MINNESOTA MEDAL OF HONOR
Saturday, Feb. 25 at 8 p.m.

Hear stories of Minnesota's recipients of America's highest military honor with Doug Ohman.
Dear valued Pioneer PBS members,

I hope all of you have a blessed holiday season full of family, friends, plentiful food and joy. January marks my work anniversary here at Pioneer PBS. It’s hard to believe two years have passed. My second year brought unforeseen challenges, but now we have a lot of great things in store for the new year. Stay tuned!

The production teams have been all over the state capturing your stories — from Granite Falls to Red Lake. Brainerd to Brokings, Montevideo to Monticello, Worthington to Lanesboro and many points in between!

The new year brings new seasons of your favorite local productions: Postcards, Prairie Yard & Garden and Prairie Sportsman. Details can be found on page 16. Learn the stories of the Minnesota’s recipients of America’s highest military honor with historian and storyteller Doug Ohman. First issued during the Civil War, 72 residents of Minnesota have been recipients of this most prestigious medal. Ohman traces the lives of several of these Minnesota heroes through photographs, family memories and stories.

Your support and patience over the past year has also helped us work through some severe equipment failures, staff shortages, supply chain issues and a host of surprise challenges. Thanks to the hard work, long hours and perseverance of our new Chief Technology Officer Jennie Reeedquist and myself — will complete our nine-month Digital Transformation Program. We’ve learned a lot from Poynter and other PBS affiliates from across the country and are excited to start some new digital initiatives. Look for “Genzpeak,” coming soon to YouTube shorts, and check out our new TikTok channel. We have also made the decision to digitally release all the programs we produce the same day as our broadcast. Finding ways to continue to deliver to you wherever you may be is our priority!

We are so thankful to have such a great community to serve. Thank you to all who renewed or became members in the past year. It’s hard to believe two years have passed. My second year brought unforeseen challenges, but now we have a lot of great things in store for the new year. Stay tuned!

The imagination power of traditional wooden boats is a feature of both the book and the film. The event will feature a discussion with Tokheim, a viewing of the images in her book and a presentation about the primstav — an agricultural calendar stick used in Norway until the 17th century. Live music and Valentine’s Day treats will be part of the event along with a showing of “Built with Love,” a new documentary by Pioneer PBS’s Emmy Award-winning Posts TV. The documentary was filmed last year along the west coast of Norway, where Tokheim’s story also takes place.

“The Princess and the Boat Boy, Heroes of the Primstav” is the title of the book penned by Tokheim. Set in the seventh century, it retells the legend of St. Sunniva, the first patron saint of Norway, who came to the Isle of Selja on a boat from Ireland. Tokheim wove Sunniva’s legend with the fascinating primstav symbols that advised ancient farmers on how to survive the harsh northern climate and reminded them of important church festivals with heroic stories of early saints.

“Built with Love” follows Pioneer PBS Senior Producer Dana Conroy as she travels north along the coast of Norway to meet some of the last few people still building boats in the old Norwegian tradition.

Attendees to the event will have an opportunity to interact with Tokheim and Conroy. A handmade wooden Norwegian pram boat will be on display along with information about and examples of primstavs. The free event is being sponsored by the Madison Mercantile and Pioneer PBS. Pre-registration is requested by visiting pioneer.org/primstav or calling 800-726-3178.

I CAN HELP YOU REACH YOUR CUSTOMERS TODAY! thanson@pioneer.org 800-726-3178
Anderson and Hanson travel to D.C.

Two Pioneer PBS employees recently traveled to Washington, D.C., for networking and training around the importance of digital media and marketing in the nationwide PBS system.

Amanda Anderson, producer of Compass, is a member of the national Digital Media Advisory Council for PBS. DMAC members act as advocates for stations to ensure that stations’ needs are met and priorities are considered. Anderson has served on the DMAC for two years, yet this is the first time the members of the council were able to meet in person due to COVID-19 restrictions since 2019.

“It was great to be in person with other people from across the PBS system who are thinking so innovatively about how to advance the mission of public media in the digital space,” Anderson said.

Tracy Hanson, market development manager for Pioneer PBS, participated in a Digital Immersion National Leadership Development program over the past two years and flew to Washington, D.C. to meet with other participants in the program for a “capstone” event. Digital Immersion is a professional development opportunity for station staff that combines in-depth virtual training with hands-on workshops and collaborative mentorship to improve expertise in digital strategies.

“This program has been a wonderful experience and something that I’m very grateful to have been selected by PBS to be involved with. Digital immersion has introduced numerous resources and tools, which I’ve been able to bring back to our station, to improve our processes. It was so great to connect with others in my position from other parts of the country, and it was good to learn that, in some ways, Pioneer PBS is ahead of the curve,” Hanson said.

Memorial & Honorarium Gifts

At a time of loss, a memorial gift brings solace to family and friends while nurturing a commitment to an organization that has a special place in the hearts of the givers. An honorarium gift is a way of honoring a loved one on a special day.

A gift has been given to Pioneer PBS in memory of...

Lila Estenson by Monroe & Cheryl Estenson
Larrie Bea Schultz Oase by Sally & Rob Rakow
Raymond F. Miller by Joan Miller

Pledge and Precedence

(Apologies to Jane Austen)

The pledge drive has been a PBS stalwart since 1975 and has become something that everyone loves to hate. Sometimes termed a necessary evil, membership drives have not evolved much since then.

Something that has changed though, and has changed as quickly as a Masterpiece Mystery! plotline, is how programs or content is delivered and consumed. With digital advancements and a multitude of streaming devices and apps, maybe it’s time we change things up. Since a large portion of our funding is dependent on local contributions, we can’t afford not to fundraise, but we can’t afford to drive our members away from enjoying their favorite shows four times a year either.

So, we’re starting small. Some of you may have noticed that most of our usual December programming was left alone, and our special pledge events aired only in primetime—and only Friday and Sunday. We’ll continue to tweak things in the coming year, with special-one day drives New Year’s Day and Super Bowl Sunday and in our upcoming spring membership drive that begins at the end of February. Going back to that ‘necessary evil’ thing— we do need members—that will never change, but we want to reach you in a way that is efficient and, hopefully, painless.

Send us a note with your next renewal notice or email us at yourtv@pioneer.org and let us know what you think—we love to hear from you!
