May June 2022 | 3
April showers have given way to May flowers and that means the first day of summer in June is not far behind. This edition of SPOTLIGHT reflects some great garden picks festooning in both months.

Highlights include the ANTIQUES ROADSHOW with three episodes from COLONIAL WILLIAMSBURG on May 9, 16 and 23 at 8pm. On Friday, May 27 at 9pm, GREAT PERFORMANCES premieres KEEPING COMPANY WITH SONDHEIM, a documentary exploring the legacy of Stephen Sondheim and George Furt’s musical Company. Then, on May 29 at 8pm and 9:30pm, it’s the NATIONAL MEMORIAL DAY CONCERT, with all new content and the return of acclaimed co-hosts Gary Sinise and Joe Mantegna, along with pops conductor Jack Everly of the National Symphony Orchestra.

SOPBS has also attractively arranged a bunch of PBS posies to enjoy in June. On Tuesday June 14 at 9pm, AMERICAN MASTERS premieres BRIAN WILSON: LONG, PROMISED ROAD. The Beach Boy’s Brian Wilson takes us on an intimate journey through his legendary career as he reminisces with Rolling Stone editor and longtime friend, Jason Fine. This documentary features a new song written and performed with Wilson and interviews with Elton John, Bruce Springsteen, Nick Jonas, Linda Perry, Jim James, Gustavo Dudamel and Al Jardine.

On Sunday June 19, there are two great series premieres! At 8pm, it’s HOTEL PORTOFINO, a new historical family drama set in the 1920s on the Italian Riviera. It revolves around the daughter of a wealthy industrialist who heads to Italy to set up a quintessentially British Hotel in the stunning town of Portofino. At 9pm, it’s the premiere of ENDEAVOUR ON MASTERPIECE Season 8. Shaun Evans reprises his role for a new set of compelling cases. Episode One is entitled STRIKER.

On June 21 at 9pm, THE MARK TWAIN PRIZE is back with comedian, talk show host and political influencer, Jon Stewart, who has been named the 23rd recipient of the Kennedy Center’s Mark Twain Award for lifetime achievement in comedy.

On Monday and Tuesday June 27 & 28 at 9pm, we will air HIDING IN PLAIN SIGHT, a Ken Burns presentation. This two-part series takes a look at the experiences of young people living with mental health conditions with a focus on the importance of awareness and compassion. This series will shine a light on what life looks like for these young people as well as for the parents, teachers, friends, and healthcare providers in their lives.

I hope you pick a great bouquet from these and many other great shows that will be blooming on SOPBS over the next two months.

AMERICAN ANTHEMS
Six Episodes
Premiering Friday, June 26 - 10pm
Across the country, in every community, unsung heroes are quietly working to improve the lives of others. Their inspiring efforts often receive little fanfare—until now. AMERICAN ANTHEMS, a new series from PBS, NBC Universal Syndication Studios and Academy and Emmy Award-winning series creator Believe Entertainment Group, celebrates these everyday heroes with surprise songs from Grammy Award-winner Jennifer Nettles and today’s biggest country music stars.

Each episode of AMERICAN ANTHEMS will follow a different featured country star, including Nettles and other award-winning major artists, as they meet a local hero and learn about the transformative experience that inspired their commitment to making a positive change in their community. Then, working with an award-winning songwriter, the country star will secretly turn the hero’s story of kindness, hard work and perseverance into an epic original song. At the end of the episode, the hero will be surprised with a once-in-a-lifetime performance of the emotional anthem by the artist while surrounded by family and friends.

Among the six heroes honored are a father who started a nonprofit to help families of cancer patients while undergoing cancer treatment himself and a former police officer who founded an organization that supports survivors of sexual abuse after struggling to recover from her own attack. Viewers will also meet a service-oriented young woman whose nonprofit provides free laundry days in low-income areas. Helping others is one way that she manages her Bipolar disorder.

ANYTHING GOES

Friday, May 13 - 9pm

Telling the tale of romance aboard the SS American set to a timeless score, Tony-winning choreographer Kathleen Marshall directs the London production featuring timeless hits, including “I Get A Kick Out Of You,” “You’re the Top” and “Anything Goes!” When the ship sets out to sea, etiquette and convention dive overboard as two unlikely pairs set off on the course to true love, proving that sometimes destiny needs a little help from a crew of singing sailors, disguise and blackmail.

MERRY WIVES

Friday, May 20 at 9 pm

The production is set in South Harlem where immigrants of the West African diaspora are living side-by-side with their African American neighbors. A New York story about tricks of the heart, featuring the Bard’s most beloved comedic characters, this farce tells the story of the charlatan Falstaff and the wily wives who outwit him in a celebration of Black joy, laughter and vitality.

KEEPING COMPANY WITH SONDEIHM

Friday, May 27 at 9 pm

Filmed over two years, this new documentary takes an exclusive inside look at Tony-winning director Marianne Elliott’s creative process of bringing a reimagined gender-swapped production of Stephen Sondheim and George Furth’s musical “Company” to Broadway during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Featuring rehearsal and performance footage, plus new interviews with Elliott, Sondheim, Katrina Lenk, Patti LuPone and members of the original 1970 cast, the broadcast tells the story of the show’s Broadway debut in a city on the verge of bankruptcy to its reimaginations 50 years later as both Broadway and New York City emerge from one of the greatest crises in contemporary history.

A FLOOD IN THE DESERT

Tues, May 3 – 9pm

The film tells the dramatic story of the March 1928 collapse of the St. Francis Dam and its aftermath, the second deadliest disaster in California history. The resulting flood killed over 400 people, destroyed millions of dollars of property, and washed away the reputation of one of the most celebrated men in Southern California, William Mulholland. A self-taught engineer, Mulholland had ensured Los Angeles’ remarkable growth by building a cement aqueduct that piped water from the Owens Valley across the Mojave Desert and into the arid city, 233 miles away. But the bursting of his St. Francis Dam, the city’s largest single reservoir, was a colossal engineering and human failure.

PLAGUE AT THE GOLDEN GATE

Tues, May 24 – 9pm

Over 100 years before the deadly COVID-19 pandemic set off a nationwide wave of fear and anti-Asian sentiment, an outbreak of bubonic plague in San Francisco’s Chinatown unleashed a similar crisis. The death of a Chinese immigrant in 1900 would have likely gone unnoticed if a sharp-eyed medical officer hadn’t discovered a swollen black lymph node on his body — evidence of one of the world’s most feared diseases, bubonic plague. When others started dying, health officials and business leaders were torn about how to stave off an epidemic without causing panic and derailing the city’s booming economy. A fascinating medical mystery and timely examination of the tense relationship between the medical community, city powerbrokers and San Francisco’s Chinese-American community, Plague at the Golden Gate tells the gripping story of the desperate race against time to save San Francisco and the nation from the deadly plague.

Premieres Sunday, June 19 – 8pm

This new series is a historical family drama set in the 1920s, in the breathtakingly beautiful resort town of Portofino. It revolves around the daughter of a wealthy industrialist who heads to Italy to set up a quintessentially British Hotel on the Italian Riviera. The plot centers around a personal awakening at a time of global upheaval in the traumatic aftermath of World War I, when Benito Mussolini’s brand of fascism was on the rise.

Boasting a great cast and fabulous locations, the series is billed as a “family drama full of emotional highs and lows, with a classic ‘whodunit’ mystery woven throughout and building to a dramatic climax.”

Broadchurch

Episode 1 – Saturday, June 18 – 10:35pm

When a young boy is murdered, this small town of Broadchurch in Dorset suddenly becomes the focus of a major event in the full glare of the media spotlight. DI Alec Hardy (David Tennant) and DS Ellie Miller (Olivia Colman) lead the investigation, as one by one the community of Broadchurch are drawn into the police inquiry, starting with the immediate family, and then radiating outward. Starring David Tennant and Olivia Coleman.

In Two Parts, Mon & Tues, June 27 & 28 – 9pm

The two-part four hour film features first-person accounts from more than 20 young people, ranging in age from 11 to 27, who live with mental health conditions, as well as parents, teachers, friends, healthcare providers in their lives, and independent mental health experts.

The documentary presents an unvarnished window into daily life with mental health challenges, from seemingly insurmountable obstacles to stories of hope and resilience. Through the experiences of these young people, the film confronts the issues of stigma, discrimination, awareness, and silence, and, in doing so, help advance a shift in the public perception of mental health issues.

Mental illness is one of the most significant health crises in the world—as pervasive as cancer, diabetes, and heart disease—but it often exists in secret and is endured in isolation. It's the place where sadness leaves off, and depression begins; where nervousness becomes anxiety; excitement becomes mania, and habit becomes addiction. It's the place where simply living becomes painful.

It affects all ages, in families both rich and poor, healthy and dysfunctional. Trauma can be the trigger—from personal crises such as divorce and neglect to environmental disasters, racial injustice, and pandemics. Over time, the symptoms can progress, and lead to increasingly extreme behaviors—like eating disorders, self-harm, and thoughts of suicide.

The issues surrounding mental illness are extraordinarily complex. The risk factors are daunting, the economics bewildering, and the politics contentious. But the most important step—and often the most difficult one—is to start talking about it.

The aim of Hiding in Plain Sight is that it will bring that conversation into homes, schools, the workplace, and community organizations across the country.

Staff Pick

D RAMAS THAT SWEEP YOU AWAY!

On a scenic river amid stunning Scottish lochs, DI Annika Strandhed, and her newly-formed Marine Homicide Unit in Glasgow face a steady stream of murders connected to the water. The new, six-part series features Annika, the lead detective who juggles baffling cases and a rebellious teenage daughter. This witty police procedural is different from what viewers may be used to – Annika breaks the fourth wall to confide her thoughts directly to the audience, often linking her cases to her obsessive reading of literature and mythology.

Take advantage of your SO PBS Passport membership benefit today and stream ANNIIKA on Masterpiece before the broadcast this fall! Plus you can revisit SANDITON, discover the new LUNA AND SOPHIE, and binge stream RIDLEY ROAD on the night of its broadcast premiere – all with your SO PBS Passport membership benefit.

SO PBS members who donate $60/year or more ($5/month) can stream their favorite PBS programs. Go to sopbs.org/passport to find out how.

NEW EIGHT-PART COMPETITION
PREMIERES FRIDAY, JUNE 24 AT 8pm

THE GREAT AMERICAN RECIPE is a new eight-part uplifting cooking competition that celebrates the multiculturalism that makes American food unique and iconic. Hosted by Alejandra Ramos, the series gives talented home cooks from different regions of the country the opportunity to showcase their beloved signature dishes and compete to win the national search for “The Great American Recipe.” Judges Leah Cohen, Tiffany Derry and Graham Elliot bring their professional insights and deep culinary knowledge to encourage and support the contestants along the way.

The show blends food, family and fun, highlighting the amazing variety of tastes and traditions found across the U.S., while capturing the roots of America’s diverse cuisine. From family favorites passed down through generations, to internationally influenced recipes that are quickly becoming mainstays of American cuisine, the series mixes camaraderie with competition, revealing rich personal stories and the inspiration behind the contestant’s favorite recipes.

THE GREAT AMERICAN RECIPE will culminate in a finale that features the finalists preparing an entire meal for the judges to make their ultimate decision. The winning dish will grace the cover of The Great American Recipe Cookbook, which will also feature recipes from all of the contestants and the show’s host and judges.

CHINATOWN RISING
May 28th – 7pm & 11pm
Against the backdrop of the Civil Rights Movement of the 1960s, a young San Francisco film student and Chinatown resident turned his lens onto his community. Fast forward 50 years, Harry Chuck’s new archival material portrays a divided community’s struggles for self-determination. Weaving together never-before-seen footage and photographs, CHINATOWN RISING spans three generations in its portrait of the historic neighborhood in transition.

From the 1960s-1980s, the once quiet streets of Chinatown were rattled by the fight for bilingual education, tenants’ rights, affordable housing, and an ethnic studies curriculum. These struggles are chronicled through current-day interviews as Chinatown’s organizers and leaders of the ’60s return to the battles for social justice and equality of their youth that would shape their community and nation.
