MEDIA MEET

8/4-5 "Neighborhood Business Legislation"

A review of legislative proposals by Michigan House Democrats to support small businesses and entrepreneurship. The package, dubbed Neighborhood Business, Neighborhood Growth, includes a small business preference in state procurement, a retirement insurance option, and a new state services office aimed solely at small business owners.

8/11-12 "Ghost Town Revival"

How does one make a cultural resource out of a ghost town? We'll put that question to members of the Keweenaw County Historical Society, which has been restoring period homes in the town of Central, a former Copper Country mining community. (Repeat from July)

8/18-19 "Joselyn Benson: Candidate for Michigan Secretary of State"

A discussion with presumed Democratic candidate for Michigan Secretary of State, Joselyn Benson from Detroit, addressing issues of interest to voters.

8/25-26 "Diabetes Update"

Upper Peninsula residents with Diabetes make up about 9% of the population, but numbers appear to have increased statewide, putting more people at risk for related conditions, ranging from heart disease to blindness. Prevention and self-management remain key weapons against the disease. We'll look at the latest information and strategies. (Repeat from July)
