

Diabetes Resources

Education & Support

- The Diabetes Center at Cookeville Regional Medical Center crmchealth.org;
127 N Oak, Suite B., Cookeville, TN 38501
931-783-2927
- The American Diabetes Association diabetes.org – Diabetes Online Community, Medical Standards of Care, Education Resources, Listing of Diabetes Education Recognized Programs

Medications/Insulin Help

- County Health Departments – they have primary care doctors and nurse practitioners and can supply insulin when income guidelines are met.
- Low Income Subsidy Program – Social Security Administration
<https://www.cms.gov/Medicare/Eligibility-and-Enrollment/LowIncSubMedicarePresCov/EligibilityforLowIncomeSubsidy>

Or call your local Social Security Office

- Drug Manufacturer Websites – Merck, Lilly, Sanofi, Novo Nordisk – click on patient assistance application or call the manufacturer 1-800 number on the medication package or insert.
- Copay Cards for commercially insured – google search the name of the drug along with the words copay card
- Get free samples of medications from your primary or specialist doctor's office as available during emergencies.
-

Tennessee Camp for Children with Type 1 diabetes:

<https://tcdctype1.org/contact> 423-843-5006
debotn@hotmail.com

Social Media Groups:

Facebook – Type 1 Diabetes Support and Information Group

DiabetesinYourBody app –

available in the apple app store and google play