Enough White Teacups

This program is about sustainability and how design and invention can be used as an antidote. It asks the viewer to think of the word "design" as a verb and to think of the word "design" in a Scandinavian context... as a way to create an intended result such as this invention was designed to reduce plastic pollution in the ocean.

News from WNMU-TV

Stay Up to Date with the Latest News and Events at Public TV 13

Greetings,

Hello from the staff at WNMU, Public TV 13. There are a lot of changes in the air as the Station says goodbye to Bruce Turner, Station Manager, and Melinda Stamp, Graphic Designer. Replacing them are Bob Thomson, Broadcast and Production Manager, Nikki Walsh, Graphic Designer, and I'm Tod Poirier, Program and Traffic Manager.

You'll notice some changes over the next few months to our schedule. One of the biggest is changes to our afternoon lineup. We discovered we were not airing enough Children's Programming per PBS guidelines so we will now air that until 2pm. Then, similar to our weekday 2pm painting block, we created a 4:30 pm cooking block, 5:00 travel block, and our 5:30 pm slot is now Home and News programming. We hope this will make it easier for viewers to tune in every day to see their favorite genres.

We now also have a 3pm Michigan hour on Sundays where we highlight the best Michigan and Northern Wisconsin programming we have available.

We are excited to be able to bring back The Red Green Show as well. It is currently available as syndicated reruns and I was able to bring it back to WNMU. If you enjoy it on Sunday afternoons at 2pm and Saturday nights at 10pm, let us know!

At WNMU we take our viewers comments very seriously. If you have any comments, concerns, or are looking for a certain type of programming we aren't currently offering we would love to hear from you – drop us a note or give us a call!

Thanks for watching and I look forward to working for you,

Tod Poirier

Hello,

Allow me to introduce myself, I'm Bob Thomson, the Broadcast and Production Manager here at WNMU-TV. And yes, I'm the person that has to follow the legendary Bruce Turner. Not easy shoes to fill but I have been working with Bruce for the last 20 years as Producer/Director of the station. I've learned so much from Bruce, and because of his guidance and leadership I'm ready to continue on as Manager.

I would like to thank the many people who contribute to the station – you are our heartbeat. Thanks to you we are able to continue to offer quality programming. We recently sent out a letter asking you to help us meet our end of the fiscal year goal and you did not disappoint. The response was overwhelming. Thank you!

We have some exciting programs and events coming this fall including "Country Music," a new film by Ken Burns, and a new season of High School Bowl, so stay tuned to YOUR Public TV station, WNMU-TV

Thank you for your continuing support!

Bob Thompson,
Broadcast and Production Manager
