<td>Participation in events and programs sponsored by educational institutions relating to career opportunities in broadcasting</td>
<td>RMPM did not participate in in-person events during the 2021 COVID pandemic. However, RMPM partners with Fort Lewis College and Colorado Mesa to continuously teach and mentor career-seeking professionals in broadcasting via direct academic and/or programmatic initiatives. Carol Fleischer of the DEI team teaches Film at Fort Lewis College from which interns and supporters often come. Carrie McKee and Alex Forsett manage the relationship with Colorado Mesa University as our station continues to endeavor statewide initiatives.</td>

<tr>
<td>Community events to inform and educate the public as to broadcasting employment opportunities</td>
<td>RMPM previously conducted 28 station tours to various groups, including educational, community organizations, etc. in 2019. This was put in hold prior to launch in 2020 due to Covid-19.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Other programs designed to promote outreach generally</td>
<td>NATIVE LENS is an ongoing program/initiative that invites Native and Indigenous storytellers to share their stories. It is a collaborative storytelling project; the topic is theirs to choose as we welcome submissions from Native and/or Indigenous storytellers of all ages for their stories of love, grief, laughter, tradition, art, inspiration, inequity, how your their life has changed because of COVID-19, or something else entirely. We hope to share their vision on our public media platforms to ensure that they are seen and heard. The project is lead by Carol Fleischer of the DEI team and supported by the Content department as a whole.</td>
