REMEMBERING WWII: HEROES AND HISTORY

MONDAY, MAY 29 AT 12:30 P.M.
Dear valued Pioneer PBS members and dedicated viewers,

While it felt like winter might last well into May, it does seem like it might finally behind us! Here is hoping you are all enjoying the spring as much as I am.

Pioneer PBS will be popping up in several communities this May for screening and outreach events. Hopefully we’ll bump into each other at a few of those. Keep an eye on the Pioneer PBS website for events near you!

One such event will be May 10 at 5 p.m. on the campus of Southwest Minnesota State University in Marshall. We will preview “Playing Haydn for the Angel of Death,” a beautiful documentary that takes you on a journey with a friend of Bill Holm’s as he sets one of the legendary Minnesota poet’s work to music with a performance in Iceland, the ancestral homeland of the poet. Join us for the premiere screening and opportunity to chat with the filmmakers as well as Dan Rieppel, professor of music at SMSU and friend of Bill Holm.

Fagen Fighters WWII Museum will co-host a special screening event May 26 from noon to 4 p.m. for a new Pioneer PBS documentary “Remembering WWII: Heroes & History.” Hear firsthand accounts of the war from veterans themselves, see restored planes in action and chat with some of the heroes featured! The film will play several times throughout the day. We hope you’ll stop by to celebrate these heroes with us.

Your favorite local shows will be wrapping up their seasons in May. But fear not, they go right from finishing these shows into production for next season. So you’ll see them across the region capturing the next season’s stories that we hope you’ll love!

For some outstanding offerings during our summer membership drive, check out the back page of the Pioneer Preview. There is something for everyone. As always, we do what we do because of you, but we cannot do it without you. We hope you’ll join us and pledge your support or renew your support.

Thank you so much for watching, for volunteering, for partnering and for supporting Pioneer PBS in whatever way you do. We are extremely grateful for you and proud to serve you!

Respectfully,
Shari Lamke
President & General Manager

Dempcy Named a 2023 Growing Local: Emerging Leader

GRANITE FALLS, Minn. — Pioneer PBS’s videographer and editor Ben Dempcy has been named a 2023 Growing Local: Emerging Leader by the Southwest Initiative Foundation. Dempcy has worked at Pioneer PBS for ten years on its award-winning arts, culture and history program Postcards.

Fourteen individuals from southwest Minnesota will be participating in this first cohort, which is a partnership between SWIF and the University of Minnesota, Extension.

Participants will take part in six informational sessions, where they will “gain tools and resources to build their confidence and empower them to shape the future in places that matter most to them,” according to a SWIF press release.

Dempcy, who lives in Granite Falls, says that he’s the most excited to be able to take what he learns in this cohort and give back to his community.

“I’m thrilled to be a part of this professional community and am eager to learn new ways to become a more efficient leader. For me, the most inspiring aspect of leadership is the potential to make a positive impact in my community,” Dempcy said.

About Southwest Initiative Foundation

Southwest Initiative Foundation is an independent community foundation supported by individuals, families, businesses, and organizations who want to strengthen southwest Minnesota. For more information, visit swffoundation.org.

The small town of Granite Falls features an unexpected spectacle in the form of Ray Fagen Memorial Airshow, held at the Fagen Fighters WWII Museum every other year.

With a focus on honoring WWII veterans, the airshow offers the public a glimpse of some of America’s finest historical fighting machines and shares the stories of the sacrifices that were made.

COMING TO PIONEER PBS PASSPORT

ENDEAVOUR | SEASON 9 ON MASTERPIECE
Coming to Pioneer PBS Passport June 18
Set in the early 70s, the final season finds Endeavour and Thursday entering a new era of change both professionally and personally with the return of some familiar faces along the way.

Passport pro tip:
The final season of Endeavour is back with three new episodes releasing weekly in June. The spoiler version of the documentary Morse & The Last Endeavour will be available for streaming after the final episode broadcasts July 2 at approximately 9:30 p.m.

JAMESTOWN | SEASONS 1-3
The British colony of Jamestown, populated only by men is shaken up when the first women, including Alice, Verity and Jocelyn, land in this wilderness.

Passport pro tip:
The disruptive new arrivals make an immediate impact and are thrust into a new world of love, desire, power and survival.

CARMEN CURLERS | SEASON 2
Coming to Pioneer PBS Passport June 16
Inspired by real events, the series focuses on entrepreneur Axel Byvang (Morten Hee Andersen), who recruits women from neighboring farms to produce electronic hair curlers.

RIDLEY | SEASON 1
Coming to Pioneer PBS Passport June 18
Detective Inspector Alex Ridley (Adrian Dunbar, Line of Duty) retired from the police force after years of dedicated service due to health concerns and grief after losing his wife and daughter. Detective Ridley is lured back into service as a consultant detective when his former protégée, Carol Farman, needs help cracking a complex murder case.

With more intriguing cases to solve, Ridley is enticed out of retirement, reviving his formidable and successful partnership with Carol. Created by Paul Matthew Thompson (Shakespeare & Hathaway), this thought-provoking original series is inspired by real-life retired detectives re-joining police forces in consultancy roles.

Passport pro tip:
Binge all eight episodes of this season starting on the night of its broadcast premiere with Passport.
