NONCOMMERCIAL BROADCASTING

Our sponsorships deliver benefits that are quite different than commercial media:

- Vegas PBS programs have much less “message clutter” than on other broadcast or cable programming. Only 2:15 of every hour is spent on messaging — compared with up to 20 minutes per hour on commercial TV! It’s one reason why viewers can easily recall our sponsor messages.
- Programs air without commercial interruption, which keeps viewers engaged. Since sponsor messages air only at the beginning and end of programs, viewers are less likely to change channels and more likely to see your message.
- We offer highly targeted marketing opportunities through our unique and diverse programming lineup.
- Sponsorship prices are reasonable, paperwork is minimal and production fees are usually included at no extra cost.
- Your competitors won’t be next to you in a program, since our sponsors always receive category exclusivity — further enhancing the effectiveness of your message.
- Sponsorships build community goodwill, since supporters of Vegas PBS programming are seen as providing an important service to the community. Two out of three respondents would choose to buy from a company that supports PBS. It’s another benefit of the “Halo Effect.”
