

TULSA: THE FIRE AND THE FORGOTTEN

PREMIERES MAY 31 AT 9PM

This film examines the 1921 Tulsa race massacre on the 100th anniversary of the crime. Watch interviews with descendants of victims and analyze how their families' devastating experience affects their lives in today's America, including the current excavation of potential mass graves from the massacre. Through the historical lens of white violence and Black resistance, this project explores issues of atonement, reconciliation, and reparation – in the past, present, and future.
