Rodgers & Hammerstein’s
The Sound of Music
Beloved by generations of audiences worldwide, The Sound of Music tells the inspiring true story of the von Trapp Family Singers and their escape from Austria during the rise of Nazism. Fall in love with the beloved musical as never before. The production features music and lyrics by Richard Rodgers and Oscar Hammerstein II and stars Kara Tointon as Maria and Julian Ovenden as Captain von Trapp.

Friday, November 16 at 8 pm

GZero with Ian Bremmer
This new public affairs series offers compelling discussion about global politics with people from all sides of the political spectrum. The world order that has united much of the globe since the end of World War II is fraying, and global summits like G-7 and G-20 no longer have the influence they once did. Ian Bremmer, a renowned political scientist, sits down with world leaders, noted experts, and newsmakers.

Thursdays at 8:30 pm

How to Cook Well w/ Rory O’Connell
Rory O’Connell is probably Ireland’s most experienced cookery teacher — he has been teaching people how to cook for more than 30 years, having co-founded the Ballymaloe Cookery School with his sister, Darina Allen. In this brand new series, Rory introduces the timeless, classic, and essential techniques that every cook needs to understand and implement if they want to cook well. There is plenty of humor, even though Rory takes preparing food seriously.

Thanks to your support, SOPTV brings you “the best television, on television.” We appreciate your ongoing support, which gives SOPTV the resources to purchase programming from PBS and other distributors and to maintain our extensive network of translators throughout southern Oregon and Siskiyou County in California. Last month, the SOPTV Board of Directors approved the Annual Audit for Fiscal Year (FY) 2018.

Membership contributions increased by 25% and Grants increased by 60%, which will increase our Community Service Grant in FY ’19. The Corporation for Public Broadcasting (CPB) provides a base grant to all stations and rewards stations that raise funds in their local service area. We are very thankful for your support.

You will notice our National and Local Business Support declined by nearly 20% due in part to the conclusion of fundraising for Sight: The Story of Vision, which played on most PBS stations two years ago. And, we nearly met our depreciation goal! You may recall that in July we experienced a devastating power surge, which knocked us off the air for half a day and limited our ability to provide all three channels of service.

Local programming had another good year with our tribute to local veterans on My Story of Service, six Student Showcases, The Jeffersonian (our partnership with SOU students), and Immense Possibilities, which reaches a national audience.

Many thanks again,

Independent Lens: Dawnland
For most of the 20th century, government agents systematically forced Native American children from their homes and placed them with white families. As recently as the 1970s, one in four Native children nationwide were living in non-Native foster care, adoptive homes, or boarding schools.

Monday, November 5 at 11 pm

Red Power Energy
From a Native American perspective, this provocative film reframes today’s complex energy debate. Can energy development on tribal lands empower a people while powering the nation? Tribes are fighting for the sovereign right to control their lands and develop their natural and mineral resources however they choose.

We’ll Meet Again
Join Ann Curry for new dramatic reunions of people whose lives crossed at pivotal moments. This week, two Vietnam veterans search for the heroes who saved them. An Army officer searches for the helicopter pilot who rescued him, while another soldier wants to reconnect with the surgeon who saved his leg from amputation.

Tuesdays, starting Nov. 13 at 8 pm

POV: Of Men & War
The warriors have come home, but their minds remain on the battlefield. Veterans from Iraq and Afghanistan, consumed by anger and traumatic memories long after their return, often resort to drugs or suicide to end their suffering. But at a first-of-its-kind PTSD treatment center, soldiers resolve to stop the damage.

Sunday, November 11 at 7 & 11 pm

Primetime 3-Channel Schedule

Nature: Dogs in the Land of Lions
Follow the unforgettable journey of a close-knit family of wild dogs growing up in Zimbabwe, a land ruled by lions. Witness rarely seen behavior, from tender moments with newborn pups, to the thrills of hunting wildebeest, to close encounters with their greatest enemy — the lion.

Wednesday, November 21 at 8 pm

Ishi’s Return
Billed in 1911 as the “last wild Indian” when he wandered out of the woods in Oroville, California, Ishi became a national sensation. When he died, his brain was removed and sent to the Smithsonian Institution. Eighty years later, his descendants fought to have his remains repatriated to his ancestral home.

Moroni for President

Every four years, the Navajo Nation elects its president, whom many consider the most powerful Native American in the country. Frustrated about the lack of progress on the reservation, Moroni Benally, a witty academic LGBTQ candidate with radical ideas, hopes to defeat the incumbent president. Follow the political newcomer’s grueling, lonely campaign.
