learn how fascism rose and then fell in Europe — taking millions of people with it. (Repeats Sunday, March 14 at 2 p.m.)

Finding Your Roots:
The Vanguard
Tuesday, March 16 at 8 p.m.
In this episode, author Ta-Nehisi Coates, filmmaker Ava DuVernay and author and activist Janet Mock see their basic assumptions about their families challenged, placing their ancestors — of all colors — into the greater context of black history. (Repeats Wednesday, March 17 at 2:30 p.m.)

Finding Your Roots:
Reporting on the Reporters
Tuesday, March 16 at 9 p.m.
Henry Louis Gates, Jr., shows journalists Christiane Amanpour, Ann Curry and Lisa Ling that the stories within their own family trees are every bit as compelling as the news stories they have been covering for the world. (Repeats Wednesday, March 17 at 3:30 p.m.)

Baseball (by Ken Burns)
Sundays at 9 a.m. beginning March 21
Join Ken Burns for the classic baseball stories from the Great Depression through the 1950s, from Joe DiMaggio and Satchel Paige to Ted Williams and Jackie Robinson, to Willie Mays and Don Larsen. (See page 26 for more details.)

The Blinding of Isaac Woodard:
American Experience
Tuesday, March 30 at 9 p.m.
In 1946, Isaac Woodard, a Black army sergeant on his way home to South Carolina after serving in WWII, was taken off a Greyhound bus after a heated exchange with the driver, who refused to let him get off to use the restroom. He was then savagely beaten by the local police chief who was later acquitted by an all-white jury. This injustice changed the course of history and ultimately jump-started the civil rights movement.

American Masters: Flannery
Tuesday, March 23 at 8 p.m.
Explore the life of Flannery O’Connor whose provocative fiction was unlike anything published before. Featuring never-before-seen archival footage, newly discovered journals and interviews with Mary Karr, Tommy Lee Jones, Hilton Als and more.

Great Performances: Movies for Grownups with AARP The Magazine

Sunday, March 28 at 8 p.m.

Watch actors and filmmakers as they are honored for creating films that resonate with older viewers in this star-studded awards ceremony. The AARP Movies for Grownups multimedia franchise was established in 2002 to celebrate and encourage filmmaking with unique appeal to movie lovers with a grownup state of mind — and recognize the inspiring artists who make them.

"The Movies for Grownups Awards bestow recognition on the outstanding performances of experienced talent and on the year’s best films that resonate with a mature audience,” said Heather Nawrocki, AARP vice president and director of Movies for Grownups. “We are thrilled to once again work with Great Performances and bring this showcase of talent to the PBS audience.”

Baseball
(by Ken Burns)
Sundays at 9 a.m.
beginning March 21

The story of baseball is the story of America. It is an epic tale overflowing with heroes and hopefuls, scoundrels and screwballs. It is a saga spanning the quest for racial justice, the clash of labor and management, the transformation of popular culture and the unfolding of the national pastime. Join Ken Burns for the classic baseball stories from the Great Depression through the 1950s, from Joe DiMaggio and Satchel Paige to Ted Williams and Jackie Robinson, to Willie Mays and Don Larsen.

OUR PICKS FOR MARCH 20-28

Midsomer Murders Season 15
Mini-marathons

Sundays, March 21 and 28 at 11 a.m.

Based on the popular novels of Caroline Graham, this gripping series features gruesome, albeit inventive, goings-on in the picturesque county of Midsomer. This season, DCI John Barnaby (Neil Dudgeon) and DS Benjamin Jones (Jason Hughes) investigate an arson attack, a killer hunk of cheese and more.

Don't miss brand new episodes of Midsomer Murders Season 18 beginning Saturday, March 20 at 7:30 p.m.!
Ireland: County By County
Monday through Thursday March 15, 16, 17 and 18 at 9 p.m.
Part travelogue and part historical culinary tour, this exclusive Create showcase goes county by county to reveal the best of Ireland: from the broad golden shores of Sligo and the rolling green hills of Antrim to the misty mountaintops of Kerry and the bustling excitement of Dublin. (Also airs Saturdays, March 20 and 27 at 6:30 p.m.)

It’s Sew Easy Season 20
Saturday, March 20 from 1 p.m.
It’s Sew Easy puts a new spin on sewing. Sewing and design experts from across the country, including Angela Wolf, use time-honored techniques together with the latest sewing tools and technology to create today’s hottest fashions and home décor. They reveal tips and techniques for garment construction, fabric selection, fit, couture details and more. The projects are easy enough for beginners but creatively challenging to pique the interest of all sewing enthusiasts.

Let’s Go, Minnesota! (Hometown Create)
Beginning Monday, March 1 at 10 a.m.
Join host Brenda Piekarski as she leads a team of adventurers down rivers, up cliffs and across prairies. Hiking, biking, climbing and paddling are just a few ways we enjoy the outdoors. And because we include an artist on every adventure, you will get to look at nature through a creative lens as well.

Woodsmith Shop Season 14
Beginning Thursday, March 11 at 8:30 a.m.
Experienced woodworkers Phil Huber, Chris Fitch and Logan Wittmer share the inside story of how a successful project goes from first sketch to final assembly. Roundtable discussions explore a wide range of topics to help people set up and enjoy spending time in their woodworking shop.

PBS KIDS presents a week of new Elinor Wonders Why episodes beginning March 1 at 10:30 a.m. It is a week full of discovery as Elinor, Ari and Olive learn how butterflies drink nectar, why fish don’t freeze in the winter and how some owls make their home in the desert. PBS KIDS celebrates spring with the hourlong special, Curious George Swings Into Spring at, 9 a.m. on March 22 and 26.
REWIND SPOTLIGHT

It’s Sew Easy
Saturdays at 4 p.m.

Enjoy a new spin on sewing. Sewing and design experts from across the country, including Angela Wolf, use time-honored techniques together with the latest sewing tools and technology to create today’s hottest fashions and home décor. They reveal tips and techniques for garment construction, fabric selection, fit and couture details, and more. The projects are easy enough for beginners but creatively challenging to pique the interest of all sewing enthusiasts.

JACKPOT! SPOTLIGHT

Native Report
Wednesdays at 10 p.m.
beginning March 10

Don’t miss this entertaining, informative magazine style series that celebrates Native American culture and heritage, listens to tribal elders, and talks to some of the most powerful and influential leaders of Indian Country today.

The series is attractive to both a general and tribal audience, promoting understanding between cultures, tribes and reservations — offering a venue for the stories of challenge and success coming from tribal communities — and educating public television viewers about the culture and traditions of native citizens.

WORLD SPOTLIGHT

Can’t-Miss Stories from the Stage on Monday, March 8
at 6 p.m.

When’s the last time you heard a story so moving that you had to tell it to everyone you know?

Can’t-Miss Stories from the Stage illustrates the power of real stories told by masterful storytellers. Gather the family to enjoy this special which features all-time favorites, including a hilarious account of trying to satisfy his pregnant wife’s cravings by award-winning author Gastor Almonte; the donation of a kidney to a stranger by Christine Gentry; how “Mr. Rogers’ Neighborhood” helps a young and lonely Cindy Putnam find a sense of belonging; and more.
