WVIA Radio Highlights

Homegrown Music: Alien Red, Tuesday at 9pm

A Northeastern PA rock band who achieved some national success, Alien Red put in a Homegrown Music studio session in 2007 after the release of their eponymous second album. Their original music, featuring vocalist Aaron Brown is featured.

Il Trovatore, Saturday at 1pm

This is the first of two archival recordings from the Swedish Royal Opera. This is a 1960 live recording of Verdi's Il Trovatore with the exceptional tenor Jussi Bjorling in the role of Manrico, under the direction of Herbert Sandberg. This production of Verdi's popular opera was recorded at Jussi Bjorling's (1911-1960) last performance at the Royal Opera, the scene where he made his opera debut in 1930. This evening in 1960, his counterpart was the legendary Hjördis Schymberg (1909-2008). Already in 1934 she sang with Björling in Puccini's La Bohème and they sang over 100 performances together over the years. But as said, this was the last; the "Swedish Caruso" died in September of 1960 at the age of 49. Manrico in Il Trovatore was one of Jussi Björling's parade roles. Kerstin Meyer, who was 17 years younger than Björling, sings the role of Manrico's mother Azucena. Hugo Hasslo also participates here, in the role of Count Luna.
