

SEPTEMBER 18-20 AT 8PM

This three-part documentary explores America's response to one of the greatest humanitarian crises in history, dispelling myths that Americans either were ignorant of the persecution that Jews and other targeted minorities faced in Europe or that they looked on with indifference. It also tackles questions that remain today, including how racism influences policies related to immigration and refugees and how governments and people respond to the rise of authoritarian states that manipulate history and facts to consolidate power.
