COMMUNITY ADVISORY BOARD
WPBT - Miami Facility

ROBERT BOO
CEO of The Pride Center of Florida since March 2012. Formerly, he served as Director of Development for five years (2006 - 2010) and served on the 2011 Board of Directors for the Center. Prior to joining the Center, he worked for 23 years with ARAMARK Corporation and Sodexo, USA. He earned a degree from Purdue University.

MICHELE CABRERA
Early Learning Coach for Family Central C-Quell. She is also an Adjunct Professor at Broward College. She served as a Child Care Manager with Memorial Health Care for 30 years. She earned a master’s degree in Educational Leadership and Administration from Lesley University.

DR. CHERISON CUFFY
Dr. Cherison Cuffy was born on the island of Dominica in the West indies. He grew up in South Florida. He is a practicing podiatrist in Tamarac with 13 years of experience. He is affiliated with Broward Health Coral Springs, Holy Cross Hospital Inc, Northwest Medical Center, University Hospital and Coral Springs Medical Center. Dr. Cuffy also serves as an assistant professor at Barry University School of Podiatric Medicine. He is a member of the Credentials and Qualifications Committee at University Hospital and a member of Pharmacy and Therapeutics at Northwest Medical Center. He is a Diplomat at the American Academy of Wound Management a Certified Wound Specialist and a member of the American Board of Podiatric Surgery a Board Qualified Foot and Ankle Surgery. Dr. Cuffy completed his undergraduate studies at the University of Miami in 2002. He graduated from Temple University School of Podiatric Medicine in 2006. He completed his residency at Northwest Medical Center in 2009.
REBEKAH LENGEL
Program Director for Young Arts. Previously, she was the Associate Director for Reunions and Special Programs at Barry University. Rebekah is an accomplished journalist and playwright; her work has been published in three languages and has appeared in publications including The Miami Herald, The Miami New Times, ArtBurst Miami, and onstage at the Hippodrome Theater. In 2012 she was a part of the Association of Performing Arts Presenters Leadership Development Institute, and in the same year was a recipient of a Mentor and Leadership Initiative Grant from the National Performance Network. She has been featured as a guest speaker with the Arts & Business Council of Miami’s Arts Marketing Project and the South Arts Performing Arts Exchange on subjects including social media and marketing for non-profits, artist development, and artist touring. She earned an AS in Music Business from Miami Dade College in 2002 and a BA in Liberal Arts from Barry University in 2016.

SHAIKH SHAFAYAT MOHAMED
Founder/Principal of Darul Uloom Institute and chairman of the Hollywood Interfaith Council. He is the Director of ALHIKMAT TV 24/7 online and serves as Chief Editor for ALHIKMAT Monthly Muslim Magazine. He is the former president of Interfaith Council of South Florida. He graduated as a Qaari, Faaiz/Islamic Scholar from Deoband, the largest and oldest Islamic Institute in India.

BILL TECK
Actor, writer, producer and CEO of generation ñ. In 2007, the company created generation ñ.tv the net’s first broadband content channel geared toward English Dominant Latinos. He served as producer for the television programs OutLoud, generation ñ, LIVE!, A Peña Family Album: The Best of Que Pasa USA, Content Miami, New Florida, Café Con Leche II, and ñ Life with Melissa Hernandez. He is the co-writer of the Fireside Press humor book and The Official Spanglish Dictionary. Bill was named One of 20 Latinos to Watch - Newsweek Magazine, One of the 100 Most Influential Hispanics in America - Hispanic Business Magazine, Trendsetter of the Year in Publishing - Hispanic Magazine, Entrepreneur of the Year - Hispanic Business Magazine, A Special Recognition of Achievement - National Council of La Raza. In addition to directing films and running the generation ñ brand, Bill runs Chop Circuit/Bill Teck Media which uses the web to narrowcast according to demographics. He is the director of the films Cuba On My Back and One Day Since Yesterday: Peter Bogdanovich & The Lost American Film. He earned an AA in Broadcasting and Cinematography from Miami Dade Community College.
THOMAS BARRETT STERNBERG
Thomas is an associate with Tripp Scott and focuses his practice on Education Law and Government Affairs. He earned his juris doctor, magna cum laude, from the Nova Southeastern University Shepard Broad College of Law. During his time in law school, Thomas served as the Goodwin Alumni Editor for the Nova Law Review. Thomas competed in the 69th Annual New York City Bar National Moot Court Tournament where his team won the Region V division and placed among the top teams at the national stage. Additionally, Thomas was a member of the Nova Trial Association, served on the Board for the Sports and Entertainment Law Society, and maintained an active membership within the President’s 64. Thomas also worked as a research assistant for Dean Olympia Duhart and Professor Phyllis Coleman.

Thomas earned his undergraduate degree from the Temple University Fox School of Business, majoring in International Business with a minor in Spanish. During his undergraduate studies, Thomas was a Division I Track and Field athlete, competing in the Pole Vault, as well as serving the Temple Student Government as Deputy Chief of Staff. Prior to working at Tripp Scott as an attorney, Thomas was a summer associate and law clerk at Tripp Scott, as well as an intern for the City of Coral Springs City Attorney’s Office.

SUZANNE GOTTLIEB CALLEJA
Suzanne Gottlieb Calleja is the Associate Head of School for Communications and Strategic Partnerships at Palmer Trinity School, an independent college preparatory school in Miami. She began at Palmer Trinity in 2005 as the School’s director of communications and community relations, where she initiated strategic brand building and strengthened relationships within the community as well as with the media. Prior to moving to Miami and joining Palmer Trinity in 2005, Gottlieb Calleja worked in the entertainment industry for almost two decades. She began as an assistant producer and later producer for Walter Cronkite’s independent documentary company, Cronkite Ward & Company (CWC), located in Washington, D.C. and New York City. CWC produced international documentaries for the Discovery Channel, The Learning Channel, A&E and PBS. Active in the Miami community, Gottlieb Calleja is an amateur cellist and has played with the Alhambra Orchestra, a local chamber group for five years. She is on the Executive Board of the Deering Estate Foundation; is a member of Smith College Club of Miami; was appointed to the Palmetto Bay Partnership Committee from 2016-2018; was a board member at Temple Beth Am Religious School from 2013-2016 and the Palmetto Bay Business Association from 2013-2022. She was also a commissioner on the Council of Advancement and Support of Education (CASE) Marketing Commission from 2014 - 2017.
COMMUNITY ADVISORY BOARD
WXEL – Boynton Beach Facility

CLARICE DAVIS
Travel Advisor with Via 1LUX Travel. She has served as an education consultant for Dreyfoos & Associates, Red Wings Learning and CORE Literacy Consulting. Clarice graduated from Florida Atlantic University with a BA in Elementary Education and Teaching. She earned an EdS in Teacher Leadership and an MS in Elementary Reading and Literacy from Walden.

CHARLES D. GAULKIN
Former United Nations Editor. He earned an AB in 1952 from the University of Chicago. He and his wife, Jolanda, have homes in Oyster Bay, NY and Boynton Beach.

WILLIAM GILLERS
Retired attorney. He formerly worked with the USDA, U.S. Commission on Civil Rights and U.S. Treasury Department. He was admitted to the District of Columbia Bar in 1973. He earned his JD from American University, Washington College of Law in 1973. He has homes in Riviera Beach, Florida and Ancramdale, New York.

TONY NEWBOLD
President and CEO of KCK Consulting Group. Previously, he was the External Affairs Area Manager for FPL. Tony served on the boards of the Greater Boca Raton Chamber of Commerce, Delray Beach Chamber of Commerce and is chairman of the Board of Governors, West Boca Medical Center. He has chaired the Florida/Puerto Rico Affiliate of the American Heart Association and is also a board member of Old School Square, John Knox Village, DeVos Blum YMCA and previously chaired the Pompano Beach and the Boynton Beach Chambers of Commerce. He earned a BS in Business Administration and Management from Nova Southeastern University in 1983.

SERENA SPATES
Serena is a Delray Beach native and University of Florida graduate who specializes in communications and content strategy. She has appeared often on radio as well as television including programs such as WRUF AM850’s “Eye on Entertainment”, NPR’s “All Things Considered” on WUFT 89.1, and WUFT News 5. In 2014 Serena moved to NYC where she worked as a communications and marketing director before branching out to start her own business working with brands to create content. Serena has a passion for serving her community as she serves on the The City of Delray Beach’s Affordable Housing Advisory Board and The Community Advisory Board for South Florida PBS WXEL/WPBT. Currently, she is proud to serve as the Director of Marketing at Arts Garage and brings a wealth of knowledge, passion and creativity to the Marketing team.
OLLICE DAVIS, JR.
Retired Middle and High School Band Director. Music Arranger (Express Productions, Inc). He has served as a member of the Music Educators National Conference, Florida Bandmasters Association and Palm Beach County Music Teachers Association. Ollice graduated from Florida A & M University with a BS in Music Education and Conducting. He was Band Director 36 years in the Palm Beach County School District. His Bands were known around the State for their outstanding performances. The Band participated in Mardi Gras Parades and the 2007 Sugar Bowl Game, both in New Orleans, La. His students graduated in the top 10% of the Senior Class each year as either Valedictorian or Salutatorian.

RONALD SILVERMAN
Clinical psychologist. He serves as professor emeritus of psychology at the University of Michigan. He joined the University in 1972. Ronald served assistant chair of the Budget Priorities Committee and Chancellor’s Advisory Committee and served as department chair for two terms. His interests focus on clinical psychology. He developed the department’s Bachelor of Science degree program in clinical/community psychology. He and his wife, Gail, live in Lake Worth, Florida.

PHILLIP D. MROZINSKI
Executive Director for the Strategic Business Institute. Previously, he was the Institutional Investment Officer for the Financial Corporation of America, Vice President of Marketing for AmeriFirst Federal, National Sales Manager for Planned Management Investment Banking, Dance Instructor for Roseland Ballroom, Vice President of Audible Advertising, and Office Manager for Taylor & Saunders. He is a board member of Alzheimer’s Association. He was a former member of the Association for Retarded Children, the Milwaukee Jaycees, and Coleman Consulting. He earned a BA in Business Administration and Management from the University of Wisconsin. He earned an MBA and a PhD in Business from Nova Southeastern University.

DR. N'QUAVAH VELAZQUEZ
Dr. Velazquez is a seasoned educator with a background in teaching and mentoring prekindergarten to 12th grade students and college students, educational leadership, community projects and medical research with top tier universities. Her focus is to serve the community with high quality programs such as our newly opened Achievement Heights STUDIO and signature STEAM prekindergarten to eighth grade school model framed in project based learning and social emotional learning. In addition, Dr. Velazquez actively collaborates with stakeholders in the community to support local schools and educational organizations to assist struggling learners and improve the learning for students.