MontanaPBS to Live Stream COVID-19 Special March 26 at 7pm

MontanaPBS will live stream a broadcast special “Answering Questions About Coronavirus” on Thursday, March 26 at 7pm MST. This program will be available to view on-air, online via montanapbs.org/live and on the MontanaPBS Facebook page.

During this special program, host John Twiggs will hold a conversation via video conference with Vicky Byrd, executive director of Montana Nurses Association; Patrick Barkey, director of Bureau of Business and Economic Research; and Montana Superintendent of Public Instruction Elsie Arntzen.

News and Public Affairs producer, Jackie Coffin, will be providing Twiggs with live questions from viewers during the program. Phone operators will be available to take audience questions by calling 1-888-828-5876. Viewers can also submit questions via Facebook by following MontanaPBS or emailing us at online@montanapbs.org.

The broadcast is anticipated to last 60 minutes; however, the conversation may continue online via montanapbs.org/live and on the MontanaPBS Facebook page should there be a high volume of questions from viewers.
