

AMERICAN EXPERIENCE

VOICE OF FREEDOM

PREMIERES MONDAY, FEBRUARY 15 AT 9PM

This film marks the landmark moment on Easter Sunday 1939, when contralto Marian Anderson stepped up to a microphone in front of the Lincoln Memorial in Washington, DC. She had been barred from performing at Constitution Hall by the Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) – and First Lady Eleanor Roosevelt resigned from DAR in protest. In that moment, Anderson transformed into a symbol for the nascent civil rights movement, even inspiring a 10-year-old Martin Luther King, Jr., who listened on the radio.
