Dear Friends,

Amy Burkett
General Manager
PBS Charlotte

PBS Charlotte celebrates Black History Month with a diverse selection of programs both highly entertaining and edifying.

The powerful four-part series Fight the Power: How Hip Hop Changed the World premieres on Wednesday, February 1st at 9 p.m. It is an incredible narrative of struggle, triumph and resistance that is brought to life through the lens of an art form that has chronicled the emotions, experiences, and expressions of Black and Brown communities: Hip Hop.

Beginning Wednesday, February 8th at 10 p.m., Making Black America: Through the Grapevine, chronicles the vast social networks and organizations created by and for Black people—beyond the reach of the “White gaze.” Professor Henry Louis Gates Jr. sits with noted scholars, politicians, cultural leaders to discuss this world behind the color line.

Eliza is still hard at work solving the mysteries of Victoria London in Miss Scarlett and the Duke on Sundays at 8 p.m. Followed by fan favorite All Creatures Great and Small at 9 p.m.

Thank you for “Channeling Your Curiosity” on PBS Charlotte.”
