Keeping the Barn The story of Montana’s barns is a personal one. The buildings hold more than just feed and livestock. They remain an iconic part of the Montana landscape. Livelihoods and lives depended on their quality and durability. The barns of Montana are beautiful symbols of hard work and ingenuity and a reflection of the families who use them. Like everything in America, the barn is a melting pot of ideas and styles. Airs 10/6 12:30pm; 10/11 3:30am

Celebrate America Across Montana: Tim Janis with State School Choirs (2022) School choirs from across Montana, including Anaconda, Belgrade, Big Sandy, Choteau, Corvallis, Fairfield, Powell County, Red Lodge, Ronan, Sacajawea Middle School, and Sweet Grass County, share their talent with all of Montana. Hosted by Musical Director Tim Janis, along with Montana State University School of Music faculty members, Elizabeth Schmidt and Gregory Young. Airs 10/8 10am; 10/12 4am

Homegrown & Handcrafted From handmade candy and pizza to custom knives and neon signs, Montana business owners have transformed their passions and skills into trades that allow them to create unique, high-quality products. Airs 10/12 7:30pm; 10/15 10:30am; 10/16 2:30am and on Montana PBS – WORLD: 10/15 4:30pm; 10/17 7:30pm; 10/18 9:30am

Ringside Shelby Thanks to a publicity stunt, on July 4, 1923, Shelby, Montana, transformed itself briefly from a little oil town of a few hundred folks to a bustling city of thousands streaming into its new 40,000-seat arena to see the legendary Jack Dempsey fight Tommy Gibbons. Many boxing enthusiasts think the Shelby encounter was the most challenging of Dempsey’s career. Airs 10/22 at 10am; 10/25 4am

Rising Voices: Joyce From the Future Alex Campbell and Lyric Horton met playing pop music at a Senior High concert in Billings and immediately bonded over their shared musical interests. Though they started studying music at the University of Montana, the two young musicians quickly realized that college wasn’t for them, and they began learning the ins-and-outs of managing a band and producing original music with the help of “YouTube University.” Through their self-guided education, they developed a home recording studio in Billings and began playing at a slew of concerts and festivals. Alongside Alex and Lyric, Joyce from the Future grew to include two additional members, Konnor Stiles on keys and saxophone, and Josh Reedy on drums. Their songs both explore fictitious realms, such as their love song EVERYTHING CHANGED, and stem from personal experience, like their lead single THE SOUND OF BEING ALIVE. Joyce from the Future brings their electric sound and impressive musicality live to the set of RISING VOICES. Airs 10/26 7:30pm; 10/29 10:30am; 10/30 2:30am and on Montana PBS – WORLD: 10/28 5:30pm; 10/30 7:30am; 10/31 7:30pm

At 14, Aurora Madriganian survived the Armenian Genocide and escaped to New York, where her story became a media sensation. Her newfound fame led to her starring in Auction of Souls, one of Hollywood’s earliest blockbusters. Blending storyboard animation, video testimony, and rediscovered footage from her lost silent epic, Aurora’s Sunrise revives her forgotten story.

Fire Through Dry Grass
MONDAY, 10/30  9PM  Also 11/1 1am
Wearing snapback caps and Air Jordans, the Reality Poets aren’t typical nursing home residents. In Fire Through Dry Grass, these young, Black and Brown disabled artists document their lives on lockdown during Covid, their rhymes underscoring the danger and imprisonment they feel. In the face of institutional neglect, they refuse to be abused, confined, and erased.

Fall Fun and Learning

Cyberchase

MONTANA PBS–KIDS: AIRS MON – THU
8PM Also airs on Montana PBS–HD: Sat 9:30am

When the dastardly villain Hacker (Christopher Lloyd) launches a mad mission to conquer the virtual universe, Motherboard calls upon three earth kids for help. They are Jackie, Matt, and Inez who, along with the wise-cracking cyberbird Digit (Gilbert Gottfried), travel from their real-world realm to the colorful virtual vistas of cyberspace. Each episode takes the kids on a thrilling adventure driven by a different math concept – from tackling time in ancient Egyptian tombs to making sense of numbers in a fractured fairytale world – as they vanquish the bad guys.

 Weekend Specials

Montana PBS – CREATE

BEGINS WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 25

WEDNESDAYS  8AM, 3PM & 9PM

Host Jeff Aiello and his Emmy Award-winning camera crew tell the stories of travel cinematically. They explore national parks and scenic wonders, celebrating the art of photography by documenting how scenic shots are caught on film. But beyond the lens, Jeff and his team also discover the real magic of travel in the people, food and unplanned adventures on each trip.

WEDNESDAYS  8AM, 3PM & 9PM
For the MPAN channel number in your community, see p. 2, or go to www.montanapbs.org/broadcastarea.

Montana Public Affairs Network (MPAN) is a state government broadcasting service that provides gavel-to-gavel, unedited coverage of legislative proceedings, both during and between sessions of the Legislature. Viewers are invited to watch floor sessions and committee meetings live and on delayed telecasts. In addition to legislative proceedings, MPAN provides live and pre-recorded coverage of a variety of other state agency activities, as well as other public-interest programming.

Funding Disclaimer: Montana PBS protects its credibility and integrity by ensuring the editorial independence of all content from funders. Content aired on Montana PBS must be responsive solely to the needs of the public – not to the interests of a funder. We must also guard against the potential perception that a funder might have exercised editorial influence, even if no actual influence occurred.
ECHO CHAMBERS (MONTANA PBS-STYLE)

At a time when much is being done to highlight our divisions, join us at Montana PBS to focus on what we Montanans have in common. Access to majestic natural beauty, like Lewis and Clark Caverns, is one of the most enriching things we share. We live together in this beautiful state. Let’s get out, enjoy Montana’s natural gifts, and connect with our neighbors over what we love and enjoy.
