

Join us as we celebrate the 10th season of Maryland Farm and Harvest, the award-winning series that tells enlightening stories of the passionate men and women who work the land and grow our food. This season, we take a look back to when it all began and revisit a few of our favorite farms and farmers. Hosted by Joanne Clendingin, the first episode puts the spotlight on our veteran farmers, who not only dedicate their lives to growing our food but to serving our country as well.
