Send along a lunchbox note
1. Cut notes along lines to separate.
2. Add your own message in the box.
3. Place one note in your kid’s lunch each day.

You’re the best thing since sliced bread.

Love you a bunch!

You’re one in a melon!

Roses are red. Violets are blue. Eat your lunch, if you know what’s “grape” for you!

Happy to the sweetest apple in the bunch!
Q: What's a mathematician's favorite desert?
A: Pi.

Today will bee awesome!

You’re kind of a big dill!

Olive you from my head tomatoes!

Shine Bright and Be Kind!
Q: What fruit is most even?
A: A pear.

Q: Why was 6 afraid of 7?
A: Because 7 ate 9!

You’re a super kid!
Spread your kindness powers today!

You’re wonderful!
Tell a lunch buddy something kind today!

Have a wonderful day today!
I can’t wait to TACO ‘bout it!

Have a sweet day!
Send along a lunchbox note
1. Cut notes along lines to separate.
2. Add your own message in the box.
3. Place one note in your kid’s lunch each day.

Pinkalicious & Peterpnic
I hope your day is Pinkamazing!

Activate lunch power! Have a Grr-ific day!

It’s you I like!
Hee-haw! You can do BIG things!

Follow your curiosity today!

Use your Superpowers of Science!

Have a wonderful kind of day!

Odd Squad needs YOU to have a great day!

You can change the world!
Send along a lunchbox note

1. Cut notes along lines to separate.
2. Add your own message in the box.
3. Place one note in your kid’s lunch each day.

Help your little one learn the names of the foods they eat.

Carrot
Cookie
Banana
Bread
Milk