PLAN. LAUNCH. MANAGE. GROW.

“Never before has it been so important to have a solid banking relationship with a bank that truly cares about its customers! My company, Better Lunch, provides made from scratch meals to schools throughout Las Vegas. When COVID-19 struck my revenue dropped 90%. Meadows Bank quickly stepped in to assist me with processing the PPP loan, which was processed in record time thanks to their proactive team.”

Stephanie Springel
Owner, Better Lunch

Our team of dedicated SBA experts digs in to discover your needs with a ‘Get it Done’ attitude that offers long-term, low-cost financing options. Because we know you, we know it’s not just a loan...it’s your business. For Meadows Bank, that makes it personal.
An Exciting Fall Season Ahead

As the seasons begin to turn, we look forward to getting outside to enjoy the many outdoor adventures Nevada has to offer. Just in time for this, we bring you ten new episodes of Outdoor Nevada. Season 5 promises to take viewers to some of Nevada’s finest and most breathtaking outdoor destinations. Premiering on Wednesday, September 15, at 7:30 p.m., host John Burke visits Lamoille Canyon in the Ruby Mountains, the Big Dunes in Amargosa Valley, the Cowboy Arts & Gear Museum in Elko and much more. If you missed Season 4, we are giving you a chance to catch up on missed episodes, with an Outdoor Nevada Season 4 Marathon, on Sunday, September 12, beginning at 8 a.m. During the marathon, we have a special thank you offer for outdoor enthusiasts looking to get their hands on exclusive swag items from the show.

‘Styles make fights,’ as the adage goes, and this month we will certainly enjoy “The Greatest” of styles with the national premiere of Ken Burns’ latest film Muhammad Ali. This four-part documentary brings to life one of the most iconic figures of the 20th century. Ali, a three-time heavyweight-boxing champion, became an inspiration to people everywhere — he captivated fans with his combination of speed, agility and power in the ring, and his charm, wit and outspokenness outside of it. Watch the film from Sunday, September 19 to Wednesday, September 22, at 8 p.m. Ali’s contributions in and out of the ring have made a significant impact on Las Vegas history. Our local production team captured this spirit in Ali: Las Vegas Legacy — a five-part digital series that explores how Ali’s influence paved the way for long-lasting changes in the boxing industry in Las Vegas. This digital only series will be available starting on September 12, on our website at vegaspbs.org/ali and on our YouTube channel, youtube.com/vegaspbs.

One of the best parts about being a Vegas PBS member is your access to Vegas PBS Passport, our on-demand library for the best of PBS. Starting this month, our partners at American Public Television are making available hundreds of episodes, from their fan-favorite shows, for streaming on Vegas PBS Passport including Rick Steves’ Europe Awaits, Lidia’s Kitchen, America’s Test Kitchen/Cook’s Country, The Best of the Joy of Painting with Bob Ross and many more. There has not been a better time to activate your Vegas PBS Passport access. If you need support activating your account or downloading the PBS Video app on your mobile device or SmartTV, reach out to membership@vegaspbs.org for assistance.

Bringing this month to a close is one of our favorite family friendly events. Presented by the Howard Hughes Corporation, Be My Neighbor Day is happening on Sunday, September 26, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at The Lawn at Downtown Summerlin. Attendees can participate in free activities, explore first-responder vehicles, and see PBS KIDS stars Daniel Tiger and Katerina Kittycat onstage. For details and to RSVP visit vegaspbs.org/bemyneighborday.

The National Parks:
America's Best Idea
(a 6-part film by Ken Burns)
Wednesdays at 3:30 p.m.

Discover the history of the U.S. National Parks system, including the initial ideas which led to the world's first national parks and the expansion of the system over 150 years. (Repeats Sundays at 9:30 a.m., except September 12 and 26)

The Scripture of Nature
(1851-1890, Part 1) September 1

Follow a study of the first ideas which led to the establishment of America's national parks, with an emphasis on the work of John Muir and the exploration and preservation of Yosemite and Yellowstone.

The Last Refuge (1890-1915, Part 2) September 8, at 2:30 p.m.

Americans begin to question the nation's rush across the continent that has devastated forests and ravaged animals. Conservation's greatest champion is Theodore Roosevelt, who audaciously sets aside 800,000 acres of the Grand Canyon.

The Empire of Grandeur
(1915-1919, Part 3) September 15

Stephen Mather accepts the offer to oversee the national parks for one year. He launches a campaign to publicize the parks as a unified system and to persuade Congress to create a single agency to oversee it: the National Park Service.

Going Home (1920-1933, Part 4) September 22

Mather and Albright ally themselves with the automobile to “democratize” the national parks. Horace Kephart and George Masa launch a campaign to save the forests of the Smoky Mountains from destruction by establishing a national park.

Great Nature (1933-1945, Part 5) September 29

Franklin D. Roosevelt enters battles to create national parks on the Olympic Peninsula, Florida's Everglades and California's High Sierra. George Melendez Wright begins arguing that the parks are not doing enough to protect wildlife.

Outdoor Nevada Season 5
Wednesdays at 7:30 p.m. beginning September 15

Previous seasons featured Sundays at 8 a.m. and 8:30 a.m. Leading into the new season, we'll revisit Season 4 from start to finish, with a marathon of stacked episodes on Sunday, September 12 from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Close on the heels of a moving and exciting fourth season, which featured the historic Pioneer Saloon, the Hoover Dam and Gold Butte National Monument to name a few, Season 5 promises to take viewers to some of Nevada's finest and most breathtaking outdoor destinations. The series will visit Lamoille Canyon in the Ruby Mountains, the Cowboy Arts & Gear Museum in Elko, the Kit Carson Trail, the Big Dunes in Amargosa Valley and many more one-of-a-kind adventures available to everyone. Hosted by John Burke, Outdoor Nevada is a showcase of Nevada's ideal climate and varied environments that provide endless inspiration for exciting outdoor adventures. (Repeats Saturdays at 3 p.m.)

Cities of the Sky (Part 3)
September 7
Discover some of America’s ancient cities, including a lost city on the Mississippi River. Plus, a group of native elders reveal ancient powers of the sky.

New World Rising (Part 4)
September 14
Take a look at prime examples of survival, revival and resistance that have been revealed through secret messages in Aztec manuscripts, horse-mounted Comanche warriors and a grass bridge in the Andes.

Lucy Worsley’s Royal Myths & Secrets
Sundays at 8 p.m.
Join Lucy Worsley on a journey across Europe to visit the incredible locations where royal history was made. From the Spanish Armada to the French Revolution, learn how royal history is a mixture of facts, exaggeration, manipulation and mythology.

Kings George III and IV & The Napoleonic War
September 5
Learn how mental health problems forced King George III to relinquish power to his debauched and extravagant son.

The Romanovs and The Russian Revolution
September 12
The October Revolution of 1917 has gone down in history as the only Russian Revolution that really mattered. But Lucy Worsley reveals that the earlier revolution in February of the same year was downplayed. (Repeats Friday, September 17 at 11 p.m.)

Extinction: The Facts
Tuesday, September 14 at 9 p.m.
With a million species at risk of extinction, Sir David Attenborough explores how this crisis of biodiversity has consequences for us all — threatening food and water security, undermining our ability to control our climate and even putting us at greater risk of pandemic diseases.

The Queen’s Garden
Sunday, September 26 at 8 p.m.
Explore the history and natural history of Buckingham Palace Garden, a royal treasure in the heart of London.

Citizen Hearst: An American Experience Special (2-parts)
Monday and Tuesday, September 27 and 28 at 9 p.m.
The model for Orson Welles’s “Citizen Kane,” William Randolph Hearst controlled a vast media empire that transformed the media’s role in American life and politics.

team reveals the secret history of two decades defined by what happened on that Tuesday in September. Drawing on new interviews and one of the richest archives in television, we find out how the choices made after the attacks reshaped our world and our democracy.

(Repeats Friday, September 10 at 9 p.m. and Sunday, September 12 at 1 p.m.)

9/11 Inside the Pentagon
Tuesday, September 7 at 11 p.m.

Over the past 15 years, we have seen the Towers fall in a series of powerful documentaries and TV shows. Movies have expertly rendered the courage of first responders and the passenger takeover on United Flight 93. But, in the smoke of 9/11, one story still remains largely overlooked: the attack on the Pentagon. (Repeats Friday, September 10 at 11 p.m.)

Great Performances: Verdi’s Requiem: The Met Remembers 9/11

Our Picks for September 9-16

FRONTLINE: America After 9/11
Friday, September 10 at 9 p.m.
Filmmaker Michael Kirk investigates 9/11 and how the American response changed everything. From wars in Afghanistan and Iraq to torture, secret prisons, domestic surveillance and covert black ops, FRONTLINE’s investigative team reveals the secret history of two decades defined by what happened on that Tuesday in September. Drawing on new interviews and one of the richest archives in television, the choices made after the attacks reshaped our world and our democracy. (Repeats Sunday, September 12 at 1 p.m.)

Outdoor Nevada Season 5
Wednesday, September 15 at 7:30 p.m.
Close on the heels of a moving and exciting fourth season, Season 5 promises to take viewers to some of Nevada’s finest and most breathtaking outdoor destinations. In this series we visit Lamoille Canyon in the Ruby Mountains, the Cowboy Arts & Gear Museum in Elko, the Kit Carson Trail, the Big Dunes in Amargosa Valley and many more one-of-a-kind adventures available to everyone. Hosted by John Burke, Outdoor Nevada showcases Nevada’s ideal climate and varied environments that provide endless inspiration for exciting outdoor adventures. Whether it’s horseback riding in Red Rock Canyon, riding on a seaplane at Lake Tahoe or land sailing outside of Las Vegas, come along to see the places and meet the people that make Nevada unique and fascinating. (Repeats Saturday, September 18 at 3 p.m.)

In Their Own Words: Elon Musk

Hear the inspiring story of a long-shot outsider who fought his way to the top office in the world, beat the odds against him again and again and never looked back in his quest to better the lives of millions.

Elon Musk

Wednesday, September 29 at 8 p.m.

Elon Musk was a multi-millionaire by the time he reached the age of 31. He is one of a new breed of what the New York Times called “thrillionaires,” high-tech entrepreneurs who are using their newfound wealth to help turn science-fiction dreams into reality. His story is about a thrilling 21st century “Iron Man” come alive. (Repeats at 11 p.m.)
Outside: Beyond the Lens
Saturdays at 8:30 a.m. beginning September 4

Jeff Aiello and his Emmy® Award-winning camera crew tell the stories of travel cinematically. They explore national parks and scenic wonders from Queenstown, New Zealand, to Tornado Alley, Texas to the Alaskan wilderness, celebrating the art of photography by documenting how scenic shots are caught on film. But beyond the lens, Jeff and his team also discover the real magic of travel in the people, food and unplanned adventures on each trip.

OUR PICKS FOR SEPTEMBER 4-12

Christopher Kimball’s Milk Street
Season 5 debuts Saturday, September 11 at noon

Host Chris Kimball and his team of cooks and editors search the world over for techniques and ingredients that can transform the way America cooks and eats. Each episode gives viewers the chance to meet cooks in different countries and see how their sources of inspiration result in a new style of home cooking. Viewers can also learn techniques to produce bigger, bolder, simpler dishes with less time and effort.

A Fine Line: A Woman’s Place Is in the Kitchen

National Cooking Day
Saturday, September 25 at 3 p.m.

Why are less than 7% of head chefs and restaurant owners women when traditionally women have always held the central role in the kitchen? Hear candid insights from world-renowned chefs and follow a small-town restaurateur and single mother on a mission to do what she loves while raising two kids with the odds stacked against her. This story tackles important issues such as paid parental leave, affordable childcare and fair wages.
Why We Support Vegas PBS...

You may know me as the Downton Abbey on Masterpiece sponsor, but I prefer to be remembered for sponsoring the VEGAS PBS KIDS Writers Contest. I started as a co-sponsor of this annual contest and have been the sole sponsor for many years now. My original ten year endowment gift has increased to twenty years.

I myself began writing as a child, which led to a fulfilling career in journalism. Starting as a full time reporter in Ohio, I progressed to the Las Vegas Evening Review-Journal in 1948 and then became a national magazine writer for many years. Because of this, I understand the power of the written word and the impact it can have on a young person’s creativity.

It is absolutely remarkable that the televised production of the VEGAS PBS KIDS Writers Contest has won an Emmy® Award. Vegas PBS President Mary Mazur and her team recently presented me the statuette, which I treasure as a token of Vegas PBS’ value to our community.

I love sponsoring Vegas PBS shows such as Downton Abbey on Masterpiece, Victoria on Masterpiece and many more. If you are able, I encourage you to sponsor your favorite show as well.

Sincerely,
Janice Haupt Allen
Charlotte Hill Society and Silver Legacy Society Member
