In an era of diverse and compelling television content, Vegas PBS continues to shine with an exceptional lineup of programs that captivate and inspire audiences of all backgrounds. From crime-solving dramas to enlightening documentaries, on air, streaming live on our website, and via Passport, we consistently strive to deliver top-notch entertainment that broadens perspectives.

“As we celebrate the power of storytelling and the human experience, these programs stand as prime examples of our commitment to presenting diverse and thought-provoking content.”

Hispanic Heritage Month begins Friday, September 15. We're proud to present a schedule that celebrates the rich tapestry of Hispanic heritage and culture. I am particularly looking forward to Becoming Frida Kahlo. This is a new three-part series that will strip away the myths to reveal the real Frida — a passionate and brilliant artist living through extraordinary times. The program airs on Tuesdays, September 19, 26 and October 3 at 9 p.m. Also of note is the American Masters on Friday, September 29 at 9 p.m. This inspiring event showcases the resilience, artistry and achievements of the Hispanic community. Right after, don't miss A Song for Cesar: America Masters on Friday, September 29 at 10 p.m. This poignant film delves into the life and legacy of a man who fought tirelessly for the rights of farmworkers, leaving an indelible mark on the struggle for justice and equality.

This fall, prepare yourself for some of the best drama on television. We have three premieres on Sunday, September 3. At 8 p.m. it's Professor T. Professor Tempest and the team untangle a series of knotty crimes utilizing the professor's unconventional methods. Then at 9 p.m. we keep the drama going with Unforgotten on MASTERPIECE. DI Sunny Khan's team is back to work, starting with the discovery of human remains in a newly renovated period property. Is this a murder dating back to the 1930s or has the body been disposed of in more recent times? Finally, at 10 p.m., Van der Valk on MASTERPIECE returns. Set in the picturesque streets of Amsterdam, the show follows Detective Piet Van der Valk as he unravels complex cases with a brilliant and unyielding mind.

I'm excited to share that America Outdoors with Baratunde Thurston returns for a second season on Wednesday, September 6 at 9 p.m. New episodes will take viewers along for some unique experiences of the outdoors, including a hands-on study of endangered snapping turtles in the Suwannee River, paragliding above the Great Salt Lake to document its vanishing act and farming oysters in Maine the old-fashioned way.

And don't forget! Be My Neighbor Day is on Saturday, October 7 at The Lawn at Downtown Summerlin! This community-focused day of kindness features a variety of vendors, activities and appearances from beloved PBS KIDS characters Daniel Tiger and Katerina Kittycat! For more information, visit vegaspbs.org/bemyneighborday

As we celebrate the power of storytelling and the human experience, these programs stand as prime examples of our commitment to presenting diverse and thought-provoking content. So, I invite you to tune in as we explore the triumphs, struggles, and moments of beauty that define the unifying power of storytelling. Thank you for your support.

All the best,
Mare Mazur
Too many banks see you as just a number. You can feel it in the kind of services you get. Fortunately, there’s a local bank that does it differently. Meadows Bank gets to know you by name. 9/11 Inside the Pentagon
Monday, September 11 at 11 p.m.
In the past 15 years, we have seen the Towers fall in a series of powerful documentaries and TV shows, but in the smoke of 9/11, one story still remains largely overlooked: the attack on the Pentagon.

Our Picks for September 9-16

POV: While We Watched
Sunday, September 10 at 11 p.m.
Follow tormented Ravish Kumar for two years as he battles a barrage of “fake news,” falling ratings and the resulting cutbacks.

The sometimes heartwarming, often hilarious fish-out-of-water story of young veterinarian James Herriot will sweep you away to the breathtaking beauty of the Yorkshire Dales in England. But at the foundation of the show, beneath the delightful antics and the great romance — of the sort that we long for to comfort us and brace us in both good and troubling times.
Jews of the Wild West

Western Jewish pioneers, those of the silver screen and real life, are a largely forgotten chapter in U.S. History. And yet, they played a definitive role in shaping the expansion of the United States.
Host J Schwanke, “The Flower Guy,” returns with a new season of his popular lifestyle series. J’s signature presentation style empowers viewers to enjoy a lifestyle arranged around flowers, with simple techniques that ensure success. In season five, J’s love of flowers guides viewers to relax with flowers and enjoy the health and wellness benefits that accompany a flower lifestyle.
Monet’s Palate - A Gastronomic View from the Gardens of Giverny
Sunday, September 17 at 2 p.m.

Claude Monet’s passions extended far beyond the water lilies, sunsets and landscapes of his legendary paintings. Connecting the painter’s love of art and his profound appreciation for food, we embark on a culinary tour of Normandy, where Monet lived and worked in the late 19th and early 20th centuries. Shot entirely on location in Paris, London and Giverny, the production includes footage taken inside Monet’s home. Some of the world’s greatest chefs, including Roger Vergé, Alice Waters and Daniel Boulud, also prepare a few of Monet’s favorite meals and discuss Monet’s passion for art and fine cuisine.
