January 27, 2020

For immediate release

Contacts:
Tom Williams, APR | tomwilliams@mpt.org | 410-581-4031
Ari Hamilton-Gery | ahamilton@nevispr.com | 410-568-8807

Richard Bodorff, Paul G. Ullmann, and Eleanor K. Wang
join MPT Foundation, Inc. Board of Directors

OWINGS MILLS, MD – The MPT Foundation, Inc. has elected Richard Bodorff, partner, Wiley Rein LLP; Paul G. Ullmann, vice president of private wealth services, SunTrust Bank; and Eleanor K. Wang, physical therapist and freelance actor, to serve three-year terms on its board of directors.

The MPT Foundation, Inc. is the 501(c) (3) fundraising affiliate of Maryland Public Television. Incorporated in 1981 as the Maryland Public Broadcasting Foundation, Inc., the foundation today comprises approximately two dozen members drawn from Maryland business, civic, and cultural communities to assist MPT in securing private contributions and foundation grants.

Richard “Dick” Bodorff’s 40-year career as a communications attorney in private practice began in the General Counsel’s Office at the Federal Communications Commission following a clerkship with then Commissioner Dick Wiley. His current position with Wiley Rein LLP includes numerous public and commercial media clients, among them WGBH, Commonwealth, Rhode Island PBS, New York Radio, Nexstar Media Group, and iHeart Media.

Bodorff’s current nonprofit involvement includes the Chesapeake Bay Maritime Museum, the YMCA of the Chesapeake, and the Broadcasters Foundation of America, where he is currently the foundations general counsel and secretary. He has supported numerous organizations throughout his career, including stints as vice chairman of the board of America’s Public Television Stations and chairman of the boards of the Commonwealth Public Broadcasting Corporation and Academy Art Museum.
Bodorff holds a bachelor’s degree from Denison University and earned his doctorate in law at Vanderbilt University School of Law. He resides in Easton with his wife, Ellen.

Paul G. Ullmann, a native of Baltimore, has a career spanning 15 years in financial planning and investment management, working first with UBS before joining SunTrust Bank. In his current position, Ullmann focuses on the creation and implementation of investment strategies for clients and consulting about risk management, retirement planning, and other critical financial strategies. He also serves on the board of The Children’s Home in Catonsville.

Ullmann is a graduate of the University of Maryland and Loyola University.

Eleanor K. Wang, resident of Baltimore, has more than 30 years of experience as a physical therapist. Wang has been a homecare physical therapist with Bayada Homecare Services for the past 20 years. In addition, she works as a freelance actor and member the Screen Actors Guild-American Federation of Television and Radio Artists Union. Her previous professional experience includes assistant chief of physical therapy at the University of Maryland Medical Center, rehabilitation staff at Sinai Hospital, and nursing home physical therapist for Meridian Rehabilitation Services. She also spent 10 years as an adjunct faculty member in the Community College of Baltimore’s biology department.

Her involvement in professional and community organizations include serving as president for the Baltimore City Board of Elections and as board member for the Maryland Film Industry Coalition, Timothy House, and Santa Claus Anonymous. Wang is also involved with St. David’s Church, Kiwanis-Midtown, The Women’s Club of Roland Park, and Kappa Alpha Theta.

Wang is a graduate of Purdue University and Johns Hopkins University. She also earned a post-graduate certificate in physical therapy from the University of Pennsylvania. She resides in Baltimore with her husband, David Blumberg.

About MPT
Launched in 1969 and headquartered in Owings Mills, MD, Maryland Public Television is a nonprofit, state-licensed public television network and member of the Public Broadcasting Service (PBS). MPT’s six transmitters cover Maryland plus portions of contiguous states and the District of Columbia. Frequent winner of regional Emmy® awards, MPT creates local, regional, and national television shows. Beyond broadcast, MPT’s commitment to professional educators, parents, caregivers, and learners of all ages is delivered through year-round instructional events and the super-website Thinkport, which garners in excess of 14 million page views annually. MPT’s community engagement connects viewers with local resources on significant health, education, and public interest topics through year-round outreach events, viewer forums, program screenings, and phone bank call-in opportunities. For more information visit mpt.org.

# #