Abigail's Surprise

by Whitley Smith
Whitley and Abigail the Unicorn were in Candyland to see the King. They wanted to visit because they wanted to have a picnic of smores.
When they knocked on the door, the King did not answer.
Then they looked for his footprints and found some on Gum Drop Lane.

They were going to his secret hideout.
When they found the King, he had set up a surprise party for Abigail because it was her birthday.

There were other unicorns and her llama friends.
There was a big, giant cake with seven candles. They sang Happy Birthday.

Abigail had seven hundred presents to open.
Her birthday wish was to solve more mysteries.
