How long have you been a board member for SHPBS?

3 years. Joined in JAN of 2020, so I'm starting my 4th year.

Our regional commitment to children's education.

What is your favorite thing about being involved with the station?

This is a tie ... I enjoy learning about our business (SHPBS) and about the people that serve and drive progress forward.

What is a fun fact about you?

I love watching Asian martial arts movies.

Who/what inspired you most to get involved with a nonprofit such as Smoky Hills PBS?

My mom ... she imprinted upon me the value of serving your community and she was involved with Smoky Hills PBS during the 80's and 90's.

Thinking about the future, where do you hope to see the station in 5 years?

Continuing to provide our region with children's education and value-driven regional content ... while being financially stable and fiscally responsible.

NOVA, hands-down, NOVA! This program invigorated and drove my passion for science at a young age.

Who is your favorite PBS KIDS character?

Big Bird, he is such an endearing character.

As a child, what was your favorite PBS show?

Initially, Sesame Street and The Electric Company, but as I got a little older, 3-2-1 Contact became my favorite PBS KIDS program.
