NEW Season of The Kansas Legislature

BUNKER HILL, KS – Another LIVE production from Smoky Hills PBS, The Kansas Legislature, will kick off Friday, February 4 at 7 PM. Streaming will also be available on our YouTube channel:

The show airs during the legislative session, which gives the legislators and viewers the opportunity to discuss up-to-date issues. For each show, legislators from the Smoky Hills PBS viewing area are invited to participate in the live call-in program, and viewers are encouraged to call in with their legislative questions.

"The Kansas Legislature is one of the longest running series on Smoky Hills PBS," said Les Kinderknecht, Senior Producer/Director of Smoky Hills PBS. "We are excited to be able to bring it back once again for our viewers and our legislators."

Becky Kiser, News Reporter for Hays Post/Eagle Radio, has been named the moderator for the 2022 season of The Kansas Legislature. She will be joined by two or three legislators during each show.

To find a list of legislatures that might be on the show each week, go to our website, www.SmokyHillsPBS.org where you will find the 2022 season schedule.
