A native of Toronto, Jim has been a broadcaster (CITY, CTV, Rogers), writer, and communications consultant for over 40 years. He’s very excited about joining the Great British Telly Tour with fellow supporters of Buffalo Toronto Public Media.
Today as you arrive in London, you will be greeted by the Transcendent Travel team and we will begin our journey together. In the afternoon, we’ll participate in a history-focused walking tour of central London and then an unforgettable visit to Churchill’s War Rooms — the secret site where Sir Winston Churchill and his generals did their strategic planning of WWII. These rooms are today, just as they were when the war ended.

In the evening, as you settle into the beautiful Amba Hotel located at London Charing Cross, we will gather for a group welcome reception and delicious dinner to toast our week ahead exploring England.

For lunch, we will gather at the White Hart Hotel for a delicious group meal, then head to nearby Warborough — a village filled with thatched-roof cottages as well as the Six Bells Pub, where we will enjoy a pint with the locals. Later in the day, you'll have some free time in Reading for shopping or seeing the ruins of Reading Abbey. In the evening, we will dine in our beautiful hotel, The Roseate Hotel, one of the region’s most luxurious places to stay.
Today we’re off to Highclere Castle, the iconic home of Downton Abbey©, where you will enjoy a tour exploring the rooms and gardens that you know so well from this popular series. After your tour, you’ll have time for lunch or tea onsite as well as a stop to the gift shop where you can pick up the perfect souvenir of your visit.

In the afternoon we’ll head to Chavenage House, known as the Poldark house, famous for its wonderful Elizabethan interiors long before the series premiered. This evening, we will enjoy another group dinner together at The Roseate Hotel, looking back on what was a very special day.

In the afternoon, you will see the charming village of Biddestone in Oxfordshire — used as the backdrop of the series Agatha Raisin, based on the books by renowned author M.C. Beaton. Tonight, you will have an evening at your leisure to explore and dine at one of the great restaurants in Reading, just steps from our hotel.

During this fascinating visit, you will discover how thousands of people secretly worked to eventually break the code and interrupt enemy plans.

Following Bletchley Park, we will head to the glorious country house hotel, Luton Hoo — our home for the evening. Luton Hoo was where HRH The Princess Elizabeth (future Queen Elizabeth II) and Prince Philip spent part of their honeymoon in 1947, and was frequently visited by Queen Victoria. IMPORTANT NOTES:
Space is extremely limited on this tour, and because of the exclusivity of the included events, we are unable to add participants once the maximum has been reached.

Should you wish to add extra nights in London prior to or at the conclusion of the tour, please specify when making your booking. If available, we will be happy to make those arrangements with our hotels, alleviating the need to switch hotels.

All pricing is based on double occupancy. Upon request, we will make every effort to match a single customer with another party interested in sharing a room.

Due to the exclusive nature of the hotel involved, including a hotel with a limited number of rooms, we are only able to offer a limited number of single occupancy rates. Those are available on a first-come, first-serve basis at $4,975.

Please Note: Single rooms in the United Kingdom are often much smaller than double rooms. Paying a single supplement does not guarantee you a full-size double room.

Tour pricing is based on an exchange rate of $1.30 to the UK pound. Should the exchange rate rise above $1.60 to the pound within 120 days prior to the start of the tour, Transcendent reserves the right to bill each tour participant an additional $500 USD in order to cover the additional expense.
