SECTION 3: Supplemental (Non-Vacancy Specific) Recruitment Activities

1. Activity: Participate in at least four events relating to career opportunities in broadcasting
- Date:
1. November 6, 2018 | Dept. of State Int'l Visitor Leadership | Tour ( 6 Int'l Journalists)
  2. Nov 8, 2018 | Escambia & Santa Rosa County Middle Schools | Tour (100 students)
  3. February 25, 2019 | Workman Middle School Mass Media Class | Tour (30 students)
  4. April 9, 2019 | SkillsUSA Region 1 | Broadcasting Competition (50 students)
  5. May 21, 2019 | Warren Averett Prospective Interns | (20 college students)
- Description:
1. WSRE hosted an Edward R. Murrow Program for Journalist group to discuss public broadcasting and how WSRE brings local community engagement to our viewing area and gave a tour of the television station. The six international journalists were from Albania, Belize, Egypt, Latvia, New Zeland and China. The visit was hosted by the Department of States' International Visitor Leadership Program facilitated by our local Gulf Coast Citizen Diplomacy Council.
  - 2 & 3. WSRE partnered with PSC recruiters to educate and provide hands-on demonstrations with area middle school students about broadcast careers. Station tours are designed to share the operations of a station and exposure to the workings of the green screen and cameras. The station coordinator designed a handout for all tour guests providing a visual representation and description of career options.
  4. In April, WSRE supplied seven (7) judges for four (4) events in the SkillsUSA 2019 competition. The categories were all broadcast/media related: broadcast news production, broadcast radio, cinema, and television production. WSRE's Ted King and James Roy worked with SkillsUSA staff to set-up a broadcast news set with a desk, chairs, lights, monitors with graphics, microphones, and SkillsUSA logos in Studio B at WSRE. They created anchor supers for the student directors to insert using the downstream key, and selected a video clip to be played from WSRE's video server during the student newscasts. Two student anchors and one student floor manager were in Studio B and communicated with the WSRE control room where a student director called and switched a 3-minute mock newscast. Rowan judged the activity in the studio while King judged the activity in the control room. King helped prepare the scripts in the teleprompter to make sure it was easily readable. Rowan helped select AP wire copy to be used for news content by the student teams. Judges for radio, cinema and television production included veteran members of WSRE's part-time staff. All judges attended a training session on Day One and judged for varying lengths of time on Day Two.
  5. Warren Averett, their college recruiter and a group of prospective college interns toured WSRE to showcase the station as one of their clients. The college students were part of an interview process to begin an internship with the firm in accounting. WSRE shared about public broadcasting and educated on the value of businesses like Warren Averett providing a portion of inkind services.
