Southern cuisine is world-renowned, and there’s so much more to cooking than a pinch of salt and a dash of pepper. It’s about memories, time together and the stories behind your family’s secret recipes. Pull up a chair to discuss your favorite dishes and the history of Southern cooking.

Do you have a leaky faucet? Would you like to put a ceiling fan in your bedroom? Maybe you want to mount a flat screen TV to the wall. Whether it’s a plumbing problem or an electrical question, talk with Jason Klein and learn if you can do it yourself. You may be handier than you think!

Lions, tigers, and PETS- Oh My! Join Dr. Troy Majure, a veterinarian at the Animal Medical Center of Jackson, and Libby Hartfield, retired director of the Mississippi Museum of Natural Science, to learn all about the animals in your homes and in nature around us.

Get out and get dirty every Friday with horticulturalist Felder Rushing as he shares stories, answers questions and just talks about gardening. A long-time favorite on MPB, each show is delightfully complete with a bit of “cheesy” music and laughter.
